Doland, and Redfield, South Dakota.

Will sell you improved or unimproved farms in the ## Famous James River Valley of S. D.

We now have some splendid bargains in single quarters, half sections, and also improved farms. Good soil, plenty of good water, and mostly all well located. All kinds of small grain and good crops of corn are raised here. From present prospects South Dakota will harvest the largest crop ever known this year. Telephones, rural routes, schools and churches are established all over the valley. We also have unimproved land and ranches from one to eight thousand acres further west, which we will quote you prices on if desired. Mr. W. J. Else, one of our firm, is now in Nebraska selling our lands. If you desire to consult him, notify the Redfield office and he will call on you when possible and give you accurate information about South Dakota land.

of each month. Why not make arrangements and go with Mr. Else on one of these excursions. We will gladly show you these lands, if you conclude to make a personal investigation by visiting our towns, and will also convince you that the price is right.

ABOUT OUR NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS CLIPPED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

ALBION.

From the Argus.
Miss Stella Becher came up from Columbus Saturday to visit her friend Miss Agnes Gee and take in the chautauqua.

Miss Kemp, of Columbus, was the guest of Miss Hazel Stoakes from Monday to Wednesday, visiting and taking in the chautauqua.

C. A. Nichols had a piece of wheat that racks well toward the top. The forty acre field averaged thirty-seven and one-half bushel per acre, and tested fifty one. The wheat was Turkey Red variety. Who can beat this?

CRESTON.

From the Statesman.
Miss Mamie Studley came up from Columbus on Saturday last for a short visit, returning to Columbus on Monday.

Mrs. T. F. Plagemann is getting along nicely after an operation on Monday. Dr. H. G. Morris, assisted by Dr. Alsenberger of Columbus, and Dr. Eby of Leigh, performed the operation.

H. O. Studley showed us a copy of the New York Herald, dated Saturday, April 15, 1865, which has preserved all these years. This paper gives an account in detail of the assassination of President Lincoln; also an account of the attempt to take the life of Secretary Seward as he lay sick in bed, was news, and Jeff. Davis' last proclamation.

FULLERTON.

From the Post.
Word has been received that Eugene Beiden has been quite ill in the Philippines and may be obliged to return to the United States on that account.

That queer looking contraption in Wood Smith's front yard is a mosquito cage. Wood uses it to sleep in but memories of camp life in the Philippines have about induced him a vacate.

About seventy-five tickets were sold from Fullerton to the Columbus races last Friday and all who attended speak in the highest praise of the program. Ye editor and sons and "Bunch" Meyers, the Post's imp, were extended courtesies by the association and highly enjoyed the entertainment.

SILVER CREEK.

From the Stand.
Mrs. G. W. Keifer and son Merlie are visiting relatives in Platte County.

Miss Lucy Davis is spending the month with her sister, Mrs. H. J. Brian on Clear Creek, Neb.

Considerable excitement was occasioned Thursday by the receipt of a telephone message to the effect that Mrs. Martin Forman was in danger of being murdered by her husband. Constable Lewis Cotton, A. F. Roth, R. Murry and D. F. Davis hurried to the Forman home which is just over the line in Platte county, near Gardner. Mrs. Forman had taken two of her children, forded Prairie Creek and gone to the home of Joe Doeck, claiming that her husband had threatened to kill her. Martin stated that he and his wife had trouble that morning but denied that he had threatened to end her earthly existence. The family war seems to have arisen over the different sets of children. Martin had five by a former wife and his present wife had two of her own before she married Martin. There is a year old baby by the last marriage. Martin and his present wife have not been married quite two years and Martin also hints at another man having interfered in his domestic affairs. As matters stand at present there does not seem to be any chance of a reconciliation, but there is probably no danger of bloodshed.

GENOA.

From the Times.
Miss Cricket Wake went to Columbus Thursday to visit her grand-parents.

The village board has at last succeeded in selling the electric light bonds. John Early of Columbus takes them at par, and will put in the plant.

Mrs. Nan Talmage, who was called to her former home in Ohio six weeks ago on account of the illness of her sister, arrived home last Saturday and has resumed her position as stenographer at the Indian school.

Twelve or fifteen years ago, while at work on a hot summer day, our townman, John Welina, was prostrated by the excessive heat. Since that time he has had occasional spells of dementia, but it was not until three or four years ago that he became violent and was confined in the state hospital at Lincoln for several months. Since the hot season opened the attacks have become more frequent, and on Monday he was taken to the state hospital at Hastings.

A large barn at the Indian school was destroyed by fire last Thursday evening. The fire was discovered about 7:45 p. m. and within a few minutes after the alarm had been sounded the entire structure was a mass of flames. W. J. Walters was the first person to reach the building after the fire broke out and succeeded in cutting loose all the horses except two which perished in the flames. All the vehicles and harness belonging to the school were destroyed. The work of the school hose company, assisted by the local fire department was confined to saving the buildings adjacent to the barn. The loss is estimated at $6,500.

There was no insurance, as Uncle Sam never insures his property against loss from fire. The barn will probably be rebuilt, as there is an emergency fund available for contemplated losses of this kind, and in addition to this fund there is a repair fund of about $3,000, a portion of which could be transferred to the emergency fund and used in the construction of a new barn.

PLATTE CENTER.

From the Signal.
Miss Genevieve Condececo arrived home Sunday evening from a few days' visit with Columbus relatives.

Mrs. Joe Krings returned Wednesday to her home at Columbus, having been spending some time here with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Grosenthal.

One more case of diphtheria has developed in town, a young son of Hilger Grieson showing symptoms and the house was quarantined Sunday morning. The boy has not been very sick at any time, and for the past two or three days has been out in the yard at play. In the other houses that were quarantined no new cases having developed, the quarantine has been raised.

Maurice Langen, sr., received a dispatch last Sunday afternoon informing him that his daughter, Van. Sister M. Sylvia, of the Franciscan Order, was lying seriously ill at her home in Memphis, Tennessee, from the effects of an operation which she had undergone a few days before. Mr. Langen departed at once for Memphis. Word was received Tuesday that she had passed away. Her father, brother Jerry and sister Nellie were present at the funeral which occurred Wednesday at Memphis. Sister Sylvia was well known by many of our readers, having grown to womanhood in Platte county. She had been a member of the Franciscan Sisters 17 years.

There seems to be considerable activity in the farm land market hereabouts in the last few days. Last week Ed Higgins bought the Nick Gentleman farm, two miles northeast of town, of Marcus Hooley, paying $16,500, or at the rate of $101.25 per acre for the same. This is a fine farm and is considered a bargain at this figure. Dr. P. L. Benthack purchased the Frank Hughes farm, which nearly joins the town on the north, an eighty-paying ninety dollars and acre for it. This piece of land has no buildings of any value on it. D. F. Donohue bought a quarter section, located on the road to Columbus, from Otto Blot, paying ninety dollars an acre for it. This is a fine piece of land, but there are no buildings on it. Evidently the price of land in this part of Nebraska is still climbing.

HUMPHREY.

From the Democrat.
The Democrat is pleased to state that Mrs. B. R. Crowder, who has been quite ill for two or three weeks past, is now much improved and will be able to be around as usual in a few days. Mr. Crowder has been home the past week.

Cornelius Linaberry returned home this week from Columbus where he has been confined in St. Mary's hospital for the past few weeks recovering from an operation for appendicitis. He is feeling fine and looking well, notwithstanding the fact that his case was a very serious one.

Gus Blessing is dead. These are the words that were passed around after finding his body in a badly decomposed state in the bed-room to the rear of his store building late Sunday night. Humphrey people were not surprised, because for several months they have expected to find him dead in his lonely place of abode. For nearly 30 years Gus Blessing has been practically dead as far as the world and its people were concerned. During his residence in Humphrey he had shut himself off entirely from the association of his fellow man and during that time there was only one person that knew anything of him at all, and that was Chas. Lingel a stranger, who made his home with the old gentleman for a couple of years. It was generally understood that the two men were related, but the Democrat editor has it from reliable authority that no relationship existed whatever. We doubt if there was a more peculiar person ever than Gus Blessing. He was a typical hermit, and during his residence in Humphrey his life was miserably in the extreme. Wednesday afternoon a search of the property was made for valuables of any kind, and in a trunk was found $1,900.35. This amount was within a few dollars of the amount which his books showed that he possessed. He kept a strict account of every day's business up to June 6, since when there is no record of any business having been transacted, although it is known that he paid his taxes since that time. The money found consisted of $1600 in currency of very old denomination which indicates that he had the money in his possession for a number of years; there was $396.00 in gold and $53.35 in change.

CHRYSLER CITY.

From the Nonpariel.
Mrs. J. D. Daniely, residing in the east part of town, fractured one of her wrists Tuesday night. While walking through the yard she stumbled over a buggy tongue and in falling her full weight was thrown on her right hand, breaking one of the bones in her wrist and causing a dislocation. At her age the fracture is likely to prove a serious one but at present she is getting along as well as could be expected.

One of the saddest events the Nonpariel has ever been called upon to chronicle took place Saturday evening when Gracie, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sayess, fell into a tank at their home in the southwest part of town and was drowned. The little one was playing about the barn yard while her brothers were doing the evening chores. It is supposed that she was playing near the tank and dropped her tin cup into the tank. She did not fall clear into the tank but hung suspended on the edge with her head submerged in the water. She was in this position when discovered a few minutes later by one of the boys. Immediate efforts were made to resuscitate her and Dr. Jones arrived on the scene in a short time, but it was impossible to restore life to the little body as it was evident that she had died of strangulation in a few moments after falling into the tank.

SCHUYLER.

From the Sun.
Miss Lizzie Hoffman of Columbus arrived Saturday for a short visit at the V. V. Robinson home.

Miss Beatie Kolarik, of Columbus spent Sunday in Schuyler visiting with her uncle, A. G. Kupka.

On Saturday John Jira was taken in charge by the officials of the city and was sent to the Columbus hospital for treatment. For some time past he has been in a rather serious condition, a condition which was his own fault and could have been overcome by plain soap and water. Saturday he was found on the Rouse porch. Was out of his head, and completely exhausted. Upon examination it was found that he had large sores on both ankles and those sores were filled with maggots and the sores were simply caused by never washing. This seems like an awful condition for anyone who lives in this civilized world to be in, but it is a fact. Mr. Jira has plenty of money in the Folds bank, but still he lives the life of a dog. The city officials did proper in taking up this matter.

BELLWOOD.

From the Gazette.
Mr. and Mrs. Berger came into Bellwood Wednesday morning from Columbus for a visit with relatives.

D. McKillips, father of Jim and S. T. McKillips, died at his residence on the table land south of Bellwood on Wednesday night of last week. He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 80 years of age. He was one of Butler county's oldest citizens and was held in high esteem by a large circle of neighbors and friends.

The Gazette scribe and better half took in the races at Columbus last Wednesday. It was Columbus day and all the stores, even to the saloons, closed up shop and took in the trotting, which was good, especially the guideless trotter. The attendance during the three days was good, many being present from this neck of woods on the second day. The track is one of the best in the state and Columbus "sports" evidently, are making a success of their races. Columbus is a wide-awake town.

A bar of iron fell on Fred Oady Wednesday. He was hurt so badly that he was obliged to summon medical aid. Same day George Hopkins had a runaway team at his farm and George was hurt so badly that he lay in an unconscious condition for some time. Medical aid was also called. About the beginning of the week Mrs. Peter Bonson fell from a well platform and was hurt badly by a jug that she carried in her hands. A swarm of bees got after Peter Nichols this week and stung him quite badly. Alex people have been in the "wrim" this week in the way of accidents.

MOORE.

From the Republican.
Mrs. Vestal Moore visited relatives at Columbus Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. W. S. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoekensberger and Mr. VonBergan of Columbus were guests at the Gertsch home Sunday.

Uncle Sam is buying oats in Moore for the soldiers at Fort Riley, the T. B. Ford Grain company having shipped a car to that point this week.

Mrs. L. Gerrard, accompanied by her daughter Mrs. J. A. Barkley of Columbus, were guests of Moore relatives Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Jack Talbitter had his washing hanging out on the line Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. Talk about washing bella. He is proving that man can live alone.

Mrs. R. H. Jones came up from Columbus Friday and reports that their son Louis, who is in the hospital as a result of his injury, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Geo. A. Drake of Los Angeles, Cal., accompanied by her niece, Miss Hazel Smith, arrived last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gerrard. Miss Hazel is a niece of Mrs. Gerrard.

John Davis, father of J. W. Davis, was taken to the Columbus hospital by his son Wednesday. The elder Davis was at Genoa and was taken suddenly sick, and his condition became so serious that it was thought best to take him there for treatment. He is 78 years of age, and his chances for recovery are not the best.

TABLE DELICACIES

NEW AND APPETIZING WAYS OF SERVING EGGS.

Cooked in Spanish Style They Are Delicious—Made Up with Cream or in Cases—Sublimated Souffle is Good.

Spanish Eggs.—Have ready a half pint of sauce made by frying a minced green sweet pepper and a medium-sized onion in a little butter. When turning yellow add half a pint of thick canned tomatoes, reserving the thin liquid for a soup. Stew and season. Break six eggs into a porcelain lined pan containing a bit of hot butter and set in the oven for three minutes; slip off on a flat dish and pour the sauce over and around.

Eggs with Cream.—Set over the fire a brown porcelain lined pan, capable of holding just the requisite number of eggs, so that they will be close together, the whites forming when cooked a layer nearly an inch in thickness.

In this pan pour a gill of thin cream; have ready six eggs, broken one by one in a saucer and slipped into a larger dish, and as soon as the cream reaches the boiling point turn in the eggs. Season with salt and set in the oven until the yolks show a tendency to thicken, but do not allow them to harden.

Eggs in Cases.—Mince four mushrooms and stew in cream; add a gill of the latter. Add six hard boiled eggs minced small and stir until hot, seasoning with salt and pepper. Serve in little china cases.

Eggs with Celery.—Lay a pint of celery, stewed tender and heated in a white sauce, in the bottom of an earthen baking dish. Break six eggs on top and set in the oven till the eggs are done.

Sublimated Souffle.—This is made by soaking two cupfuls of stale bread crumbs in two cupfuls of hot milk. To this is added salt, pepper, paprika, and three beaten eggs, with three tablespoonfuls of dry, rich cheese, grated. Beat until light. Set two omelet pans over the fire, placing in each butter the size of a walnut; when hot, divide the butter into halves; pour half the butter into each pan and proceed as in cooking an omelet, except that the fire must be slower and the process a longer one.

It will rise to a thickness of two inches if the pans be not more than eight inches in diameter. Loosen the mixture here and there with a broad-bladed knife, and after about five minutes, set in a hot oven for ten minutes to brown.

Stuffed Fillets of Fish. Three pounds haddock, one-third can salmon, one-half cup bread crumbs, two teaspoonful lemon juice, one-half level teaspoon salt, one-fourth level teaspoon paprika, one-half cup white sauce. Remove the skin from the fish, cut down the middle of each side and across the center, making four fillets on a side. Remove these with a sharp knife, keeping close to the bone. Make a forcemeat of the remaining ingredients. Remove the oil, skin and bones from the salmon and mince it fine. Add the bread crumbs, lemon juice, salt and paprika, and when well mixed moisten with the white sauce. Sprinkle the fillets with salt and pepper and spread them with the forcemeat. Roll each fillet up and pin securely with wooden toothpicks. Beat an egg slightly with a tablespoon of cold water, dip the fillets in the egg, then in the cracker crumbs, and fry in deep fat.

Gateau of Cherries. Dissolve two heaping tablespoonfuls of powdered gelatine in half a cup of boiling water. Put three heaping tablespoonfuls of sugar, one cupful of cold water, rind and strained juice of one lemon into a saucepan, boil for 20 minutes, strain, add a few drops of red coloring, one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, one pound of stoned cherries and gelatine. Mix well and pour into a wet mold. Turn out when set.

Lemon Ginger Mint. Make an unusually strong lemonade, allowing five lemons and a cup of sugar to each quart of water. To every quart of lemonade add a quart of ginger ale. Put both together in a big punch bowl with a piece of ice. Have ready a number of sprigs of mint carefully washed. Bruise the stems and lower leaves between the fingers to bring out the full flavor of the mint. Half an hour before serving pour, into the punch bowl.
