SYNOPSIS.

Giles Dudley arrived in San Francisco to join his friend and distant relative Henry Wilton, whom he was to assist in an important and mysterious task...

CHAPTER XIII.—Continued.

The sight that met my eyes was astonishing. Clothes, books, papers, were scattered over the floor and bed and chairs...

CHAPTER XIV.—Continued.

"That's all right, Dicky," I said. "I know how I got out. What I want to know is how I got in—taken in."

ridge Knapp has left any papers in his desk that might bear on the Wilton mystery. I tried my keys, but none of them fitted the lock...

"By Jove, Dicky!" I exclaimed, catching my breath. "It slipped my mind, clear. I haven't got at our ahem—banker, either."

CHAPTER XIV.

Mother Borton's Advice.

I studied the note carefully, and then turned to Policeman Corson. "When did she give you this—and where?"

CHAPTER XV.

Mother Borton's Advice.

"I don't know," said Dicky anxiously. "I was regularly fooled, myself. I thought they were fishermen, all right enough, and I never thought that Terrill had the nerve to come in there."

"We'll take it out any time," said the undertaker, with a decorous reflection of my grief upon his face.

"I decided that I would. 'Well, there's nothing doing now. We can start as soon as we have sealed the casket.'"

CHAPTER XVI.

Mother Borton's Advice.

CHAPTER XVII.

Mother Borton's Advice.

FORMER WATER BOY RUNS ROAD

Patrick H. Houlahan Promoted to General Manager of Alton.

Chicago.—Patrick Henry Houlahan, general superintendent of the Chicago & Alton and the Toledo, St. Louis & Western railroads since January 1, 1908, has assumed the duties of his recent promotion—general manager of two great combined railway systems, with headquarters in this city.

P. H. HOULAHAN

and each step he has taken in his upward climb has shown him to be the possessor of those qualities of pluck and energy which are the essentials of really forceful men.

BLIND MAN RUNS FOR OFFICE.

Murry Sandusky Hopes to Win by Means of His Wife and Voice.

Macon, Mo.—A man totally blind is making the race for the Democratic nomination for treasurer of Macon county, an office which pays about $1,200 a year. He is Murry Sandusky, and he frankly admits that personally he will not be able to perform the clerical duties of the office, but his wife is bright and familiar with figures, and she is ready to attend to the real work of the office.

HAZY.

Publisher—The third chapter in this manuscript is so blurred I can't make it out.

Author—Yes; that is where I used London atmosphere. That is the fog, you know.

A Woman's Duty.

The woman of taste keeps abreast of the fashions in a way—that is, she drops worn-out styles and adopts whatever new ones she can adapt to her use.

Things That Trip.

"It's a fact," said the man who was given to moralizing, "that one cannot be too careful about trifles."

An Effective Hint.

"She won't ask directly for wise, but when she is where it is, she always pretends to be taken with great suffering."

ESKIMO IS NATURE FAKER.

Thinks That Bears Should Be Treated Like Gentlemen.

The Eskimo can say that he had a friendly feeling toward all living things, notwithstanding that he fed on flesh and that wild beasts sometimes fed on him, says the Contemporary Review.

other bear saved the life of three men who wished to reward him. He politely declined their offer, but in winter time they should see a baldheaded bear will induce their companions to spare him? After so saying he plunged into the sea.

Small Per Cent. of Exports. Of an annual output of manufactures valued at $15,000,000,000, we export only about five per cent., and if from this amount we deduct such nearly crude manufactures as copper, petroleum and its products, iron and steel in bars, pigs and rails, we have an export of the more highly finished products of only about three per cent. of our total manufactures.

Oldest Park in America. New York city has one public park that is 250 years old, and that is Bowling Green, which was the playground of the first Dutch settlers.
