ABOUT OUR NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS CLIPPED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

HONOR.

From the Republic.
Born, on Tuesday, January 31, to Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbon, a daughter.

Valentine Kuhn, on Route 2 has a mule that paces, something you don't see every day.

J. M. Carlisle, who has been at Columbus the last week on the sick list, returned Wednesday.

Bert Smith went to Dun-on Wednesday, where he will visit a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilmore.

Word received from Howells, Nebr., says that little Mary Gillespie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gillespie, is quite sick.

Jacob Smyer returned last Thursday evening from Dallas, S. D. While there he made a trip to Gregory and visited Frank VanAllen.

Mrs. John Fetter was called to Silver Creek Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her son Ed. A telephone message from them Wednesday says he was some better.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mars and W. L. McCone left Monday for the western part of the state. Mrs. Mars will visit at her home in Horshey, while Will and Mr. McCone go to Julesburg, Colorado, to look at land.

FULLERTON.

From the Post.
Mrs. Allen Benham has been spending the week with her son Will, at Columbus and with friends in Omaha.

Sheriff Babb took Mrs. Nels Johnson of Council Creek to the hospital for the insane at Hastings, Thursday morning.

The little son of Wm. McKee, out on Cottonwood, was quite badly hurt Wednesday afternoon by falling off a wagon. The wagon was heavily loaded with coal and a barrel of salt, and when the wheel passed over him the shock and injury were pretty severe.

Mrs. Ellen Parker died Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Bryson, aged 68 years. She had been suffering from dropsy for several months and has been confined to the house the greater part of the time since last summer. Since her condition became serious her son, J. H. Parker, of Salida, Colorado, has been at her bedside and he and her daughter Mrs. Bryson, with whom she made her home for a number of years, gave her every possible attention. In the three years that Mrs. Parker has lived here she has made many friends who will sadly miss her pleasant face and kind words. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. H. Cooper at the Bryson home Sunday afternoon.

BELLWOOD.

Henry Nelson came into Bellwood from Newman Grove the latter part of last week and visited with his many friends in this city.

Wm. Kindler, who took ill with scarlet fever week before last, died Sunday night last, after an illness of about nine days. Deceased came here from Garrison a few months ago and worked as barber for Dave Cook. While here he made many friends and seemed to be a young man of good habits. He was only a few months over 30 years of age. His body was taken to Garrison Tuesday for burial, where he has a large number of relatives.

A terrible accident occurred on John Hornberger's farm near Octavia Tuesday afternoon. It seems that Mr. Hornberger was having some wood sawed and that Slovic Vottava was doing the sawing. John Hornberger, Levi Meek, Iles Keller and Willy Jones were helping him. The saw, it seemed, was cracked. It was owned by Ben Keller and by it striking some hard substance, possibly a knot, it burst, resulting in striking Slovic Vottava across the chest, nearly covering the body in twin and snuffing his life out instantly, also covering the tendons in the calf of Willy Jones' leg and ripping the clothes of Iles Keller and bruising him up generally, hurting John Hornberger and Levi Meek; but not seriously. Levi Meek sustained a severe blow on the ankle, laming him for the present. Slovic Vottava had only been married about two months and now leaves his young wife to mourn his tragic end. Sad indeed is death even when it comes through sickness; but how much more sad is it when it goes out like a flash without any warning as it did in this instance.

CENTRAL CITY.

From the Nonpareil.
Mrs. Rathburn, who has been conducting a dressmaking parlor in the Schiller annex for several months, left Tuesday for Columbus where she will engage in the same business.

Through her attorney, Finley Howard of Columbus, Mrs. Chas. Wooster has filed suit in the district court of this county, praying for a decree of separation from her husband, the well known "sage of Silver Creek." Mrs. Wooster asks for the divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. She has not been living with Mr. Wooster for upwards of a year, having gone with one of her daughters to California several months ago.

James Sellars, for forty years a resident of this county, died at the home of his daughter in Rocky Ford, Colorado, Monday. Mr. Sellars had been in ill health for several months and doctors finally diagnosed his trouble as cancer of the stomach. He consulted medical specialists and made the trip to Colorado, hoping to find relief, but without avail, the malady growing more serious all the time until it ceased his death. The remains were brought to this place

Wednesday and the funeral was held Friday at the Catholic church. James Sellars was born in Canada November 22, 1834, and was thus 73 years, 4 months and 8 days old at his death. In 1890 he was married to Miss Margaret Doyle and eight years later came to Merrick county, filling on the homestead southwest of town which has been his home until about a year ago when he moved to this city. Mr. Sellars is survived by a wife, three sons and five daughters. To these bereaved ones the sympathy of a very large circle of friends is extended.

HUMPHREY.

From the Democrat.
Art Wolf of Columbus was in town the first of the week calling on friends and relatives.

F. H. Tieskotter was calling on friends and attending to business in Columbus last Sunday.

Mrs. Gerhard Groteluschen was in town the first of the week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. Karthaus, and family. She was accompanied by her son, Gerhard.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Frank Labens and Miss Thillie Poesfel. The interesting event will take place in St. Francis church in Humphrey on Tuesday Feb. 11.

Joe Beeping and his bride left Wednesday morning for Lester Prairie, Minn., their future home. The young couple left sooner than they expected on account of receiving a telegram that Mr. Beeping's mother was quite ill.

John Ahleiderger, formerly a resident of this place but now of Madison, was united in marriage at the latter place yesterday morning to Miss Nellie Brown of Stanton. The young couple drove to Humphrey and took the south bound U. P. train on their wedding trip.

Frank Flick, agent at the Northwestern depot, is minus a joint of the forefinger of his left hand as the result of not removing it from between a heavy box of merchandise and a truck which he was helping to unload at the depot one day the fore part of the week. The finger was so badly mashed that it was deemed necessary to part with the first joint, so on Tuesday Mr. Flick went up to Norfolk and had Dr. Salter, the company's surgeon, do the amputating.

GENOA.

From the Leader.
Miss Martha Hirschbrunner of Columbus was visiting her friend, Miss Gladys Slaughter, the last of the week.

If Hicke is a true prophet (and of course he is) we are going to have a hell of a spell of weather from now on. February, he predicts, will be crum fall of weather. Hail and sleet and snow, and snow and sleet and hail will follow one another so closely that old Sol will be a stranger when he first shows himself, along about the first of May. March is to give us a brand of weather that will curl your hair, and April will make you dizzy. So hunt your hole with the ground hog, and prepare for three months of weather.

FROM THE TIMES.

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Bell, mother of Mrs. Charles Landers, died at her home in Norfolk last Monday morning.

Swan Olson has purchased one of John Munson's Platine county farms east of town. In the deal Mr. Munson comes into possession of Mr. Olson's residence property on the south side of the track.

Andrew Engstrom returned last Monday to the Soldier's Home in Grand Island after two weeks visit with his Genoa friends and relatives. Andrew says the death rate at the home is increasing. In the past four months twenty-five inmates of the institution have answered the final roll-call.

Mike Dubos' troubles did not cease when the court dissolved the tie that bound him in the matrimonial harness a few weeks ago. When the court granted Mike's wife a divorce, the defendant was ordered to pay the plaintiff $100 as attorney fees. Mike didn't tell the court that he wouldn't obey the order, but that was what he made up his mind to do. He sold his stock, grain and farm implements recently, and on Thursday started for Oregon, leaving unpaid several bills around town and the money ordered paid to his former wife by the district court. When Mike reached Columbus he was taken into custody by Sheriff Babb and accoried to Fullerton, where he made a satisfactory settlement last Saturday. Mike was expected to arrive from Fullerton Monday on his way to Oregon and an officer was at the train to take him into custody, but after his first experience Mike got wise and drove to Central City Sunday and caught a west bound train and is Oregon by this time.
