Sells-Floto Shows.

Mr. Alan Rogers, the famous Southern critic, says:

When a man gets too old to take a day off when the circus comes to town it is time for him to get busy with his will, or else have the doctor in to overhaul his liver. The man who does not care for the sights and sounds of the sawdust arena is certainly badly out of joint somewhere.

This Sells-Floto Circus Beautiful is the limit. The writer has never been able to care very much for a four-ring show with elevated stage and hippodrome attachment. How is one man to watch four rings at once, keep tab on a bicycle act on the elevated stage and pick the winner of the hippopotamus race at one and the same time? This is not a good business for the eyes, besides sending one away with the feeling that he has missed something. When you go to the circus you want to see it all, and that is the charm of the Sells-Floto show.

From first to last every act is snappy and up-to-date, and you can't miss a bit of it unless you shut your eyes.

But the great hit of the long program is "The Girl in Red," the little lady who does the bareback act. Her name is a mystery, gentle reader, but she looks as if it might be Mary or some other old-fashioned name. She is just a fresh, unspiced little girl, the neatest, daintiest little girl that ever wore fluffy skirts or jumped through a hoop.

The old-timers on the front rows sat up and gasped with pure admiration when she danced into the ring. In fact, one enthusiast expressed his feelings by sitting up so straight he fell over backwards. There are so many good features in the Sells-Floto program it is entirely worthy a visit when it comes here Friday, July 10.

Route No. 4.

Mrs. B. Raebel arrived Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Henry Kleuver. Simon Jossi painted his buggy, and was sculler at the home of Wm. Connor last Sunday.

Miss Mary Schaff left last Saturday for a few days' visit with friends at Belgrade, Neb.

The Monroe Independent Telephone company have extended their lines so patrons on the west end of the route are on their system.

Misses Margaret and Anna O'Callahan arrived last Saturday for a two weeks' visit with their uncle, D. F. Donoghue. Sunday a party was given at the home of J. J. Donoghue for them.

About fifty persons, all neighbors and friends of Charles Gossman, gathered at his home place Sunday and enjoyed a social time. Music was furnished by Wm. Rohrick and Herman Alves.

Charles Bolt and daughter Margaret visited relatives at Madison last Saturday. Mr. Bolt returned Monday, but Miss Margaret will visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Stroede, until after the Fourth.

Anton Ebner's cattle broke out of the yard the other night, and when he awakened and started to go after them he reached the stairway sooner than he expected, falling to the bottom and receiving some bad bruises. No bones were broken, however.

Route No. 1.

Farmers are busy laying by their corn. During the last few days of warm weather everything fairly jumps.

One of the lady patrons on the route presented the carrier with a nice chunk of home made cheese this week.

There was a severe hail storm on the north part of the route last Saturday evening, destroying crops in the Loeke neighborhood. About a mile east of this the storm was very destructive, sweeping everything.

The German school, which has been taught by Prof. W. Rees, closed Tuesday for the summer vacation. They will hold the last day picnic in Gerhard Loeke's grove on July 4th and a good time is anticipated.

Lake Tahoe.

One of the most beautiful mountain lakes in the world lies in the heart of the Sierras, 6,290 feet about the sea level, and is completely hemmed in by mountain walls, whose rugged peaks rise in many places to an additional height of from 2,000 to 4,000 feet. It is twenty-three miles wide and from 100 to 2,000 feet deep. The entire region surrounding the lake is picturesque almost beyond description, and a never ending delight to the eye.

Lake Tahoe is easily reached by a short side trip on the picturesque canyon of the Truckee River from Truckee, California, on the main line of "The Overland Route."

ALMONDS MAKE DELICIOUS PIE.

Something New to Offer the Family for Dessert.

Make a crust by creaming eight ounces of butter, then adding three ounces of powdered sugar, the yolks of two eggs, two tablespoons of milk and three-fourths pound sifted flour. Knead until stiff enough to roll out to one-half inch in thickness. Spread this paste upon two round buttered pie tins. Make a filling for the pies by blanching and chopping fine one cup of almonds. Then pour one cup granulated sugar moistened with one teaspoon of water, into a frying pan. Place over a slow fire until melted, then add the chopped almonds, stirring briskly until the mixture turns golden brown. Turn this out on the paste and spread quickly before it cools. Beat three whole eggs with an egg beater, gradually adding two tablespoons powdered sugar. Stir into this one and one-half cups milk and then pour the mixture over the browned almonds and sugar in the pie, and bake in a hot oven. As soon as the custard is firm spread over each pie a meringue of two egg whites beaten stiff and mixed with two tablespoons powdered sugar. Let brown lightly.

Alfalfa Fed Cattle Wanted.

When a train load of cattle sold in Omaha last week for $20,000, being exactly $5 per hundred pounds for every steer on board, the buyers for the South Omaha packing houses said "They were among the finest ever brought to this market and were fattened on a mixture of corn and alfalfa."

The great packers have recognized that the alfalfa fed cattle are of superior quality and are doing all that they can to encourage feeders to mix the great protein food with corn in such proportion as will enable the stock to utilize all the carb-hydrates and oil in the corn. These they cannot use without waste unless a protein ration is given as a neutralizer.

To encourage feeders to take up the balanced ration as the best for cattle, the packers are to have exhibits at the National Corn exposition to be held in Omaha next December, and will show in the out-of-the-meat the superiority of that from alfalfa-corn fed steers. It will be one of the most interesting exhibits ever shown at any exposition and the expense will be entirely paid by the packers.

We, the undersigned butchers of Columbus, will not deliver meat on the Fourth of July. Place your order for Saturday's supply of meat on Friday.

Solace for the Many.

"What a misfortune it is that the public encourages so much trashy literature!" remarked the man with black-rimmed eye-glasses.

"It isn't a misfortune," answered the practical person. "It is a blessing. It enables people whose books won't sell to imagine they have written classics."

Rivals in Fame.

"They are making a great stir about the pianist."

"Yes. The advertisements make almost as much fuss over him as they do over the make of piano he plays."

Our Polk County Friends.

State Senator E. L. King will pull the eagle tail, and make her screech at Silver Creek on the Fourth of July.

It was very pleasant for the Osceola friends to have the privilege of greeting their old time merchant prince, Frank Ferguson, last week.

The wind storms in and around Osceola have been quite severe. Trees blown down, and small houses raked and tumbled over and it was not Halloween night, either.

Col. L. A. Beltzer put in a little of his spare time at Lincoln last week, and there is every indication that his gentleness will be heard at the Democratic convention at Denver next week.

People in these parts are discussing the question as to whether a cyclone cave is a luxury or a necessity and the probability is that it will be decided that it has been a great necessity in the past week, anyway.

Dean Stalaker of Omaha, who used to live at Osceola, and has a host of friends here yet, paid this charming city a visit last week, but that was not a priming to the way he was charmed at Columbus on his way back to his home in Omaha.

Art Ryan and Doctor Potter of Shelby, found it necessary to make a trip over to Columbus last week, but that is not out of the ordinary, for many of the Shelby citizens show by their levelheadedness, that they know where to go to get out of the "dry."

State Senator Aldrich is very much in evidence in these parts these days. In fact congressmen and would be congressmen are making hay while the sun shines in the 4th district, realizing that there is but a couple of months left before they will be elected, or their goose cooked.

T. W. Bain, an old veteran of the civil war, has been making an extended visit back in old New York state, and as the good book says, "It is not good for man to be alone." Mr. B. packed her trunk and went back there last week, to help the old gentleman finish up his visit and come back here to God's country.

The powers that be at Stromsburg have come to the conclusion that with a levy of twenty-two and a half mills on each and every dollar of taxable property in the city, that they can run the town and make it bud and blossom as the rose for this municipal year. They thought in a town that is as "dry" as that is.

William Stokes, formerly of this city, now of Norfolk, knows how it is and when he wants to have a fine time he comes over here to his former home city. He came over here last week, came by the way of Columbus and Central City, and then went back by the way Fremont and Omaha. His idea was that Columbus was about the smoothest place that he had struck on his tour.

Emil Olsson and Roy Ericson got a little tired of waiting for June weddings and June brides at Osceola, and they held themselves away to the city of Bellevue, on the north side, where they attended the wedding of Miss Bertha Hope Lee, formerly of Silver Creek, to Walter Charles Boer, of York. Miss Lee was the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lee, and has a large number of friends in and about Osceola.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, were in the city of Columbus the fore part of the week. Mrs. Anderson had gone on before to make a visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ross Welch, and enjoy Columbus gayety for a week, and then Frank pulled out on the Saturday evening flyer, by the way of Central City, and reached Columbus Sunday morning. Frank is the manager of the largest lumber yard at Osceola, and has the appearance as though time was dealing very gently with him.
