

WITH THE SAGES.

What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult to each other?—George Elliot. The fruit derived from honest labor is the sweetest of all pleasures.—Vauvenargues. A fault which humbles us is of more use than a good action which puts us up with pride.—Bovee. The active only have the true relief of life. He who knows not what it is to labor, knows not what it is to enjoy.—Jay. IMPORTANT IF TRUE. The annual profits of Monte Carlo amount to $5,000,000. France makes $80,000,000 from its tobacco crop. Smoke up. India is no place for S. Veller, Jr. There are 26,000,000 widows there. In New York city 36 per cent of the male population wear beards. Next! In three baked bananas there is as much nourishment as in 25 pounds of bread. Only one person in a thousand lives to be 100 years old. Not that it matters to us.

MEDITATIONS OF A SPINSTER.

A breach of promise suit may be had, but the same girl as a wife would be worse. It takes a real homely girl to believe that the reason why more men do not propose to her is because she won't allow them to get to that point. Most marvelous of all his accomplishments is the way that the deepest-dyed man never looks guilty, but as innocent as a lamb. Distribution. "Why don't you make some arrangements for the distribution of your great wealth?" said the socialist. "I see no necessity for that," answered the magnate. "It is already distributed in such a manner as to yield me the largest possible dividends."—Washington Star.

As Times Change. "Politics is getting to be wonderfully interesting," said the observer. "Yes," answered Senator Sorghum. "It is mighty interesting. But between you and me, it isn't near as much of an investment as it used to be."

YOUR EYES. Don't trust your eyes to traveling oculists or peddlars. We are the oldest manufacturing opticians in the state—grind our own lenses—make our own frames—Consultation free. Glasses fitted, $1.00 up. Hutton Optical Co., Exclusive Opticians, 212 So. 16th St., Omaha, Neb. Factory on premises. Wholesale and Retail.

Due Process of Law. At the time of the famous Eastman trial in Cambridge, Mass., two Irishmen, standing on a street corner, were overheard discussing the trial. One of them was trying to enlighten the other concerning a jury. "Bedad!" he explained. "You're arrested. This if ye gets th' smartest lawyer, ye're innocent; but if th' other man gets th' best lawyer, ye're guilty."—Life.

Wanted Particulars. As an example of what men in the railroad business have to endure, a conductor on the Seaboard Air Line relates that while he was passing through a coach a few days ago a young woman stopped him and asked how far they were from Weldon. He replied that they were about 55 miles from Weldon. She then asked: "This side or the other side?"

A Way Out of a Difficulty. An old Highlander, being sent one day for five yards of satin, forgot his errand, but not to be done, said to the shopman: "Can ye give me another name for the del (devil) forby the del!" The shopman said "Satan." "That be him," was the answer. "Whan me off five yards of him, white."—Dundee Weekly News.

Workmen's Homes. The city government of Milan has voted to appropriate $1,150,000 for the construction of further series of houses especially built for workmen and their families, and the municipal loan office (the city pawn department) will give $100,000 out of its profits toward the same purpose.

Reason for Grief. "You look unhappy." "But you once said that if your husband ever accumulated a million you would be perfectly happy." "I know it, but Mrs. Nездore's husband has accumulated two millions."

Collecting for Lincoln Monument. The Abraham Lincoln Centennial Memorial Fund of Nebraska is what Addison Wait has named the association which will take up a collection for a monument to be erected on the state house grounds, in memory of the martyred president. Governor Sheldon has been chosen president of the association; George C. Junkin, secretary; Treasurer Brian, treasurer, and Addison Wait corresponding secretary.

Forest Trees Exempt From Tax. County assessors if they follow the revenue law will exempt from taxation all hedge fences and forest trees grown and cultivated on land in their counties. The land itself is not exempt but all property used exclusively for agricultural and horticultural societies is exempt from taxation. Section thirteen of the revenue law of 1903, says: "The increased value of lands by reason of live fences, and forest trees grown and cultivated thereon, shall not be taken into account in the assessment thereof."

Regent W. G. Whitmore's Case. Attorney Rich called on the commission to ask for a ruling as to the legality of paces given to men who care for stock yards and feeding stations in the Union Pacific. W. G. Whitmore, of Valley, who with his son, has charge of feeding yards at Valley and Grand Island for the Union Pacific called also. Another feeding station is maintained at North Platte. Mr. Whitmore has a contract to receive in part payment for his services transportation between the two feeding stations which he has charge of.

The State Capital

Matters of General Interest FROM Nebraska's Seat of Government

Burlington Answers Sibley. Attorney James E. Kelly of the Burlington alleges that Senator C. A. Sibley of Lincoln county is not a shipper or consignee of grain in Nebraska and is therefore not a proper person to file a complaint under the Aldrich bill asking the railway company to reduce rates on grain 15 per cent. Mr. Kelly further expresses the belief that Senator Sibley's complaint was not filed in good faith. He goes after the commission by alleging that it has no power to reduce local grain rates in Nebraska because that would in effect be controlling grain rates between the states, a power retained by congress. These allegations, and many others are made by Mr. Kelly in his belated answer filed with the state railway commission. He admits that the last legislature passed an act reducing the rates on grain and certain other commodities to 15 per cent and that the act is in force on the lines of the Burlington. Yet he says these rates are not remunerative as to state traffic and that the Sibley complaint is not in accordance with the requirements of that act because it fails to enlighten the defendant of the nature of the complainant's grievance. The Burlington's answer endeavors to make plain that rates on grain to the various markets are now relatively equal and permit competition between markets outside of Nebraska, but if local rates are lowered it will disturb this equality and fairness of interstate rates and give Omaha buyers an advantage.

Sheriff's Fees Pile Up. By reason of the fact that the sheriffs of Lancaster, Douglas and Sarpy counties kept their state priors in the county jail the full thirty days allowed by law it cost the state more during the last ten months for expenses brought from those counties to the penitentiary than from many other counties which are farther away. Notwithstanding the Lancaster county jail is within two and a half miles of the state prison, and the institutions are connected by street railway, it costs the state an average of $21.14 per trip, and an average of $19.73 per prisoner; Douglas county $29.12 per trip and $22.50 per prisoner; Sarpy $30.66 per trip; $23 per prisoner. This includes board for prisoners, railroad fare and all incidentals; expenses of bringing the prisoner to the penitentiary. Saline county prisoners cost the state $9.68 each. This is the lowest average cost of any of the counties. The period in which this expense was incurred was from April 1, 1907 to January 31, 1908. It is only fair to say that Sheriff Bralley of Douglas county is now bringing prisoners to the penitentiary as soon as possible after conviction, which during the coming year will reduce the cost to the state.

Legality of Insurance Merger. In insurance circles doubt is expressed as to the legality of the merger of the Fraternal life association of Hastings with the Western indemnity company of Chicago, which has been approved by State Auditor Searle. The statute is silent as to whether a fraternal company, organized in Nebraska, can merge with a company organized under another state, but there appears to be nothing in the law to prevent it, so it is considered legal in that respect. The Hastings company is a fraternal company and the Chicago company is a mutual association. Whether or not any but fraternal can merge has been discussed, but Auditor Searle believes the law is broad enough to permit this.

Firetrap at Lyons. Labor Commissioner Ryder will order the owner of the new opera house at Lyons to reconstruct his building to better provide for the safety of the public. Mr. Ryder visited the building and inspected its interior and exterior arrangement and arrived at the conclusion that it is unsafe. The opera house is in the second floor of a building. The entrance is from the rear of the building by means of a narrow stairway that has one turn in it. The only exit for patrons is a rather narrow door in the rear leading to this stairway.

Military Board Meeting. The state military board met with Adjutant General Schwartz, Colonel Storck of the First regiment and General Cowin, judge advocate general, present. Various bills were passed upon and matters of interest to the board discussed. Major Davidson and Adjutant General Schwartz left for Broken Bow to begin their inspection of the National guard companies.

Anti-Pass Law Test Suit. Attorney General Thompson announced that he would test the anti-pass law by filing a complaint against Dr. F. A. Graham of Lincoln, a Union Pacific surgeon. A suit will also be filed to test the legality of exchanging newspaper advertising for transportation.

Increase in Cattle Premiums. Secretary W. R. Mellor has issued notice to livestock breeders that the state fair board has increased the total premiums for cattle and swine. The premiums for cattle have been increased from $3,632 to $5,018, or thirty-eight per cent.

Attorney Tom L. Sloan of Thurston county believes that he has been beaten out of both a retaining fee and a client, and has appealed to the supreme court to give him judgment for a $250 retaining fee against Alfred Halliwell. The latter thought that he had killed a man and promised Sloan $250 as a retaining fee. The man supposed to be murdered later tried to get Sloan's services in a prosecution against Halliwell for assault and battery. Sloan refused, but he did not receive the retaining fee.

Mr. Berge Wants Damages. False representation on the part of Frank Eager are alleged by George W. Berge in an amended petition filed in the district court to be the cause of his buying the Independent, a local weekly newspaper. Mr. Berge asks $8,000 damages and such other relief as the court may deem fit. He declares the property was actually loaned money at the time of the transfer, but he was induced to pay $11,500 for it on Eager's representation that it was worth it and making $5,000 a year.

Kenison Gets New Trial.

Ernest S. Kenison, who shot and killed Sam Cox in the town of Minatare, Scott's Bluff county and who was sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty-four years, has obtained a reversal of the judgment in the supreme court because of erroneous instructions of the trial court. Judge Grimes of the lower court instructed that malice is presumed from the use of deadly weapons. The supreme court held this error and that malice could not be presumed. The lower court gave an instruction on manslaughter, which in substance shifted the burden of proof from the state to the defendant. The court held this was error and that the burden never shifted from the state. The court holds an instruction which assumes the crime to be murder in the second degree is erroneous since it is for the jury to determine from all the evidence the intent with which the shooting was done. Cox was formerly a well known newspaper man in Lincoln and at the time of his death he was a publisher of a newspaper at Minatare. Kenison was a hotel keeper. The two quarrelled and fought and in the fight Cox was shot to death.

Railroads Ignore Oil Inspection. The railroads of Nebraska continue to ignore the ruling of State Inspector A. B. Allen that all illuminating oil shipped into the state must be free in force on the lines of the Burlington. Yet he says these rates are not remunerative as to state traffic and that the Sibley complaint is not in accordance with the requirements of that act because it fails to enlighten the defendant of the nature of the complainant's grievance. The Burlington's answer endeavors to make plain that rates on grain to the various markets are now relatively equal and permit competition between markets outside of Nebraska, but if local rates are lowered it will disturb this equality and fairness of interstate rates and give Omaha buyers an advantage.

Prosecuting Pass Holders. Dr. James Woods of Schuyler is likely to be the first defendant in a suit brought under the anti-pass law on the charge of accepting a free pass from the Union Pacific railroad. County Attorney B. F. Farrell of Colfax county visited the state railroad commission to secure evidence upon which to base his case, in the shape of the Union Pacific statement of its passholders. The attorney general sent out notices informing county attorneys of their duties and he is likely soon to receive information that additional suits will be filed. Numerous newspaper men are sending word that if their action in accepting mileage in return for advertising is in violation of the law, they will give up the transportation.

Insurance Fight Kept Up. Charles Goss, attorney for members of the Bankers' Reserve Life Insurance company of Omaha, has filed a protest with Auditor Searle against the use of the name, "The Bankers' Reserve Life," by members of the original company, who desire to form a stock company. The complainants against the organization of a stock company in place of the old mutual company were defeated in the court of Douglas county. It is reported they will appeal from that decision, and in the meantime protest to the auditor.

ECZEMA FOR 55 YEARS. Suffered Torments from Birth—in Frightful Condition—Got No Help Until Cuticura Cured Him. "I had an itching, tormenting eczema ever since I came into the world, and I am now a man 55 years old. I tried all kinds of medicines I heard of, but found no relief. I was truly in a frightful condition. At last I broke out all over with red and white boils, which kept growing until they were as big as walnuts, causing great pain and misery, but I kept from scratching as well as I could. I was so run down that I could hardly do my work. I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment, Resolvent, and Pills for about eight months, and I can truthfully say I am cured. Hale Bordwell, Tipton, Ia., Aug. 17, 1907.

IMMIGRATION FROM SOUTH EXPECTED

U. S. FARMERS ARE RECOGNIZING SPLENDID OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED BY WESTERN CANADA.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 9, 1908.—Present indications are that the Canadian Northwest will draw an exceptionally heavy movement of new settlers from the United States this year. It should surpass the banner record for 1907. This is not only based on the fact that the Americans have come to realize generally that the Canadian Northwest offers splendid opportunities, but also because the railroads have awakened to the fact and are offering rates to the Canadian Northwest which are exceptionally favorable.

The lines which lead to St. Paul from the east and south are offering homeeekers' rates to the Canadian Northwest this year which are on a parity with those in existence to the southwest for a couple of seasons. These rates can be obtained from any agent of the Canadian government, who will be pleased to give all information possible regarding those districts which offer the greatest inducements to settlers. The weather throughout Western Canada has been remarkably good this year. A telegram from the winter wheat belt of Southern Alberta dated at Cardston, Alberta, January 29th, says: "This winter up to January 25 was nothing short of a marvel, in fact, it was the finest anyone can remember for twenty-five years though there have been others nearly as good. The days were fine, sunny and warm with light frosts at night. Overcoats and gloves, etc., were discarded by most people in the day time. There was so little frost in the ground that post holes could be dug without any trouble after the first inch was broken through. Winter wheat remained fresh and green although there has been no snow since the September storm. If there is an early spring, winter wheat should gain a great start."

Amongst the reports of the yield of last year the following extracts are taken: H. Howe, of Magrath, Alta., writing on November, 1907, says: "I have 70 acres in crop, 50 acres of wheat and seven acres of oats. My average yield of oats was 35 bushels to the acre, and of wheat 45 bushels. The value to me was $35 per acre." J. F. Haycock, of Magrath, writes in November: "I had 65 acres in winter wheat, which went 60 bushels to the acre; oats averaged 80 bushels. I also had 12 tons of hay worth $10 per ton. I got 600 bushels of potatoes from three acres of land; I got eight tons per acre from five acres of sugar beet."

J. F. Bradshaw, of Magrath, had 1,000 acres of winter wheat last year which averaged 29 1/2 bushels to the acre. The value of his farm products per acre was: Wheat, $31.60; oats, $11.20 and barley, $25.15.
