MANY YEARS AGO.

Files of The Journal June 9, 1875.

It is a little strange to see timid passengers on the U. P. cars shrink at the sight of tame squaws that come up and ask them for passepoches.

Meats, Turner & Hult of this place have 270 sheep under the care of G. D. Grant. They have completed shearing and the estimated average per fleece is not less than five pounds. The shearer the other day was handling one of the sheep and remarked its light weight, saying he didn't believe it would weigh more than thirty pounds, but it sheared five and three-fourth pounds of excellent wool.

The house where Mr. Nich Spielman lives north of Shell Creek, was struck by lightning on Monday night of last week splitting the house, going through the wall like a cannon ball, striking a pair of side bars, and running into the ground. A cat under the bed on which Mr. S. was lying was killed, and a dog outside the house met the same fate, but, strange to say, none of the five persons in the house were hurt, though Mr. S. was strongly charged with electricity.

Band Concert.

Now that school is out, the jumping of trains by small boys is rapidly becoming a nuisance. Every day a number of boys make a practice of taking a ride on the freights as they go through town, and the narrow escapes from being ground under the wheels are numerous. Not long ago a little fellow undertook to board a train which was going at a greater speed than he anticipated, and he could not retain his hold on the ladder being thrown clear across another track. Fortunately for him he was thrown away from the train, otherwise there would have been a coroner's inquest. Some time ago a number of these boys were taken in and given a good talking to, and for awhile they refrained from the pastime of hopping trains. But as their companions still continue the practice, it will be a short time until they are at it again. The last legislature passed a law calculated to put a stop to boys jumping trains, and in self defense the company is going to take vigorous action in the matter, as should one of them fall under the wheels it would mean a big damage suit, all through the negligence of the parents and the boys. And it seems strange, but it is a fact, that parents will resent punishment of their children by railroad employes, when they are caught on trains. About the only remedy that will stop this jumping on trains is a trip to the police court, and those who like to enjoy a ride on freights had better take warning, as it will come to this sooner than they expect.

While The State Journal has been one of the leading papers of the state for nearly forty years, yet its most rapid growth has been recently, during which time it has come to be recognized by many as Nebraska's greatest paper, making most of things that interest Nebraskans most, in this way creating a place for itself in the daily life of thousands of Nebraskans. The country press generally could be quoted as saying that the editorial page of The Journal is exceptionally strong and fearlessly independent. It is also unusually bright, Bixby himself being a gem. No writer in Nebraska ever had the warm admiration of so many people as Bixby. His column in The Journal is alone worth the price of the paper. His wholesome philosophy will put sunshine and cheer into the most chronic grouch. The state university, the state house and all the other public institutions at Lincoln make The Journal peculiarly a paper for state people. It is clean, excluding all liquor and impure medical advertising. Its sporting department is clever and there with the goods. More money is spent for state telegraphic news than by other state dailies. If you want to know what is happening in Nebraska, as well as the whole world, The Lincoln Journal is the paper for you. Why not give it this trial subscription?

Word received by Columbus friends tells of the death of D. N. Miner on May 30, at the home of his son, Chas. T. Miner at 415 Vine street, Kansas City, Mo. Funeral services were held on June 2. Mr. Miner was a resident of this city for a good many years, and from here he went to Council Bluffs, going to the home of his son a short time ago, where he died. Mr. Miner was born Nov. 28, 1838, at Unity, Columbus county, Ohio. He enlisted in Company H, Fifteenth Ohio Volunteer Infantry September 7, 1861, was discharged and re-enlisted as a veteran volunteer, serving in all four years and eleven months. His enlistment was at Van Wert, Ohio. He returned from the war and married Cora A. Grunmia. In June, 1871, they came to Columbus with their five month old baby, now Mrs. Fred McMillen. Other children were Charles now living in Kansas City, Mrs. Melvin Dotson and Mrs. Harvey Farrell, of Council Bluffs, and George, who is with his mother in the same city. Mr. Miner had been in poor health all last winter, due to old age, and while he seemed to get better with the approaching warm weather, he did not regain strength. Old soldiers acted as pall bearers at his funeral, and members of the army of the Philippines took part in the exercises at the grave.

While fishing in a pond near the Loup river last Wednesday afternoon, Frank Schemmerhorn discovered a complete outfit of children's clothing, including a pair of shoes, in the edge of the water. They had evidently been worn by a girl of about twelve to fourteen years old, and the wearer was of a well-to-do family. Thinking that someone had been drowned, Mr. Schemmerhorn brought the clothing to town and turned it over to Sheriff Carrig, who caused a thorough search of the pond to be made by dragging. Nothing rewarded this search, however, but authorities are still endeavoring to locate the owner of the clothing and clear up the mystery. Some say that a band of gypsies, which passed through the city Tuesday, left the clothing there in order to cover up the identity of some child they had stolen while others are inclined to think that some little girl was bathing in the pond, and when the man unexpectedly appeared hid in the bushes and remained there until daylight and returned home. If someone was drowned in the pond, and there are places of a depth that the drag net was unable to reach, the body will rise to surface within the next few days. An effort to learn of a missing child in this locality has been unavailing, and this makes the finding of the clothes more of a mystery.

Mrs. J. M. Curtis, formerly of this city now living at Fond du Lac, Minnesota, will sail from New York June 12, on the ocean liner Cincinnati for Germany, to visit her only sister whom she has not seen in thirteen years. She expects to return in September.
The heavy rain of Sunday night caused some damage to the contractor building the new stores on Olive street. The excavation was partly filled with water, and one side of the large lime pit was washed out, letting considerable lime fall into the excavation.

Word received by Perry Loebangh told of the death of his brother, Levi Loebangh, at Everett, Wash., last Friday night. Mr. Loebangh was a resident of this city for a number of years prior to 1889, when he left for the west and has since made it his home.
Friday morning Sheriff Carrig took Joseph Hoffman and Ed Techudy to Lincoln to begin their sentences received at the last term of district court for stealing copper wire from the Union Pacific. The former will serve two years and a half and the latter eighteen months.
W. F. Lohr returned Monday from Brady Island, where he has been getting acquainted with his first grand child, a daughter having been born to Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Clark on May 31. Mr. Clark was operator at the Union Pacific here for some time before being transferred to Brady Island.
Ever since he fell on an icy walk last winter, George Bloedorn has suffered with an injured knee, and is compelled to use a pair of crutches. In hope of securing relief and be able to use the limb, he leaves Thursday for St. Louis, where he will undergo an operation on the injured member.
After a separation of two years John A. Nicodemus and Mary A. Nicodemus concluded to be remarried, and last Saturday they called on Judge Ratterman for the license and also requested him to perform the ceremony. Mr. Nicodemus gave his residence as Gibbon and Mrs. Nicodemus gave hers as Pierce.

Saturday and Sunday Union Pacific Agent Brown and his assistants moved from the old depot into the temporary structure on the east side of North street, where they will be located until the new depot is finished. The contractors are now tearing down a portion of the old building so the new part can be built on to it.
A siren whistle on the locomotive pulling a Shriners' special train, which passed through the city Saturday night, caused a number of the fireman to get ready to turn out, as it sounded exactly like the city fire whistle. But there was only one long blast and no district sounded, the fire boys soon discovered that it was a false alarm.
While coasting along a smooth piece of road on his motor cycle, and suddenly coming to a place where some work had been done recently, Rev. Lutz of Shelby was thrown from the machine and seriously injured. The accident was caused by him being unable to stop the machine and he ran into an obstruction. He was brought to St. Mary's hospital for treatment, and it will be several weeks before he will be able to return to Shelby and resume his duties.

Postmaster Kramer, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Florence, are in Lincoln this week attending a convention of the postmasters' association, of which he is a member of the executive committee.
H. F. E. O'Neill, general secretary of the railroad Y. M. C. A. of Pittsburg, was in the city Sunday and Monday, the guest of his cousin, O. E. Devlin. Mr. O'Neill was attending the conference of Y. M. C. A. secretaries in Omaha.

The Fisher divorce case, in which Anna Fischer asked for a legal separation from Mr. Fischer, was up before Judge Thomas last week. Mrs. Fischer's petition was dismissed, and the divorce granted, the court giving Mr. Fischer the custody of the children, and he is to pay $600 permanent alimony, besides the temporary alimony.
Monday of this week Emma Penner, George Randall and Lulu Severn were before Police Judge O'Brien on the charge of maintaining and being inmates of a house of ill fame, the complaint being filed by E. E. Williams. The defense did not introduce any witnesses, and the judge discharged the Penner woman, and fined Mrs. Severn $10 and costs, amounting to $17.10, and Randall was taxed $25 and costs, amounting to $41.60, which were paid.

With The Firemen's League.
Sunday was the first double header for the Firemen's league, the Hookies playing both Hose companies. In the first game the Hookies were successful, winning by a score of 7 to 6 from No. 2's. It was a good game, and interesting all the way through. Batteries—Hookies, Hesser, Dolan, Hirschbrunner. No. 2's Otto Boettcher, John Staub, Walter Boettcher, Albert Kurt. Umpire, Ed Branigan.
In the second game the No. 1's were pitted against the winners of the first game, the Hookies, and they succeeded in taking the game from the victors by a score of 7 to 3. The batteries in the second game were: Hookies, Hesser, Dolan, Hancy and Hirschbrunner; No. 1's, Becher and Graves. Umpire, Walter Boettcher.
The result of Sunday's games puts the No. 1's in the lead, with the Hookies second and with exactly the same percentage as before, and the No. 2's are now the tail enders.
Next Sunday another double header is scheduled, this time the No. 1's, the leaders, play the two games, the first, with Hose Company No. 2, and the second one with the Hookies. These games will also be good ones and there will be a change in the standing of the Hookies and No. 2's, have anything to say about it. So far, the teams have been pretty even, and the games were well worth the price of admission.
Following is the standing of the teams:

TEAMS	PLAYS	WINS	LOSSES	PERCENT.
Hose Company No. 2	5	3	2	60
Hookies	5	3	2	60

GRAY'S

Miss Marguerite Becher, who has been very sick at the Wise Memorial hospital at Omaha, a few weeks ago, arrived in the city last Monday, and will no doubt stay at home during the summer, as she will be unable to resume her duties as trained nurse, on account of her recent illness.
Some man, who had loaded up with too much obnoxious, came near losing his life Tuesday evening in front of the Union Pacific depot. All east bound passenger trains were late, so he concluded to wait and tried to board a slowly moving freight. In this he was only successful so far as getting hold of the ladder on a car, from which he hung with his feet dragging almost under the wheels, and it looked for a few minutes as though he would lose his hold and be ground to pieces. Efforts to stop the train were in vain, until a brakeman opened the air hose, bringing the cars to a sudden stop. The man who caused all the excitement was taken in charge by the police and locked up for the night, and will later have an interview with the police judge.
Those interested in the vicinity of Thirteenth and Quincy streets have asked the city council for an electric light at that point when the new lights are put in, and their request has been referred to the proper committee. Automobile drivers must reduce their speed to ten miles an hour in the business district, and fifteen miles an hour where the houses are over one hundred feet apart. They must also use care in all cases where the traffic is considerable. These are the main provisions of the ordinance passed by the council. Councilman Clark suggested that some riprap be done along the river to protect property in the bottoms, as other work of this character in that locality had proven very satisfactory. Dr. F. H. Morrow, city physician, attend a meeting of city physicians in Omaha, at the expense of the city. Sam Gans, jr., councilman for the Second ward, presented his resignation on account of moving to the Fourth ward, but this was laid over until the next meeting of the council, which will be held on June 18.
That Platte county land is considered a gilt edge investment is indicated by the prices paid for the Sheridan land at the referee sale conducted by U. M. Grunther Tuesday of this week. The old home place, the southeast quarter of section 35 in Joliet township, was bought by Fred Gottschalk of this city at $60.50 per acre. Paul Gertch bought the southeast quarter of section 34, in the same township, for $63 per acre. The southwest quarter of section 33, in Joliet township, was purchased by Miss Emma Sheridan, the price being $57.50 per acre. Of the land located in Monroe township, M. Nessel bought eighty acres, the west half of the southwest quarter of section two, and gave $58.25 an acre for it, and the remaining forty acres in section three, was sold to Nels Nelson for $66 per acre. With the exception of Mr. Gottschalk the purchasers were all neighbors and own land in that locality, and this fact more than anything else, establishes the value of the land. While the sale was very satisfactory to the heirs, the purchasers are also well pleased with their investment.

Walker Township.
We are having plenty of rain now.
John Swanson shipped a carload of cattle to South Omaha Tuesday.
There is a good stand of corn. About half of the outfields is planted to corn.
Mrs. John Swanson returned Saturday from Genoa where she had been visiting relatives and friends a few days.
A strawberry festival was held in the hall near the Salem church Thursday morning, and everybody enjoyed it.
Chas. Larson has purchased the north half of the Christian Hendrickson place in Sec. 9. We have not learned the consideration.
Peter Johnson, L. Johnson and H. Thompson, climbed together and shipped a carload of fat hogs to South Omaha Tuesday night.

Route No. 1.
Wardman Bros. were marketing hogs Monday.
D. G. Bartels and wife are at Tinley Park, Ill., visiting relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. John Mohlmann attended a wedding at Platte Center last Thursday.

A good many farmers on the route attended the circus Tuesday.
Harold Cockson has put a new roof on his house and also painted it.
Painters are at Gus Hadwiger's and the school house in his district has also been freshened with a coat of paint.
First Methodist Episcopal Church.
The sermon on Sunday morning will be "The Power of a Testimony." In the evening the theme is "The Bounds of a Happy Life." The choir will be assisted by Mrs. Lydia Worth Smith, who is one of the best soloists in Nebraska, and one of the best soloists in Nebraska.

Band concerts for this season will begin this coming Friday evening, the committee appointed to secure funds, Messrs. Karr and Walter, having secured pledges enough. The action of the Commercial club in securing the funds is as it should be, as the band boys have enough to look after without soliciting for the concerts. And the people of Columbus can expect something good in the line of music this summer, as the short time the boys have been under the instruction of Prof. Paul, they have made excellent progress.
Tuesday was circus day and the small boy, as well as some of the older ones, enjoyed the event to the fullest extent. Owing to the recent rains the grounds could not be located north of the city, as it was too wet, so they pitched their tents in the pasture southeast of the city, near the river. This makes an ideal circus ground, although quite a distance from town, and afforded them plenty of fresh water for their stock. The circus brought the usual crowds, both from the country and adjoining towns—the Burlington bringing in an extra large crowd on their morning freight and the Union Pacific branches and main line contributing their quota.

Between five and six o'clock Monday evening, John Kukis, a section hand employed by the Union Pacific, met with an accident that may cost him his life. He was working near the round house and did not notice a string of four cars that were kicked on the track on which he stood, and they struck him, knocking him down and the entire string passed over him, cutting off both legs below the knee and badly mutilating one hand, beside a number of bruises. He was taken to the hospital and the surgeons dressed his injuries, but on account of his old age, he being over sixty, little hope for his recovery is entertained. He lives at Seventh and Lewis streets and has a family, one son being employed as a machinist helper at the Union Pacific round house.

Next week, June 14 to 18, inclusive, the thirty-second annual session of the Platte County Teachers' institute will be held at the High school building in this city. Superintendent Lecron has secured Miss Lura Phillips of the state normal of Iowa, Newton W. Preston of Fremont, G. E. Weaver, and Superintendent Conn of this city as instructors. Monday and Wednesday evenings there will be lectures, and the examinations will be held Friday and Saturday, June 18 and 19. An effort is being made to have State Superintendent Bishop and other prominent school men of the state present. The Platte County Teachers' association will convene at the close of the session Thursday and elect officers for the coming year. A large attendance of teachers is anticipated, and Superintendent Lecron is working to make the institute better than ever this year.
