

FRISCHHOLZ BROS.

SHOES
CLOTHING
Gents' Furnishing Goods

RELIABLE GOODS AT RIGHT PRICES.

FRISCHHOLZ BROS.
405 11th Street. Columbus.

Clerical Repartee.
A country minister in the course of his dining out on the circuit came to a house where roast chicken was served for dinner. He had previously encountered a series of corned beef dinners, and the chicken looked good. "Well," he remarked, "here's where the chicken enters the ministry!" "Hope it does better there than in lay work," rejoined the host.

White Horse of Kilburn.
The biggest artificial horse in the world is the famous White Horse of Kilburn, near Thirak, which was formed by a native of Kilburn 50 years ago, who cut away the turf in the correct form and then covered it with limestone—the whole occupying some two acres of the side of the hill. The figure makes a conspicuous landmark for over 20 miles round.

A Light Hint.
He—"Wouldn't you rather live in these days of electricity than in your father's time, for instance? Think of what primitive times they must have been when people used candles." She (wearily)—"Oh, I don't know that candles were such primitive things. They knew enough to go out sometimes."

Gossip.
"I don't like these women who gossip about others, do you?" "I should say not. Now, there's Mrs. Gadsley. She's always telling mean things about her neighbors. And Mrs. Hamerton talks perfectly dreadful about her friends. Thank goodness, I never say anything about nobody!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Speech Before a Dressing.
Uncle George—"Hullo, Willie: been having a swim?" Willie—"Yes, uncle; but I'm only learning, same as you." Uncle George—"Same as me? What do you mean?" Willie—"Why, dad was telling us only yesterday as how you had an awful job to keep your head above water."—Sketch.

True Philosophy.
I have been told of a Spaniard who always put on his spectacles when about to eat cherries, that they might look bigger and more tempting. In like manner, I make the most of my enjoyments, and pack away my troubles in as small a compass as I can.—Robert Southey.

Strive to See the Bright Side.
A fatal penalty awaits those who always look on the dark side of everything, who are always predicting evil and failure, who see only the seamy, disagreeable side of life; they draw upon themselves what they see, what they look for.—Marden.

X-Ray and Pearls.
John Salmon, a Yankee in Ceylon, has gotten rich by detecting pearls in oysters by X-ray. The best part is it detects seed pearls, and such oysters are put into special plants to develop.

Responsible for a Great Deal.
If the man who invented corporations could have foreseen the trouble of which he became the indirect cause, he might have desisted.—Albany Journal.

One-Sided Contest.
"Whenever you stubs in to gib yoh conscience an argument," said Uncle Eben, "it might as well save time an' git out o' de contest, 'cause you's bound to beat it."

Says the Observant Man.
"Ez a rule people ain't ha'y so sad nor ha'y so happy ez they appear to be on the surface."

ACTUAL STARVATION.

Pollock & Co. the Druggists Give Facts Regarding Dyspepsia.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and how to obtain relief. There is no reason why people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia. If we refuse every article of food that disagrees with us, before long we have nothing left, and find ourselves chronic dyspeptics.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. They are very pleasant to take; they soothe the irritable stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, promote a healthy and natural bowel action, almost immediately relieve nausea and stomach irritation, produce healthy digestion and assimilation, and promote nutrition.

A 25-cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce complete relief. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall remedies in Columbus at Pollock & Co.'s drug store on the corner.

Mr. Blank "Will Oblige."
At a court of justice in Australia much frequented by Chinese a newly appointed clerk was ordered by the judge to summon a witness to the stand. "Call for Ah Song," was the command. The clerk was puzzled for a moment. He glanced shyly at the judge, but found him quite grave. Then he turned to the spectators. "Gentlemen," he asked, "would any of you favor his lordship with a song?"—Shanghai Times.

Keep interested in Something.
Many old men break down and become childlike because they abandon business, and thus lose much of their every-day interest in the world around them. It is not uncommon for old people to take up courses of study and successfully pass through them. All such occupations serve to keep the interest alive in something besides mere selfishness, and do more toward warding off "the blues" than all the medicine in the drug stores.

A Rule.
As a rule you can form a fairly accurate opinion of what your neighbors think of you by what they say of others.—Chicago News.

Baseness Punished.
Whosoever of mortals is of base nature, him the gods chastise.—Euripides.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES for JUDGES of THE SUPREME COURT. 1909.

JUDGE JOHN B. BARNES
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and
Republican Candidate for Re-election

JUDGE JACOB FAWCETT
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and
Republican Candidate for Re-election

JUDGE SAMUEL H. SEDGWICK
Former Chief Justice Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Election.

EACH WITH A RECORD OF FAITHFUL SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE.

JUDGE JOHN B. BARNES
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Re-election.

Judge John B. Barnes, of Norfolk, judge of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, and present acting chief justice of the court, has been selected by the republican voters of the state as one of the candidates of the republican party for re-election to the place on the supreme bench which he has so ably and honorably filled for the past term of six years.

Judge John B. Barnes is a native of Ohio a veteran of the Civil War and a citizen of Nebraska since 1871, when he located in Dixon county and was admitted to the bar in 1873, engaging in the practice of law, to which he has since given his entire attention.

In 1875 Judge Barnes was elected district attorney of the Sixth judicial district, was re-elected and served until appointed judge of the district to fill a vacancy caused by the election of Judge Valentine to Congress, was re-elected for a full term and later declined renomination to enter upon the practice of his profession. Judge Barnes was appointed Supreme Court Commissioner in January, 1902, serving as commissioner until his resignation in August of that year in 1903, since which date his service as a member of the court has been continuous. He is now approaching the completion of the six-year term to which he was elected in 1903, and holds the honorable position of acting chief justice of Nebraska in the absence of Judge M. B. Reese.

Judge Barnes' splendid record as a lawyer and jurist has gained for him the confidence and approval of the people of the state. This is well evidenced by the general support given Judge Barnes' candidacy for supreme bench at the recent state-wide primary election.

FOR regents of the State University the republican party has nominated three of the prominent citizens of the state, best equipped to perform the duties that fall to the board in charge of the state's most important institution of learning.

Charles S. Allen of Lincoln, William G. Whitmore of Valley and Frank L. Haller of Omaha, the republican candidates for regents, constitute a trio of citizens who will bring to the work they undertake all the highest qualifications for their performance. Neither of these men were or are candidates in the sense of personally seeking for the honor conferred by membership on the directing board of the University. Each is a candidate in response alone to the insistent demands of many who know well their exceptional fitness for the duties involved and who have close at heart the best and broadest interests of the University.

JUDGE JACOB FAWCETT.
Member of Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Re-election.

Judge Jacob Fawcett, of Omaha, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, and Republican candidate for re-election, is a native of Wisconsin, a veteran of the Civil War, and was admitted to the bar at Galena, Illinois, in 1873. Judge Fawcett was appointed county judge of Jo Davies county, Illinois, by Governor Oglesby, and was elected to the office at the expiration of the term for which he was appointed. He resigned the office the following year and removed to Omaha and was selected as one of the lecturers in the College of Law in the Nebraska State University. In 1895 Judge Fawcett was elected a judge of the district court of the Omaha district and was re-elected in 1899, serving eight years on the district bench of Douglas county. He returned to the practice of law in Omaha in the spring of 1904, continuing in practice until appointed supreme court commissioner in October, 1907. Judge Fawcett continued on the supreme court commission until the adoption of the new constitution, and then enlarged the supreme court at the last general election, when he was appointed a judge of the supreme court to serve until the general election of this year. He is now completing the term of one year for which he was appointed.

Judge Fawcett's long period of service on the bench, eight years as judge of the district court of Douglas county, more than a year as Commissioner of the Supreme Court and the past year as a member of that court, has eminently fitted him for the distinguished service of a judge at the supreme bench to which he is the nominee of the Republican party.

Messrs. Allen and Whitmore are both completing a term of six years as regents of the Board of Regents of the state, which has long been a term of service which has redounded to their personal honor and credit in the same full degree that it has been of exceptional value to the growth and prosperity of the University. Those who know best the present and future needs of the University are the most insistent that their service be not interrupted, but be continued to the great and lasting benefit of the institution. In this lies the highest praise, the highest of personal compliments.

Mr. Frank L. Haller, a leading business man of the state, a man of large experience, broad culture and great executive ability, completes the trio of candidates on the republican ticket. For fourteen years Mr. Haller has been a member of the board of directors of the Omaha public library and is at present the president of

JUDGE SAMUEL H. SEDGWICK.
Former Chief Justice Nebraska Supreme Court and Republican Candidate for Election.

Judge Samuel H. Sedgwick of York, Neb., former chief justice of the Supreme Court of Nebraska and republican candidate for election as judge of the supreme court, is a native of Illinois, in which state he spent his youth on the farm and in the district school, graduating later from Wheaton college. He studied law at the Michigan State University and in a law office, and was admitted to the bar at Green Bay, Wis., in 1874, since which time he has given his entire attention to his profession.

Judge Sedgwick removed to York, Neb., in 1878, and entered at once into active practice in which he was eminently successful. Serving one term as judge on the district bench, he was later supreme court commissioner and was subsequently elected a justice of the supreme court at the general election in 1901, serving as chief justice in the closing two years of his term.

At the close of his first term Judge Sedgwick was a candidate for renomination, but was defeated in the primaries by Judge M. B. Reese, who had been elected a renomination some years previously, the republican voters of the state seeming to desire to right without delay the wrong done Judge Reese at the previous period. In this decision no one acquiesced more cheerfully than Judge Sedgwick, although feeling that patient, faithful work fairly entitled him to a second term.

Since the expiration of his term, Judge Sedgwick has successfully continued the practice of law at York. The splendid vote cast for him at the recent primaries evidences the desire of his fellow citizens of Nebraska to return him to the supreme court, upon which he rendered such distinguished and meritorious service.

Adds healthful qualities to food

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

The 46 in Overcoat has all the Distinction that the best of good taste and good making can confer. Thoroughly up to date in every line, it shows, like all our MODERN CLOTHES the craftsmanship of the master tailors. Never have we seen a garment of such excellent service value. See it with your own eyes, convince yourself of the excellence of its style, materials and making. Its price will surprise you, it is altogether modest.

GREISEN BROS.

WHY NOT TRY
THE PACIFIC HOTEL
COLUMBUS, NEB.
The big brick hotel one and one-half blocks south of west depot crossing. 25 rooms at 25c; 20 rooms at 50c; meals, 25c.

Palace Meat Market
CARL FALK, Proprietor

Solicits a share of your patronage
Thirteenth Street

HARRY MUSSELMAN, Proprietor

THE OVERLAND

The Car with a Record Built In

The man who buys an Overland does not carry his car's record in name only—he has the record built right into his own individual machine. He can be sure that past service records of Overland cars, which prove a service worth in every respect equal to that of any car regardless of price—are certain to be duplicated by the Overland he himself buys

Let us demonstrate the Overland for you
You'll wonder why any car costs more

Columbus Automobile Co.
Eleventh Street Columbus, Nebraska

Everybody knows that

GARLAND

Stoves and Ranges

are the Best in the World.

They combine elegant finish, durability, and convenience, with economy of fuel, and in spite of all competition hold their station far in advance of all others. We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to their merit.

Sold exclusively by JOHANNES & KRULLAND

THERE is one overwhelming reason why the Republican party can successfully appeal to all the people for support at the ballot-box for the candidates of the Republican party. It is this—The Republican party has given the state Responsible, Effective, Economical and Intelligent Government in every department, Executive, Legislative and Judicial, whenever entrusted with authority by the people. The record is before the people and it is a good record. You can trust the Party which has proven true and responsible in every test. On that record the party asks the support of the voters of Nebraska for its candidates for the Supreme Court, Judges Barnes, Fawcett and Sedgwick, all of whom have served on the Supreme bench with ability, honor and fidelity to the interests of the people and asks also for the approval of its candidates for Regents of the University, Messrs. Chas. S. Allen, W. G. Whitmore and F. L. Haller, the first two of whom have served with distinguished ability and usefulness on the Board of Regents for nearly six years past, the last named an able, prominent and self-made business man of the state who has long given much attention to the University School of Agriculture. The candidates of the republican party have responded to every test of citizenship every test of official duty. The party they represent as candidates in the coming election has proven true to the people in every emergency. On this broad foundation of performance of duty well discharged, the republican party asks for its candidates the confidence and support of the voters of Nebraska.

A Practical Youngster.
"Why do you think your baby is such a clever child?" "Because," answered the sensible woman, "he just laughs and plays and has a good time instead of thinking up smart sayings for us to repeat to the neighbors."

Joy Riding.
It would be interesting to know why the chauffeur is so much more determined on suicide when he has a party of friends than when he is out with his employer's family.

Horses and Mules

I have a car of choice broke horses, and mules, and will sell them reasonable.

I will also buy horses and mules.

JOHN RANDALL.
One half mile northwest of Columbus.

Comfort.
A woman's idea of solid comfort is wearing something loose and no dishes to wash.—Galveston Daily News.

Possibilities of the Mind.
The mind is in its own place and in itself can make a heaven of hell, or a hell of heaven.—John Milton.

French Proverb.
Trickery comes back to its master.