

BEST EVER WRITTEN

PRESCRIPTION WHICH ANYONE CAN EASILY MIX.

Said to Promptly Overcome Kidney and Bladder Afflictions—Shake Simple Ingredients Well in Bottle.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription, in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

The Bright Firstborn. They were discussing the law of entail—the English law bequeathing the bulk of the family property to the eldest son.

"There is 50 per cent. of logic in that law," said a physician, "and if the family property went to the firstborn, whether son or daughter, the law would contain 100 per cent. of logic.

For the first born child is practically always the best in brain, in body, in beauty, in everything.

"Why is this so? It is because married people love one another more profoundly at the beginning than afterward; for love, like all things, grows old, grows weak, often dies.

"Mrs. Craigie—John Oliver Hobbes—was a first born child. So was Marie Corelli. So was Richard Mansfield. So were Joseph Chamberlain, Lord Kitchener, Max Muller, Henry Irving, George Meredith.

"Look back into the past, and we see again the prominence of the firstborn, among them Mohammed, Confucius, Raphael, Milton, Dante, Goethe, Byron, Shelley and Heine."

To Err is Human. Robert Browning once found himself at a dinner, at a great English house, sitting next to a lady who was connected with the highest aristocracy. She was very graciously inclined, and did her utmost to make conversation.

"Are you not a poet?" she finally asked. "Well," said Browning, "people are sometimes kind enough to say that I am."

"Oh, please don't mind my having mentioned it," the duchess hastened to say, with the kindest of smiles. "You know Byron and Tennyson and others were poets."

A Value. "Nonsense," said the high financier, "we did not sell a worthless franchise."

"But such is current report," ventured the interviewer. The high financier made a gesture of impatience. "Young man," he returned, severely, "if you got hold of any old franchise that you could unload for two millions, would you regard it as worthless?"

No reply being possible to this, none was made.

Too Many Islands. Larry—My friend Casey has made a lot of money away gone to spend the summer in the Thousand Islands. He invited me to go.

Denny—Faith, why don't you go? Larry—Bedad, he didn't say which island was O might have to hunt over some hundred and ninety-nine before O found him. By that time my vacation would be over.

Some persons think coffee a real friend, but watch it carefully while and observe that it is one of the meanest of all enemies for it stabs one while professing friendship.

Coffee contains a poisonous drug—caffeine—which injures the delicate nervous system and frequently sets up disease in one or more organs of the body, if its use is persisted in.

"I had heart palpitation and nervousness for four years and the doctor told me the trouble was caused by coffee. He advised me to leave it off, but I thought I could not," writes a Wis. lady.

"On the advice of a friend I tried Postum Food Coffee and it so satisfied me that I did not care for coffee after a few days' trial of Postum.

"As weeks went by and I continued to use Postum my weight increased from 98 to 118 pounds, and the heart trouble left me. I have used it a year now, and am stronger than I ever was. I can bustle up stairs without any heart palpitation, and I am cured of nervousness.

"My children are very fond of Postum and it agrees with them. My sister liked it when she drank it at my house, but not when she made it at her own home. Now she has learned to make it right, both it according to directions, and has become very fond of it. You may use my name if you wish, as I am not ashamed of praising my best friend—Postum."

Commissioner on the Court.

A letter was received from Passenger Traffic Manager P. S. Eustis of the Burlington informing the railroad commission that the new cream rates promulgated to go into effect on November 1 must await judicial determination by the Chicago federal court.

This presents an actual conflict between the federal court and the railroad commission, and it is certain the commissioners will at once take steps to enforce their order.

State Treasurer Reports.

Treasurer Brian has filed his report of the month's business with the state auditor. Mr. Brian is carrying a cash items warrants, which otherwise would have to be registered for payment and which would draw a 4 per cent interest.

Contrary to the general impression all of the Lincoln banks save one have state deposits and are paying 3 per cent interest, while in Omaha the Brandeis bank pays the state 3 per cent. At this time Mr. Brian has on hand in currency in the neighborhood of $800. His business has always been carried on largely with checks, and he is continuing to issue checks, giving to those who need the cash just as little as possible.

Warrants issued against the temporary university fund are being registered, but usually run only a short time.

Since January 4, 1907, the state debt has been reduced $57,211.74. January 4 the debt was $1,341,228.40 and at close of business Thursday the debt was $1,284,016.76. The school fund invested in bonds since January 1 has increased $93,712.22. January 1 the school fund invested in bonds amounted to $5,722,424.13, and on November 1, the investment in bonds amounted to $6,716,137.35.

Pollard Preparing for Terminal Tax. R. D. Pollard, tax commissioner of the Burlington, accompanied by his son and assistant, Frank Pollard, called on Secretary Bennett of the state board of assessment to talk over the forms to be used in assessing the property of railroads located in towns and villages under the provisions of the terminal tax law enacted by the recent legislature.

Mr. Pollard said in his department he probably would need no extra help. Mr. Pollard has already had experience with the South Dakota terminal tax law, and he said while the assessors placed the value of the property plenty high, he did not know what increase would be made in the amount of taxes, because the levies had not yet been made. In Kansas a tax commission has been created which has full charge of the matter, and the railroads are yet to test this method in that state.

Heretofore the local property has been assessed by a state board there, and returned to the city or village in which the property is located.

Hay Car Case Appealed. The Northwestern railroad has appealed to the supreme court the case brought by Frank Dabney of Stuart, before Judge Westover, asking for a mandamus to compel the road to furnish five cars a day for ten days for shipment of hay.

The mandamus was granted by Judge Westover. Judge Letton has allowed a supersedeas, the bond being fixed at $2,500 and signed by R. W. McGinnis, Northwestern agent at Lincoln. The railroad claims it is not in the jurisdiction of the district court to mandamus a railroad in this way.

Overcharges by Railroads. Secretary of State Junkin is of the opinion that overcharges have been made by the railroads on all packages of books sent to county clerks. The total sum thus realized is estimated at about $500, as such packages have been sent to each county.

Mr. Junkin has received a letter from the Burlington agent at Mullen stating that the charges on the rejected book and senate journals were 48 cents instead of 30 cents, as at first reported.

Mr. Junkin has ascertained that the charges should have been 25 cents instead of 48 cents.

Not Admitted to Home. Because Burdette M. Cleveland of Fremont receives a veteran's pension of $30 per month, he cannot be admitted to the Grand Island soldier's home. This was the decision made by Secretary of State Junkin and Land Commissioner Eaton, who declared that the home at Grand Island was maintained for indigent veterans, and that this man's pension was too large to allow him admittance.

Missouri Pacific Railroad. The Missouri Pacific Railroad company has made its weekly report to the railway commission showing the amount of work done on the line. To October 26 ties had been spotted to the number of 106,188; ties renewed, 67,854; ties received, 68,764; ties on hand, 910; section men employed, 256. This report was for one division.

No More Special Rates. No more special rates for parties in special cars. The Union Pacific informed the railway commission that the present plan of carrying eighteen persons in a special car was unremunerative. After this there must be first-class fares for eighteen, unless the travelers are only going one way.

This will be a hard blow to the land-seekers, who are in the habit of engaging cars for the round trip. They will be compelled to pay full fare both ways.

"There is not a cent of state money in the suspended bank at Grand Island," said State Treasurer Brian. A balance of $4,000 was withdrawn some months ago the treasurer added because the bank demurred to paying 3 per cent interest.

It is not improbable that the Armour Packing company will shortly begin to brand its oleomargarine packages and not content the pure food law, or rather the interpretation put on that law by Food Commissioner Johnson.

TESTED BY TIME.

A Cure That Has Field Good for Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Crumlish of 1130 West Third Street, Wilmington, Del., says: "Some years ago I began to feel weak and miserable and one day awoke from a nap with a piercing pain in my back that made me scream. For two days I could not move and after that I had backache and dizzy spells all the time. My ankles swelled and I ran down dreadfully. I was nervous and had awful headaches. I wonder that any medicine could do what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me. They cured me four years ago and I have been well ever since."

JUST WHAT HE WANTED. Surely Here Were Musical Tastes Enough to Suit Anybody.

A gentleman of the most cultivated musical tastes, wishing to change his residence, advertised for rooms in a private family "fond of music." The next mail brought him the following reply: "Dear Sir: I think we could accommodate you with rooms, and as for music one of my daughters plays the parlor organ and guitar; another one plays the accordion and banjo; I play the cornet and fiddle; by wife plays the harmonica and my son the flute. We all sing and if you are good at tenor singing you would fit right in when we get to singing gospel hymns evenings, for none of us sings tenor. Or if you plays the base viol we have one right here in the house. If you want music as well as rooms and board we could accommodate you and there would be no extra charge for it. Lippincott's."

FAMILY'S SKIN TROUBLES. Eczema, Heat Rash, and Scalp Affections Afflict Different Members, But Cuticura Cures Them.

"My wife had eczema for five or six years. It was on her face and would come and go. We thought we would give the Cuticura Remedies a trial. We did so and she has never had a sign of eczema for four years. I myself used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment some time ago for falling hair. I now have a very heavy head of hair. We used Cuticura Remedies for our baby, who was nearly bald when young. She has very nice hair now. She is very fleshy, and we had so much trouble with heat that we would bathe her with Cuticura Soap and then apply Cuticura Ointment, it would dry the heat up so much quicker than anything else. Her New Hat. "I believe Maude is weakening in her championship of the Audubon movement against bird plumage hat trimming."

"What makes you think so?" "I notice in public, especially at the theater, she is showing the white feather."

With a smooth iron. J. J. DeFrance Starch, you can launder your shirtwaist just as well at home as the steam laundry can; it will have the proper stiffness and finish, there will be less wear and tear of the goods, and it will be a positive pleasure to use a Starch that does not stick to the iron.

The Circus Lemonade. Uncle Hiram—Be gosh, this here is the blamedeest weakest lemonade I ever drank.

Slangy Nephew—Gracious, uncle! Maybe they "handed you the lemon."

Uncle Hiram—Handed me a lemon? Great grasshoppers! They didn't even hand me a slice of lemon."

She Did Not Fear Death.

An old lady, on her seventy-third birthday once said, "I do not mind getting old, and I do not fear death, but I live in constant fear of paralysis."

"For some time I have been wanting to tell you of the great good your wonderful Sloan's Liniment is doing here," writes Mr. James F. Abernethy, of Rutherford College, N. C. "In fact, all your remedies are doing noble work, but your Liniment beats all in my eight years' experience with medicine. I find none to go ahead of it, having tried it in very many cases. I know of one young man, a brick-mason, who suffered from a partial, very, almost complete, paralysis of one arm. I got him to use your Liniment, and now he can do as much work as ever, and he sings your praise every day. I get all to use it I possibly can and know there is great virtue in it. I have helped the sale of your noble remedies about here greatly, and expect to cause many more to buy them, as I know they can't be beat."

Finance. "Sammy," said a Germantown mother recently to her youngest-born, "When you divided those seven pieces of candy with your brother did you give him four?"

"No, ma'am," replied Sammy, "I knew they wouldn't come out even, so I ate one before I began to divide."—Harper's Weekly.

A Slight Misapprehension. "Your party just now is rather in an apocalyptic condition, isn't it?" "Not at all—not at all. It only wants a leader."

Slight Misunderstanding.

They had been engaged just seven minutes by the clock, yet for the last three-seventeenths of that period there had been a proud, scornful look upon her fair face that was calculated to wither the orange blossom.

"I can't imagine, dear," he said, sadly, "what has come over you so suddenly. I simply asked if you were romantic, when—"

"Oh, George, forgive me!" she exclaimed, with a convulsive sob, as she threw her arms about his neck. "I thought you asked me if I was rheumatic."

No Decoration Required. It was Mr. Hobar's first experience with waffles, and he liked the taste of them. When he had been served twice, he called the waiter to him and spoke confidentially.

"I'm from Fokeville," he said, "and we're plain folks there; don't care much for style, but we know good food when we get it. I want another plateful of those cakes, but you tell the cook she needn't stop to put that fancy printing on 'em; just send 'em along plain."—Youth's Companion.

KIDNEY TROUBLES. The kidneys are essential organs for keeping the body free from impurities. If they should fail to work death would ensue in very short time. Inflammation or irritation caused by some feminine derangement may spread to some extent to the kidneys and affect them. The cause can be so far removed by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that the trouble will disappear. When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, swelling of the limbs or feet, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It may be the means of saving her life. Read what this medicine did for Kate A. Hearn, 520 West 47th Street, New York, who writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I owe a debt of gratitude to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it has saved my life. I suffered with kidney trouble, irregularities and painful periods, and my blood was fast turning to water. I used your medicine for some time and it has made me strong and well." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs cures Female Complaints, such as Falling and Displacements, Organic Diseases, Discharges and Expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility and invigorates the whole system. For derangement of the Kidneys in either sex Lydia E.
