MANY YEARS AGO.

Files of the Journal, October 22, 1873.

The Postmaster General has established a new post office near the reservation, which will bear the name of Keastotone, and Lester W. Platt has been appointed postmaster. This office is directly on the route from Columbus to Albion, Boone county, Neb.

A very important and heretofore much disputed question has recently been decided by the supreme court of New York. The question decided by the court was that a man can pick all the fruit from a tree growing on his own land though it hang over on a neighbor's land.

Mr. Platte Baker has purchased two valuable lots on the corner of Washington Avenue and Fifteenth street. We learn that he intends erecting thereon a dwelling house. In the last two years the vicinity of Fifteenth street has made many improvements by the way of new buildings.

Fearful prairie fires are reported in different places throughout this state, and great damage done to individuals by loss of property. R. Butler of Schuyler, and McLaughlin of Butler county lost about $1,000. Capt. Curry and R. E. Briggs, each $150. The saddest statement we have heard is one that comes from a fire between Beatrice and Crete where the fire surrounded some school children and burned seventeen of them to death, and badly burned ten others so that several of them will die.

Last Thursday, Constable Ed Romiter

brought down Abe Larue, Mike Kush and Mike Sak, who live south of Genoa in Platte county, on a warrant charging them with cattle stealing, the complaint being made by Arnold Gerber. It seems that Gerber who had some cattle in a pasture belonging to Martin Kargas, which is located near where these people live. On October 9, he had occasion to go into it and look after some cattle he was going to sell. It was in the evening and after he had gone a short distance he saw a man walking through the pasture with a gun, and he also noticed that the cattle were excited. He went on a little further and discovered that the man with the gun was Sak. He asked him what he was hunting ducks. Kargas drove over a sand knoll and there discovered a young calf that had been shot in the head and had its throat cut. A little further on he discovered a wagon with a boy in it and a calf tied in the wagon. He questioned the boy about it, but the boy refused to answer. Kargas then talked with Larue and Sak about it and also had the dead calf taken to Duncan to Arnold Gerber, to whom it belonged that he might see what had become of it. In the meantime Kargas offered a reward of $50 for proof as to who shot the calf. Albert Gerber and Mike Wisenful concluded they would try and earn the $50, so they started out to do so. They at first interviewed Sak and Kush and finally got a sworn statement from them saying that Kush killed the calf, but did so at the request of Larue. They then went to see Larue, who attempted to settle it by paying Gerber $15 for the calf, and paying the $50 reward and also $10 to Kargas. After they were brought down they were released on their promise to be in court Friday morning. Larue and Sak were on hand but Kush decided that a change of climate would be beneficial and departed during the night. Larue and Sak were bound over to the district court by Police Judge O'Brien, and the bond placed at $1,000, which was furnished.

Last Friday evening John T. Burke

of Omaha presented a proposition to the city council in regard to the electric lighting plant. In substance his proposition is this: He proposes to install a new and up-to-date system, furnish day power and pump the city water for seven cents per thousand gallons. He asks the city for a five year contract for pumping water, the city to furnish the machinery and he to keep it in repair. A twenty-five year franchise for the lighting is asked, and he submits a schedule of prices for lighting that is lower than the present one, and he also agrees to put into effect the Philadelphia moonlight schedule for all night service. Mr. Burke and Mr. Heintz agreed on a price for the present plant, which he will purchase should the council be favorable to his proposition. He will then select a new site for the plant and install an entirely new, and up-to-date equipment as soon as possible, work to begin within sixty days after the franchise is granted. He also agrees to place the city in a position to successfully compete with any locality in the price of power for manufacturing purposes. The scale he presents is a sliding one and the more electricity used the cheaper it comes in proportion. The matter has been referred to the lighting committee and will in all probability be brought before the council for action in the near future.

Mr. Maria Ernst, living near Duncan,

died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Engle, Sunday evening, aged 81 years. Mrs. Ernst came to Nebraska from Switzerland, where she was born and raised, forty-one years ago with her husband and settled on the old homestead near Duncan, where she has since resided. She has been sick for some time and the last year has made her home with her daughter so that she could take care of her. Mrs. Ernst loved besides her husband, one son John Ernst, and two daughters, Mrs. John Engle and Mrs. Houser. The funeral was held Wednesday at the Methodist church in Duncan.

Joseph Curale, father-in-law of Deputy Sheriff Thos. Jaworski, died Tuesday, aged 80 years. He was born in Gallacia, Austria, and came to America about thirty years ago, locating in Iowa, and moving to Columbus in 1884. He was married in Austria and his wife still survives him, also four children, Mrs. Paul Wysocki and one son Joe, who lives in Chicago, and a son George who lives at Farwell, Neb., and Mrs. Thos. Jaworski of this city. The funeral will be held at the Catholic church Thursday morning at 8 o'clock and the burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

As a result of a lively scrap Tuesday morning warrants were issued for Thomas and Barney McTurgart. It seems that the trouble started in front of the Thurston hotel over some baggage, and after a short round Barney was a fit subject for the doctor's care. There has been bad blood between these two for some time, in fact ever since Tom started the second baggage line, and this is not the first time there have been blows. The matter will in all probability be aired in the police court this week.

Mrs. Carl Kramer, Mrs. J. G. Reeder

and Mrs. J. B. Geijson of this city and Mrs. W. Frank of Monroe went to Grand Island Monday to attend a home party at the home of Dr. A. J. Baker, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ford and two children of Sherman county, stopped in the city from Saturday till Monday with the Terrell and Jenkins families. They had been back to the old home in Indiana, where they had a splendid visit, but are glad to get back to the farm life in Nebraska.

W. A. Way returned last week

from his summer outing in the mountains of Idaho. Mr. Way brought home with him some specimens of rich ore taken from a mine, he is interested in. He has been superintending work on this mine, and the proposition looks mighty good to the owners.

Henry Ragatz, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lillie, and Dr. W. S. Evans, arrived Sunday evening from Youstville, Calif., where Miss Ragatz had been during the summer. The patient stood the long journey very well and the return home will no doubt be beneficial to her.

Buy the Munsing underwear at Gray's.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark of Woodville township were in the city last Wednesday afternoon, enroute from a trip through the east, which included the Jamestown exposition and other points of interest. Mr. Clark did not think very much of the exposition, but said the naval display was good. They spent some time in Washington and other cities, their stay being about two weeks.

A good stove is a real economy. You do not have to buy more than one or two stoves in a life time—if you buy good ones. Besides, a good stove saves fuel and repair troubles—at the same time giving the best service. If you want a good stove or range we ask you to examine our complete line and compare our prices.—Gray's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Draker of New York City, arrived in the city Thursday. Mr. Draker remained until Sunday, when he started on his return home. Mrs. Draker will be remembered as Miss Emma Cornish, who lived here a number of years with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Oehlrich, Mrs. Oehlrich being her aunt. She will make an extended visit with her aunt.

In the case of Greig vs. Smolinski and Kobor, the Woodville chivalri case, which was up before Police Judge W. O'Brien last week, County Attorney Hensley dismissed the case and the defendants paid the court costs. This case has attracted much attention in the northwestern part of the county and resulted in considerable ill feeling in Woodville township.

Joe S. Haney, George Bloedorn, C. J. Carrig, Jerry Carrig, James Coulter and Francis Walker comprised a fishing party to the "Honey Pike Waters" in Colfax county over Sunday. The boys reported a fine catch of pike, and all enjoyed themselves, and came home resolving to again try their luck in a week or so, when they intend to go better prepared and camp over Saturday night and get an earlier start, in order to have more time to devote to larger hauls.

W. M. Pollard of Monroe township was in the city Tuesday on business. He had just completed a deal for the purchase of B. M. Walker's farm of 130 acres, which adjoins his home place, the price being $80 per acre. Mr. Pollard has been a resident of Platte county for some time, and his purchase of additional land shows that he has faith in the future of this locality.

The first of the new steel passenger coaches being put in service by the Union Pacific passed through on the west bound local Tuesday. The car is of a different pattern from the ordinary coach, and more like a motor car, the windows being round and the entrance on the side. The new coach is said to be collision proof and is of the type that will come into general use on the road.

Smith-Nowman.

Promptly at 2:30 p. m., Saturday, Oct. 19, 1907, occurred the marriage of Milton O. Smith and Della E. Nowman, at the home of the bride three miles east of Columbus, the Rev. Lotan R. DeWolf of the Methodist Episcopal church pronouncing the solemn words that made them man and wife. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony. The home was handsomely decorated in green and white, the flowers being roses and carnations. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon with lace trimming and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The groom was attired in the regulation black. The presents were numerous, valuable and useful. The guests sat down to a dainty four-course luncheon by the following young ladies: The Misses Mary E. Newman, Belle Newman, Ethel Elliott, Blanche Niewohner, Ruby Newman and Mary Newman. After the luncheon all appeared on the lawn where fifteen pretty girls entered a contest for the bride's bouquet tossed high in the air by the bride. The contest brought forth loud applause from the assembled guests. Miss Mary E. Newman triumphantly carrying off the valuable prize.

The bride, a petite blond, tall, graceful, with an amiable, sunny disposition, is the only daughter of C. A. Newman, one of the honored and respected pioneers of Platte county. She was born and grew to womanhood in Columbus where her parents resided until they moved to the farm six years ago. She is a graduate of the Columbus High school and of University Place, Lincoln. She has been a prominent kindergarten teacher in the state the past three years and was very successful in her school work. The groom is a prominent young business man of Crete, Nebraska, where he has lived most of his life. He is a young man of pleasing address and stands high in the estimation of his numerous friends.

At five o'clock p. m. the young couple entered their carriage, the bride attired in a custom of blue silk with hat to match. Showered with rice, flowers and other things, the good wishes and blessings of all present, they were driven to the station in Columbus where they took the Los Angeles Limited for a short eastern trip, after which they will begin housekeeping in a home already provided by the groom in Crete. They will be at home to their multitude of friends about the middle of November. The Journal extends to the happy couple its sincere congratulations for a long and prosperous life.

Seven marriage licenses were issued by Judge Ratterman during the last week as follows: Frank Lasek, Columbus, Clara Mallok, Tarnov, Milton O. Smith, Crete, Della Newman, Columbus, John Kula, Katie Kasak, Columbus, James A. Richards, Maude J. Webster, Osceola, William R. Snell, Ida M. Pittman, Columbus, Anton Francisc, Genevieve Mayer, Platte Center, Willard J. Balkap, Creton, Carrie Wilkinson, Homer, Neb. The last named couple were well along in life, the groom being 71 and the bride 63.

John Henry Miller, one of the old settlers on Shell Creek, died Saturday morning, aged 68 years. He was born in Weigman, Hanover, Germany, March 7, 1831, and was married in that country in 1846. In 1869 he emigrated to America and settled in Wisconsin, where he remained two years, when he moved to Platte county. He leaves three children two sons, Fred and William Miller, and one daughter, Mrs. Kumph. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Losoko Creek church, and conducted by Rev. Deisinger.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West show

closed their present traveling season last Saturday at Richmond, Va. Prof. Wm. Sweeney, director of the Cowboy Band will arrive in the city this week, and on Saturday, in company with Capt. Geo. Fairchild, P. J. McCaffery, Judge W. N. Henley, J. A. Turner, O. L. Baker, Leo Jenkins, Jim Nelson and G. W. Turner will start on a camping trip of a week or more. This array of talent will doubtless make a great commotion among the fancy tribe.

Joe S. Haney, George Bloedorn, C. J.

Carrig, Jerry Carrig, James Coulter and Francis Walker comprised a fishing party to the "Honey Pike Waters" in Colfax county over Sunday.
