ABOUT OUR NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS CLIPPED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

ST. EDWARD.
From the Advance.
Mrs. L. E. Britell and daughter Mable of Columbus are spending the week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. Britell.
Pay Moore left Tuesday for Columbus to be present at an operation which Mrs. Moore underwent at the St. Mary's hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Matson of Columbus were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neils Hesselbach last week, returning home Monday.
Miss Vesta Slater returned home Tuesday to Columbus after spending a few days in St. Edward, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mangrove.

LINDSAY.
From the Post.
Mrs. Reide and Mrs. Reivert visited at Columbus last Saturday.
The new cross for the Catholic church arrived the first of the week and was placed on the steeple Tuesday evening.
A man southeast of here, when asked if there were any ducks and geese on the creek, replied, "No, the hunters don't give them time enough to take a drink."

T. J. and D. F. Ducey returned to their home at Edmont, Canada, Monday, after spending a few weeks with relatives and their sick mother, who is slowly recovering. Mrs. T. J. Ducey left the same day for Buffalo, N. Y., for a short visit before returning home.

FULLERTON.
From the News-Journal.
Jim Slade has bought a saloon in Grand Island and will move over as soon as his lease is out here May 1st.
A "short change" artist was arrested at Belgrade the first of the week and lodged in jail here. He was drunk when arrested and had a "flash" roll of bills, but it seemed there was no evidence enough in sight to convict. He was discharged yesterday and left town on the next train.
A California paper sent to Geo. D. Meiklejohn, says: Judge Church has ruled that unless Willard B. Zibbell, the horseman who was terribly mutilated by being run over by a Southern Pacific railroad train, will consent to accept $70,000 damages instead of the $100,000 damages awarded by a jury, a new trial will be granted. The Zibbell case stands on a record as being one in which the largest amount of damages for personal injuries has ever been awarded in this country. The railroad asked a new trial on the ground of excessiveness of damages. With Zibbell when he received his terrible injuries was a young man named McMahon who was instantly killed. A suit brought by the mother for damages is pending.

HUMPHREY.
From the Democrat.
Jan. McDermott of Columbus was calling on friends in town this week.
Dr. D. T. Martyn of Columbus, was in town Wednesday evening on professional business.

The Democrat is sorry to learn that Jos. Gerns is dangerously ill at his home west of town. We understand there is little hope for his recovery.
Talk about high price land in Nebraska. We notice by the Ulysses Dispatch that Henry Diers, a brother of L. D. of this place, recently sold 8 1/2 acres of land adjoining the city of Ulysses at an average of $750 per acre.

Jos. Botheholder received a telegram Saturday evening announcing the critical illness of his mother at her home in Burlington, Iowa, and he immediately drove to Columbus to catch the early train east. He arrived in Burlington Sunday afternoon, but too late to see his mother alive, she having passed away that morning. The remains were brought to their old home at Hebron, this state, and interred there Wednesday morning beside her husband, who died four years ago. The deceased was 47 years of age.

Mrs. Mary Schuele died at the home of her son, Max, northeast of town, Tuesday afternoon at the age of 75 years, 6 months and 1 day. The cause of her death was stomach and kidney trouble. She had been a continuous sufferer for the past three months, all of which time she was confined to her bed. Deceased was born in Germany September 23, 1833. In 1854 she was united in marriage to Phillip Schuele, who died in 1871. In the fall of 1883 Mrs. Schuele and her children came to America and lived in Wisconsin until the following spring when they moved to this neighborhood, where she made her home with her son, Max, until her death. Deceased is survived by three children, Max of this place, Alfred of Denver, and Ernest of Cameron, Mo. The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Francis church and the interment was made in St. Francis cemetery.

PLATTE CENTER.
From the Signal.
Mrs. B. Molliger, from near Columbus, was a guest of Mrs. F. F. Leebacher last Friday.
Henry Newman, residing south of town, is just recovering from an attack of gall stones.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Marrow, of College View, are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mark.
The six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gosman, of Shell Creek township, fell from the seat of a disc last Friday in such a way as to fracture the knee-cap of his left leg.
Clint Wilber shot a monster goose last Sunday. It weighed between thirteen and fourteen pounds, and measured six feet two inches from tip to tip of wing. It was no gander goose either, just a goose goose.

Miss Beattie Burns of Omaha and Miss Mamie Mackes of Columbus, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. and Eugene Mackes and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Coony during the early part of the week, returning to their respective homes Tuesday.
It doesn't always pay to be too industrious, not while in the employ of a corporation, even. Our U. P. railroad agent, A. G. Farber, has been putting in more than the prescribed 9 hours time some days lately and last night another man arrived here to relieve him. Whether this will be permanent or not seems to know. A. W. McKean is the name of the new man.

A large number of invited friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Scheidel, jr., last Saturday evening for a social good time. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Ed Bellus and Mrs. Herman Brudbacher of Columbus. Games and refreshments constituted the principal feature of the entertainment. A most excellent time is reported by the participants.

On Tuesday Joe Witte departed for a visit to his boyhood home, in Kentucky. Joe says he left there seventeen years ago, when he was a lad, neglecting to bid his people good-bye, and has not been back since. He has seen numerous streams of sunshine and shadow in the mountains, including a term of soldiering in the Philippines. His father, a sister and a brother, and numerous other relatives live there. He expects to be absent two or three months.

ALMOH.
From the Argus.
Mrs. Herman Lull made a pretty good start in the poultry business this week by taking off 120 little chicks from her 100 egg incubator.
Mr. and Mrs. Fern of Columbus, came up Saturday and spent a few days visiting at Jas. and Fy. McKellips' returning home Wednesday.
D. J. Gates was loading his 5th car of baled alfalfa Monday to ship to the alfalfa mill at Fremont. He says what we need around here is a few thousand more acres of alfalfa and a mill here in town.
Henry Cave celebrated his eightieth birthday St. Patrick's day. He is a pretty spry old man for one of his age. Last fall he hushed corn and did pretty good work. He goes without a care and enjoys his best days. He is planning a visit to his boys Hart and Chas. in Leppa county this week and expects to drive through with his son O. H. He is one of the old settlers coming here in 1870 and has stayed by it ever since.

From the Gazette.
At the Henshog sale at Ulysses thirty head brought $1,050. So sayeth the Dispatch.
Mrs. Dave Cook is compelled to go round her home now with the aid of crutches. She was at Garrison one day last week and while out riding with her husband the team made an attempt to run away, when Mrs. Cook jumped from the vehicle and sprained her ankle.
Mr. Edgar Mahlin and Miss Mable Allen, both of Summit township, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday. The new bride and groom are numbered among the best families of Summit. They will make their home on a farm in Summit.

From the Mound Bay Advertiser, Cape of Good Hope, we copy the following notice concerning the death of our brother's wife: "It is our sad duty to record the death of Mrs. McGiffin, the wife of Mr. McGiffin, our respected headmaster of the Boys' School. Death came in the early hours of Monday morning, after four weeks of a severe typhoid fever. The deceased was 43 years of age and leaves her sorrowing husband with six children, some of which are interested. All the flags in town were at half mast during the day, and the funeral took place at 4:30 p. m. at the English Church cemetery, the Rev. Miller, conducting the burial service. Four of Mr. McGiffin's school boys, Maria, Johnson, Wright and Downing, acted as pallbearers, the present school boys and old school boys following the chief mourners. Every townsman attended the funeral and wreaths and flowers were sent by everybody. To Mr. McGiffin and his children we tender our heartfelt sympathies at the irreparable loss of their good wife and mother."

SILVER CENTER.
From the Standard.
Miss Blanche O'Connor is home again from Genoa, the school having been closed again on account of scarlet fever, three new cases having developed.
We can best Bryan's plan to guarantee the safety of banks, but it is not original with us. The Chinese government has been practicing it for thousands of years. The heads of bank officers, separated from their bodies are recombined among the assets of a wrecked bank and it works.
Wednesday about noon fire broke out on the old Astor farm west of town which is now occupied by Herman Strawn. An alarm was given by ringing the school house bell in District 40 and farmers from all over the neighborhood, as well as the section men, gathered to fight the fire. The farm buildings were endangered and it was a close call for the school house, but little damage was done excepting the burning of two stacks of hay. The school children either ran home or to the E. H. Corson farm for safety. The fire was supposed to have been fanned up by the wind from smoldering coals in a straw-stalk which had been burned a few days previously.

LEIGH.
From the World.
Little Carl King was so unfortunate as to break his shoulder blade while playing last Tuesday. The little fellow however, did not know it until Thursday morning when his shoulder had swollen so badly that a physician was called who reduced the fracture.
Clara Young, an old and respected citizen of Madison, fell down the cellar stairs last Sunday evening and broke his neck. He was carrying rain water from the cistern up from the cellar for the morning's washing. He had carried one pail to the top of the stairs and handed it to his wife and when she came back from emptying it she saw him lying at the foot of the stairs with his neck doubled under his back. Mr. Young was 71 years old and had lived in Madison county for thirty-five years and was prominent and well liked. He was chairman of the Madison County Soldiers Relief commission and took an active part in politics.
Rev. F. A. Miller, of Lincoln, received a terrible whipping on the main street of Utes last Monday, administered by the business men of that town. During the revival held at the Presbyterian church there last week it appears that Rev. Miller grossly insulted the ladies of the congregation, saying it was an indecent organization, etc. Last Friday evening a crowd of men attempted to give the evangelist a shower of eggs that had been better days. It was then given out that Rev. Miller would preach a public apology to the women on Sunday and retract his remarks. This he failed to do and his failure to make good so incensed the husbands of said ladies that the drubbing ensued the following day.
