Good money is made by the Governnent in which you have implicit faith and confidence. Good goods are made by manufacturers who are willing to stake their reputations on the quality of the material offered to you through the medium of their advertisements in this paper. Counterfeit goods are not advertised. The reason for it is they will not bear the close scrutiny to which genuine advertised goods' are subjected. Counterfeit money pays more profit to the counterfeiter. Counterfeit goods are offered to you for the

Insist on the Genuine-Reject the Cornterfeit.

AN EXPLANATION.

"Why didn't you answer you: teacher when she spoke to you in the arithmetic class, Ethel?"

"Cos mamma told me I muthn't thpeak durin' theool hourth."

Beware of Ointments for Catarri that Contain Mercury, as mercary will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering? through the mucous surfacea. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, ty F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials from the hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Willing to Be Convinced.

A sturdy tramp one day went into a suburban garden, where the lady of the house was engaged in attending to the flowers. He took no notice of her refusal to give coppers, but continued his importunity until a bull dog appeared, growling ominously. The lady seized it by the collar and held it, calling out: "You had better go away at once;

he may bite you." "You ain't got no right to keep a savage dorg like that," replied the tramp in outraged tones. "Perhaps I have not," was the cool wer. "If you think so, I won't keep him-I'll let him go."

The latch of the gate clicked violently, and in 20 seconds that tramp had vanished into space.—Stray Stories.

BOY KEPT SCRATCHING.

Eczema Lasted 7 Years-Face Was All Raw-Skin Specialists Failed, But Cuticura Effected Cure.

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face. I took him to a doctor, but his face kept on getting worse until it got so bad that no one could look at him. His whole face was one crust and must have been very painful. He scratched day and night until his face was raw. Then I took him to all the best specialists in skin diseases but they could not do much for him. The eczema got on his arms and legs and we could not get a night's sleep in months. I got a set of Cuticura Remedies and he felt relieved the first time I used them. I gave the Cuticura Remedies a good trial and gradually the eczema healed all up. He is now seven years old and I think the trouble will never return. Mrs. John G. Klumpp, 80 Niagara St., Newark, N. J., Oct. 17 and 22, 1907."

A GOOD COLD.

got, my little man!" "It's a very good cold; it's kept me away from school for two weeks now! '

Sheer white goods, in fact, any fine wash goods when new, owe much of their attractiveness to the way they are laundered, this being done in a manner to enhance their textile beauty. Home laundering would be equally satisfactory if proper attention was given to starching, the first essential being good Starch, which has sufficient strength to stiffen, without thickening the goods. Try Defiance Starch and you will be pleasantly surprised at the improved appearance of your work.

When you are dealing with a man who continually insists that "business is business" you had better examine all the documents carefully.-Puck.

important to Mothers. nine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it Signature of In Use For Over 30 Years. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Anybody can launch a national party, but to keep it affoat requires whom the nuptial dinner was design-

Chocolate Pie! Chocolate Pie! The more you eat the more you want if they are made from "OUR-PIE" Preparation. Try it and tell your friends how easy it is to make delicious chocolate pies. Three varieties—Lemon, Chocolate, and Custard—at grocers, 10 cents a package. "Put up by D-Zerta Co., Rochester, N.Y."

The true test of greatness is the shility to wear the same size hat continuously.-Puck.

Lewis' Single Binder straight 5c cigar is good quality all the time. Your dealer of Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

Even a poor wall-paper hanger may put up at good hotels.

Those who await no gifts from chance have conquered fate.-Richter.

Mr. Barnes, BY ARCHIBALD CLIVERING GUNTER A MCTICAN - A Sequel to OF NEW YOR MRBARNES OF NEW YORK DODD MENDECO. N.Y.

SYNOPSIS.

Burton H. Barnes, a wealthy American touring Corsica, rescues the young Eng-lish lieutenant, Edward Gerard Austruthtouring Corsica, rescues the young English lieutenant, Edward Gerard Austruther, and lis Corsican bride, Marina, daughter of the Paolis, from the murderous vendetta, understanding that his reward is to be the hand of the girl he loves, Enid Anstruther, sister of the English lieutenant. The four fly from Ajaccio to Marseilles on board the French steamer Constantine. The vendetta pursues and as the quartet are about to board the train for London at Marseilles, Marina is handed a mysterious note which causes her to collapse and necessitates a postponement of the journey. Barnes and Enid are married. Soon after their wedding Barnes' bride disappears. Barnes discovers she has been kidnaped and taken to Corsica. The groom secures a fishing vessel and is about to start in pursuit of his bride's captors when he hears a scream from the villa and rushes back to hear that Anstruther's wife, Marina, is also missing. Barnes is compelled to depart for Corsica without delay, and so he leaves the search for Marina to her husband while he goes to hunt for Enid. Just before Barnes' boat lands on Corsica's shore Marina is discovered hiding in a corner of the vessel. She explains her action by saying she has come to help Barnes rescue his wife from the Corsicans. Barnes and Marina have unusual adventures in their search for Enid. In seeking shelter from a storm the couple enter a hermitage and their to their amazement they discover Tomasso, the foster father of Marina. Tomasso learns amazement they discover Tomasso, the foster father of Marina. Tomasso learns that Marina's husband did not kill her brother. Many wrongs are righted. Barnes is surprised in the hermitage by Rochini and Romano, the two detested bandits, who have been searching for him to and Romano, the two detested bandits, who have been searching for him to murder him for his money. The bandits attempt to take away Marina. Barnes darts out the door. The bandits start to pursue, but as they reach the door both are laid low by Barnes' revolver. Anstruther arrives to find Marina and learns that she has been lured away by the telegram which had been sent by another without which had been sent by another without his knowledge. The two start in search of Marina. Barnes and Edwin take different roads in their search. Edwin is trapped in a tower where he is made prisoner. In endeavoring to escape he opens a trap door where he finds Emory, the detective, who had been imprisoned there previously. In another secret chamber Tomasso is found imprisoned. Edwin in climbing down a wall sees upon the portico of a farm house Marina and Count Danella sitting and talking together. Danella sitting and talking together. Barnes arrives and finds the bridge swung preventing his crossing over. He hears the voice of Marina crying for mercy. He the voice of Marina crying for mercy. He examines his revolver. Cipriano Danella threatens to light a fuse that would blow up the tower and kill her husband unless Marina surrenders herself to his passion. Enrico is ordered to light the fuse. Before he can apply the torch there is a sharp report and Enrico falls dead. Danella attempts to light the fuse and meets a similar fate. Marina rescues the ima similar fate. Marina rescues the imprisoned ones from the tower. The bridge is swung back and Barnes crosses over. It is learned that it was his pistol shots that killed Enrico and Danella. Enid who has been hunting Barnes, appears and all are happily reunited.

Barnes, sheepishly muttering to htmself, "Our first row," follows his wife into the shrubbery of the verandah, where they are quite apart. "The lady who was substituted for me?" asks his bride haughtily.

CHAPTER XVII.-Continued.

"Sally Blackwood," answers Burton

"La Belle Blackwood! Good Heavens! What brought her there?" sudden tears springing up in Enid's blue eyes. "She said she came to Bocognano to save my life from the vendetta. You remember she had warned me before, the other evening in Nice."

"Yes, I remember," she sighs: then adds more brightly, "I remember also that you told me.' She gazes at him anxiously, but only for a moment-the awful lines about her husband's face proclaiming his unremitting pursuit of her for three merciless days and nights softens Enid's tender heart. She slips one rounded arm about his neck and whis pers: "I shall never question you about this. If you feel you can kiss me, Burton, kiss me!" and for this gets a kiss whose longing ardor makes her blush. "Ah, that was an honest husband's kiss," she says rapturously, and for the speech receives another that makes her tremble with joy. Running to Marina, she cries: Fancy, it was that awful La Belle Blackwood, who wanted to save Burton's life." "I am very glad she didn't want to save my husband's life," laughs Ma-

"The superb Madame Blackwood." cries Rodrigo Bonelli, who with excited exclamations has with his brother been examining Barnes' shots, "has received my great uncle's favor and is about to become his spouse. Let no one mention her name lightly." "The great bandit's bride!" half shrieks Enid. "The wife of the grand Antonio!"

ciaculates Marina. "Aye, and that is why we must soon take our leave. To-morrow is their nuptial day in Bocognano." this wondrous news, and Barnes, lead- over our shoulders-and if our brides ing Edwin aside, whispers: "We must get the girls out of here quick. If we monico's or the Langham, and not at vamoose now, probably the explosion of the tower and those bodies will be attributed to the riotous 'Luchese.'" The American's tone is awed, he reflects that till this last dire episode of his life, no human being had ever fallen to his fatal pistol. "By gum," remarks the detective, who is gaunt with much fasting, coming out of the house, "there was a Barnes tenderly lifts her from the drive into Nice. fine supper for two setting there, with boat. Then they all go up to Lady white flowers and champagne. I finished it all."

Marina's face flames. She knows for ed, and as Edwin suggests leaving, cries: "Yes, quick, from this awful

"You're quite right-now get away smart-they may think it was bloody Italians," observes Emory, and makes himself useful helping the ladies down to the sea, to which some steep steps on the further side of the cliff lead

From a little jetty Barnes hails a boat that is apparently in waiting from the fishing vessel. To the captain of the craft who is in the boat's stern. he cries: "The 'Lucchese' are making a row all along the coast. We must leave at once.'

party board his boat, he mutters: "Count Cipriano and his nephew?" "They are trying to protect their vines and crops from the 'Lucchese.' We are not to wait for them. You remember, the count said a lady would be on board. Your charter money." "Oh, yes," cries the captain, pocket-ing some bills, as his men row them to the fishing vessel, where he orders his sails set. Barnes tells the skipper to steer to Villefranche harbor. As he turns away Emory edges beside him and whispers: "This is the infernal felucca, in whose hold I banged about from St. Tropez."

The two Bellacoscia have assisted the ladies to the deck. "Now, gentlemen," asks Barnes of the young bandits, "what can I do for you for bringing me my wife?" "You can give us the pistols that make incredible shots," answers one of the young men.

"By them we will kill many gendarmes," whispers the other. "Sorry for the gendarmes, but the pistols go," laughs Barnes, and passes his weapons to these nice young bandits, who, after kissing the ladies' hands, take their leave with many words of gratitude and thanks. "I fear I'm leaving murder behind me," sighs the American.

"Yes, nothing will cure this country

Chartris' villa, followed by old Tomasso, contentedly smoking a pipe, and Emory in consultation with Barnes and Edwin as to silence in regard to the slain Danellas and bringing Graham and the Seagull back. In her parlor they are received with many sighs by Lady Chartris, who says mournfully: "I'm going back to London. Do you know that after that night you left, that wretched Cipriano has never visited me?"

To avoid discussing Danella, Enid and Marina run upstairs to get on civilized clothes, the former says.

"Oh, mama," cries Maud breaking into the room with the Nice morning paper in her hand, "that detective is eating up everything in the house, and old Tomasso is chuckling over this telegram from Corsica: 'Saliceti, the vendetta man, is defeated for the chamber of deputies'-and-here's bad news for you, Barnsey-La Belle Blackwood is being married this morning in Bocognano to the great bandit who kills so many, the one they call the Bellacoscia."

"Hush, my child," shudders her mother, "don't mention that horrible creature's name."

"Oh, I can speak of her now, mama, dear," remarks Maud, naively; "Blackey is now an honest wife."

"You bet Sally will make Bonelli a thoroughly honest wife." sneers Barnes in a whisper to Edwin. "No firtatious glances at other mountain cavaliers, or the dagger in the back for both, biff! I reckon that kiss I gave Sally the other night in Bocognano is Sally's last outside kiss for a deuced long t-t-time."

The careless words gurgle in his throat. Enid standing in the conservatory, dressed in some light white carriage costume, looking like a fairy bride, cries sweetly but possessively: "Burton, I'm going to take you with me into Nice, shopping!"

"Oh, good Lord, now I know I'm married," laughs Mr. Barnes. "Gee, you'll never be married really

From a Little Jetty, Barnes Hails a Boat.

but half a dozen railroads," remarks | till you give me that bridesmaid presthe detective. "Then you're able to get | ent!" pouts Maud savagely. about and handcuff a man."

The vessel is soon under way, leav- face. ing the Corsican coast. The ladies, room for two.

As their husbands seated on the deck are smoking languidly their cigars, Barnes whispers to Edwin: "I rather imagine this vendetta is settled for good. Marina is again beloved by the people of her commune, and you will be honored when you go back with her to visit her estates."

"And the Danellas?" "Oh, I don't think there will be much said about them. The 'Lucchese' have been raising the devil in the last few days. Anyway, Cip had to be planted; he was the dangerous one; he was the money of the affair. You and I will be now able to walk down Pic-Then the ladies get to discussing cadilly or Fifth avenue and not squint disappear we'll seek for them at Delsome Baxter street rendezvous of the Black Hand or some Whitechapel haunt of foreign stiletto gentlemen." On the following noon the felucca is anchored at Villefranche. As the party and Edwin and Marina from the windisembark at the pretty landing stage, dow above are laughing and showering Maud, running down the path greets rice and flowers on her.

Exquisite blushes rise to Enid's

"Right you are, Maudie," cries Mr. worn out with fatigue, are asleep in Barnes excitedly. "We'll get you the the little cabin, where there is only finest kind of gift this very morning." "Oh, it must be something very handsome," answers the bride enthusiastically. "We're going to be so Burton leads his wife to the victoria. puts her carefully in, seats himself beside her and says casually to Lady Chartris, who has come to the door with them: "By the bye, we shan't be back for a week." "Oh, mercy, I-I have no baggage," falters Enid.

"Sent on ahead with Tompson." "Where are you going to take me,

"To a nice little Swiss canton where there are plenty of mountains, but no bandits or vendettas. By the lord Harry, I'm tired of taking separate wedding tours," he adds savagely.

"Y-e-s. Burton." His beautiful wife snuggles a little closer to the ardent Barnes. Then she starts up with a little scream as an old slipper thrown by Maud nearly knocks off her hat, them with: "My, you are scarecrows!" The sun is shining very brightly as "Happy scarecrows!" cries Enid, as Mr. and Mrs. Barnes of New York

Bees Mark Man's Coming.

All the honey bees in this country, the close of the eighteenth century having originally been imported from that any bees were found west of the Europe or Aisa, there is no racial dif. Mississippi. The Indians used to say are simply the descendants of those in the woods. The Italian bees were that from time to time have taken first imported in 1860. Better temperhives and reverted to a state of na- mans, they have become popular with ture. The vast bulk of the wild bees apiraists; but as many still keep the are of the German or black race, while German bee, and others have the hy-Italian: but that, however, is only be two races, while countless Italians "Yes, the rocks that fell about us be introduced here. Just when the breed more hybrids, it is clear that from the explosion told us that," an- Germans came is in doubt, but it was there is no sure way of distinguishing swers the captain, anxious to leave some time in the seventeenth centu- between the wild bee and the domestithis dangerous anchorage. But as the ry; certainly it was not until near cated.—Outing Magazine

ference between the wild ones and the they could mark the advance of the domesticated; those that live in trees | white man by the appearance of bees "French leave" from their owners' ed and more industrious than the Gercause the Germans were the first to now have taken to the woods, there to Plant a tree on arbor day.

The safe bull is the one you want to

The lambs should have free access to salt, also good clean water.

Trouble with some people is that they have more wishbone than back-

To keep the rats and mice from gnawing harness rub a little castor

If you did not cut out the borers from the peach, quince or apple trees | land poorly managed. last summer, do it now.

partition of porous brick through the drive your stock to market. Funny how the cattle seem to find the

A simple form of filter for the cis-weak place in the fence every time. One weak spot may make a mile of fencing useless. If the horse has not shed off its winter coat and shows lack of thrift he should be clipped before being set to work in the field. The man who has learned how to grow good crops in dry weather has laid hold of one of the secrets that will help him to make money. When planting a new orchard place the later and hardler sorts on the outside rows, as that is where the frosts first strike and are the severest. argument in favor of the manure

A mortgage, like a porous plaster, is good thing if properly placed, but It is easily and economically constructremember, it is easier put on than taken off, and the latter process is apt to be painful as well.

want and then stick to it. The stock the most natural and sanitary. raiser who shifts every few years to a new breed never gets anywhere in his operations, except nearer to the poor house, perhaps.

profit, but when the losses of bad quality you can get larger hams and years are deducted, the balance of the account will be found to favor sow than from a small one. mixed farming. carelessness and injudicious living, alcohol. Secretary Wilson has taken | end of tt."

and then you take steps to get into up the study of the problem in a condition again. How about your practical way and will set up a small soil? Have your methods put it out plant in one of the buildings of the of condition? and are you doing noth- department of agriculture and experiing to restore it to its old time vigor ment on making alcohol out of deand productiveness? What folly.

from flying off. The method adopted for the experiment stations in the difby one turkey raiser is to bore four ferent states to install similar plants. holes in a shingle and through these It will also be an excellent plan if the holes pass strong tape under the department or some of the members wings close up to the body. Tie the of the agricultural college faculties ends of the tape securely. Sounds would have such a plant in practical easy, but would the turkeys thrive and operation during the different short grow under the restraint?

so back used to plant their corn when the white oak leaves were as large as squirrel's ears, and it is said they raised good corn, too. This suggests that the farmer of the old days was a strated that for some crops sulphate closer student of nature, carrying out of potash is the best sort, while for the farm program in closer harmony others muriate of potash is superior. with the season's development than The yield of asparagus where the mudoes the farmer of to-day.

berry farm in Michigan is to grow on was 80 per cent greater the past year the land first a big crop of field or than on muriate. For raspberries and cowpeas. This is rolled down in the blackberries the sulphate has invariafall, covered with about 18 tons per bly given better results than the muriacre of stockyards manure and plowed ate. Particularly noticeable has been under. The land is plowed again in the difference in the degree of winterspring and worked until it is as fine killing. The canes from the plot on as an ash heap. This land is then which muriate of potash was applied ready to receive the young strawberry seem to have been less hardy than vantage of all the government agri- With hay, however, there was little cultural department and the experi- difference between the two forms, alment stations of the various states are though sulphate seems to give the doing for them. Every farmer should best results where clover is used. at least get the bulletins from the experiment station of his own state. and he would find it greatly to his which have been used successfully by advantage if he received the govern- poultrymen: The first is burnt corn. ment bulletins as well. These are all When any chicken shows the least mailed free on application, and a pos- sign of the cholera, burn some corn only these will be sent you.

in the season.

Plan your work and then work your

The waste places on the farm should be put to work.

Trust the bull by putting a ring in his nose and keeping in a safe place.

A few cows on the farm is full warrant for the purchase of a separat-Keep the lambs growing from the

The dairy cow which is fat and at the same time good is the exception to the rule. Rolled oats, stale bread, corn-bread, cheese curd, wheat and table scrapt

Five points to remember if you would have a productive orchard Fertilize, cultivate, spray, thin, prune.

make good feed for little chicks.

The hair of the horse that has been well fed from birth is as a rule finer and softer than that of the horse not

After the breeding season is over separate the roosters from the hens. Better for both sexes and the eggs will keep better.

A better living can be made by careful, thorough cultivation of 20 acres than from five times that amount of

The best way to market your crops tern can be provided by building a keep the fertility on the farm and > Grow enough fruit for your own use. Not a bad idea to have some to sell. These little extras from the farm can be made to aggregate quite a sum.

After all the pig has more wisdom than some people. He is content to stay in the pig class while many a human wastes life in trying to seem what he is not.

No wonder the poultry business is growing each year. There are more than 5,000 poultry shows held annually in the United States and Canada. Surely the hen is the American bird.

Here is the method of one dairyman who believes in the economy of arrangements. He has a small pas-One load of manure finely and even- ture handy to the dairy barn in which ly spread is worth two spread uneven- the cows may be kept at night, where ly in the lumps. This is another good they may feed and where they are

The four points are made in favor of the portable hog house as follows: ed; it can be easily moved and located wherever desired; it is useful both to the general farmer and to the breeder of pure bred stock, and of Start with the breed you think you all systems for housing swine it is

The rule observed by a successful hog raiser in selecting the brood sows is to pick the long-bodied ones that are rather coarse and long legged. They It is mixed farming which brings make the best breeders and have betthe surest results. Special crops in ter constitutions than the small ones. shoulders from the pigs of a large

Not now but soon the farmer wil You get sick sometimes through find it practicable to make his own cayed fruit, corn, potatoes, etc. After the department has worked this out Shingle your turkeys and keep them | satisfactorily it would be a good plan courses held at the agricultural colleges and at different points through-The old farmers of a generation or out the states, and at the various state

Massachusetts station has demonriate was used was more than 50 per cent. greater than on the sulphate, The method pursued on a big straw. but with rhubarb the yield of sulphate those where sulphate was used. Sulphate of potash also gave best results The farmers are slow to take ad- with potatoes and with soy beans.

Three remedies for chicken cholera

As the result of experiments, the tal card with the request that your on the cob and leave where the chickname be placed on the mailing list ens can have free access to it at all as you see fit." will do the business. If you do not times. The corn must not be burned care for all the bulletins and only to a crisp, but scorched. Keep this those which deal with certain features kind of feed before the flock until all of agriculture you can so state and signs of cholera disappear. Second-Shut the sick fowls away from the rest of the flock. Whitewash the hen house In setting asparagus enough room and nests with hot whitewash conmust be given to allow for root de- taining a liberal supply of carbolic velopment, for it is through the mass acid. Put one teaspoonful of carbolic of fleshy roots that the plant is able acid in two quarts of water and give to furnish sufficient nourishment to the fowls to drink. Give some kind produce shoots for two months or of good poultry food according to dimore. If we attempt to crowd the rections. If fowls are too sick to plant too close together we interfere eat, put some of the medicine in a the standard domesticated bee is the brid formed by the crossing of the with nature in its effort to develop teaspoonful of sour milk and pour a strong root system. Plant in rows down the throat of the fowl. Third-5 to 51/2 feet apart, 18 inches between Get some red oak bark and boil it givplants in the row. By this method ing the tea to the chickens to drink in-5,000 plants may be set per acre, and stead of water. Trim the rough outer with rows 51/2 feet apart it will be bark off, put the inner into a kettle found that the tops nearly meet late and boil until very red. Drench the sick ones, but don't give much food.

AT A CRITICAL TIME.

Women Are Likely to Suffer with Dan gerous Kidney Disorders.

a collapse with kidney troubles, backache, dizziness, puffy dropey swellings and urinary irregularities. I lost flesh and felt languid, nervous or unstrung all the time.

As my doctor did not help me I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. In a few weeks all these symptoms left me. I now weigh 163 pounds and feel in excellent health."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

VERY O. T.

Flamingo. Flamingo-Wrong. Hear of centipede being caught scorching? Stork-Yes.

Flamingo-Well, I put my foot o him and got burned.

COMPLAINTS ABOUT PAINT.

The time to complain about paint is before the painter applies it. The man who puts up the money should not shirk the responsibility of choosing the paint. True, the painter ought to know paint better than the banker, the professional man or the merchant. The trouble is, the houseowner too often deliberately bars the competent and honest painter from the job by accepting a bid which he ought to know would make an honest job impossible.

Secure your bids on the basis of National Lead Company's pure White Lead and pure Linseed Oil and see that you get these materials. No one need be fooled by adulterated white lead. A blowpipe testing outfit will be mailed to anyone interested in paint. Address, National Lead Company, Woodbridge Building, New York City. -

Ready to Pay Fine. " know where $3,000,000 in cash lies concealed," said a New York lawyer. "This vast sum lies concealed in the inside vest pocket of the 30,000 automobilists of New York state. Each man carries $100 of it in one crisp note, ready to be paid out in a fine, if ne should be arrested for speeding. Fines, though, don't appear to stop speeding." he continued. "Perhaps the rich automobilist regards them much as the Suabian wood thief did. The thief was arrested. The magistrate said to him: 'You are brought up on the charge of stealing wood. favorable seasons may net larger By selecting a male that has good This charge has been proved against you. But you are old and poor and you shall be let off this time. Only don't do it again.' 'Nonsense!' retorted the thief. 'Let us not have any > Economical Physician. Ambassador Wu Ting-fang was once, it is alleged, telling about a certain selfish politician. He said: "The man reminds me of a doctor of Shanghai. A mandarin came to this doctor false sentimentality here. I steal my wood, I pay my fine, and there's an for advice. He could not sleep, had no appetite, suffered a good deal from depression and nevertheless was taking on fat at an alarming rate. 'We'll soon put you in condition again,' said the physician. 'What you need is exercise, good, hard exercise. Four times a week you can come here and put in the morning polishing my floors.' 'But why not my own floors?' the mandarin inquired. 'Mine,' said the physician, 'are larger.'"

How He Got Rid of Rats. A farmer describes his method of clearing the premises of rats in the following manner: "On a large number of old shingles I put a half-teaspoonful of treacle each, and on that with my pocket knife I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye. I then placed the old shingles around under the stable floors and under the cribs. The next morning I found 40 dead rats, and the rest left the farm for parts unknown. I have cleared many farms of the pests in the same way, and have never known it to fail."

CHANGE IN FOOD

Works Wonders in Health.

It is worth knowing that a change in food can cure dyspepsia. "I deem it my duty to let you know how Grape-Nuts food has cured me of indigestion. "I had been iroubled with it for years, until last year my doctor recommended Grape-Nuts food to be used every morning. I followed instructions and now I am entirely well. "The whole family like Grape-Nuts. we use four packages a week. You are welcome to use this testimonial

The reason this lady was helped by the use of Grape-Nuts food, is that it is predigested by natural processes and therefore does not tax the stomach as the food she had been using; it also contains the elements required for building up the nervous system. If that part of the human body is in perfect working order, there can be no dyspepsia, for nervous energy represents the steam that drives the engine. When the nervous system is run down, the machinery of the body works badly. Grape-Nuts food can be used by small children as well as adults. It is perfectly cooked and ready for instant use. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human