From the Sun.
Last week Will Dickinson husked a ten-acre field of corn on his father's farm, south of town, that made seventy bushels per acre. The corn was grown on land that had been in tame grass pasture for some years, and shows that it pays to seed down land and give it a rest. Mr. Dickinson also had a larger field that yielded sixty bushels per acre. A man does not over-estimate the value of such land when he pays $150 per acre for it. It's cheap at that figure.

From the Post.
The monetary at St. Bernard was dedicated Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m. Dinner was served by the ladies of the church at noon.

On Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, at the Holy Family church, occurred the marriage of Katherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Korth, to Matt Hemmer, a prosperous farmer living near Cornlea.

Van Brother Aegidius Steikling O. F. M., passed away to the place of sweet rest and everlasting happiness last Sunday at the St. Bernard monastery. Deceased was born January 13, 1854, died Nov. 21, 1909, aged 55 years, 10 months and 9 days. He had served in the order for 27 years. He was the first brother to go to St. Bernard and take up this work with the congregation of that place which was organized some 31 years ago.

From the Republican.
Miss Hazel Clark of Columbus arrived here Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving at the J. F. Magill home.

Miss Minnie Lawrence, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Emaline, returned to her home at College View.

The beet dump on the sidetrack, which George Emerson used for loading his crop of beets, has been torn down and taken away.

D. Murdock is contemplating buying a large flock of sheep in the spring and pasturing them on a large tract of land he recently purchased of F. A. Swanson.

The Peath Bros. who have been farming northwest of Monroe and who recently had a public sale, loaded their remaining goods in a car Tuesday and left for their new home in Oklahoma.

By the way the boys are shooting cotton-tails there won't be a rabbit in the country. The island boys have shot over a hundred, the Thomazin boys got forty in one day and John Keata and his three boys got twenty-seven down on Cherry creek one afternoon.

Last Sunday L. D. Smith was stricken with paralysis and heart trouble, and since that time has been in a critical condition. Tuesday evening he was very low and the report that he was dead was circulated, but this proved to be untrue, and at this writing, Wednesday, he is still alive although his case is considered almost hopeless. His children who live at a distance have been sent for.

From the Democrat
Miss Clara Ratterman came up from Columbus Wednesday and spent Thanksgiving day with the I. W. Zavadial family and then went over to Cornlea to visit her sister, Mrs. Geo. Bender.

Frank German went down to Columbus Wednesday to call on his wife at St. Mary's hospital. The Democrat is glad to state that Mrs. German is getting along in fine shape and will be able to come home in a short time.

Leo Braun a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Braun who live south of town and Miss Regina Hurley, who formerly attended the parochial school here, were united in marriage at St. John's Catholic church in Omaha Wednesday morning.

B. Eckholt, sr., came home from the St. Mary's hospital at Columbus where he has been for several weeks, recovering from an operation. We are glad to know that Mr. Eckholt is able to return home and that his physical condition is gradually improving.

Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock Bruno Zaerline son of Mr. and Mrs. Zaerline and Miss Catherine Ripp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ripp, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at St. Francis church, Rev. Father Hildebrand officiating.

From the World.
Mrs. S. V. Schurr is receiving treatment in the Columbus hospital and will probably undergo operation the first of the week.

Robert McNurlin and Mrs. Barbara Holden both of this place were united in marriage by County Judge Ratterman, at Columbus last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. McNurlin came over from Columbus Monday evening. Both are well known here and they will go to housekeeping in the new house recently erected by D. H. Chambers.

One day last week Wm. Beick butchered a fine calf for family use. The animal was an exceptionally fine one as Mr. Beick had taken great pains in fattening it, feeding it on sweet cream, etc. On Saturday night sneak thieves got busy and stole one quarter of the meat. It looks as though the same old bunch of meat hungry thieves intend to get in their petty work this winter as on previous ones.

Alois Simunek of Howells dropped dead suddenly last Friday afternoon from an injury to his skull he considered so slight as not to be worthy of a physician's call. Mr. Simunek fell on the sidewalk on Tuesday of last week and a painful contusion of the head resulted. He continued, however, to go about his usual duties, until last Friday when he suddenly fell over and expired. A physician who examined the body concluded that Simunek's skull had been fractured at the point where the contusion appeared following his fall the Tuesday before his death. Alois Simunek was thirty years of age and leaves a wife and five young children.

From the Signal.
Miss Anna Gass came up from Columbus Wednesday evening to help eat Thanksgiving turkey with her many friends.

Mrs. K. A. Kehoe and her sister, Miss Theresa Coffey, and little niece, Madeline Coffey, left Tuesday for Canada for a visit until after the holidays.

Mrs. Catherine Soulliere, who lived three miles west of Platte Center, was called to her eternal reward last Saturday evening at about 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Soulliere, whose maiden name was Oatserine Hinchley, was born in Canada about 65 years ago. Later she with her parents moved to Joliet, Illinois, where she grew to womanhood and married Joseph Soulliere. Some thirty years ago she came to Nebraska with her husband and settled in Platte county, where she made her home until she died.

Glodowski Bros. have about completed a system of waterworks for Ed Higgins' farm buildings. Back of the buildings is a hill on which has been placed a cistern of four hundred and fifty barrels capacity. Pipes are laid to convey the water from this cistern to the barn, feed lot, hog house and the dwelling house, and it will be taken to the up-stairs rooms of the house as well, a thirty-five foot fall from the cistern making this an easy matter. The well standing near the barn will furnish the water and a windmill the power, a pump built for such purpose being used. Few farm buildings in the state will be as well equipped with a water system as this will be when completed.

From the News.
Jas. Wooten secured a possum in one of his traps on the Beaver Tuesday. So far as we know this is the first possum ever caught in this section.

Paul Hoppen has rented the Oblinger store building and expects to fit it up as a Lyric theatre as soon as he can secure possession. This will give him a better location and a more suitable building.

A young Iowa couple who appeared before Judge Riley this week for the purpose of getting married met with considerable difficulty. The young man was but 20 years of age, while the bride to be was three years younger. Neither had thought to secure the written consent of their parents. The telegraph was made use of however, and their difficulties soon straightened out.

Jas. Wathen was up from Boone Saturday on business. He said that while they did not succeed in saving anything from the fire which destroyed their home last Tuesday morning, they were fortunate to have escaped with their lives. In another ten minutes, if they had not been awakened, they could not have gotten out of the house. They expect to make their home in St. Edward as soon as they can secure a residence.

From the Sun.
Miss Lucy Davis came up from attending commercial college at Columbus to spend Thanksgiving at home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Brian of Columbus came up Wednesday evening so as to be on hand for Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. Brian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Davis.

Dyo F. Davis, chief of the mechanical department, went to Kansas City, the first of the week and inspected the press that is being built for Sand. He pronounces it to be a good article and we are anxious to install it. It will probably be three weeks before we can have it in use.

A thirteen year old son of Gus Zrust had a thumb amputated a few days ago which probably saved his life. About ten days ago he had it nearly torn off in a corn sheller and his father refused to allow the doctor to amputate it until alarming symptoms set in, when he finally gave his consent.

Almost Insulted.
Amid the lace bargains in one of the large department stores the other day a shopper engrossed in thought set her little Japanese spaniel on the counter. One of the salesgirls, not seeing the little dog, threw a remnant of reduced lace over him and entirely submerged him. When the woman went to look for her pet he was not to be found, but several shrill yelps, accompanied by an upheaval of the lace, betrayed his presence. He was quickly rescued from his predicament, and the woman, showering kisses upon his moist, up-turned nose, said, "Did they cover mamma's precious with cheap fifty cent lace?"

Fooled Them.
Every instructor at Chautauqua is required to fill out a paper answering a number of necessary and unnecessary questions. One year there was a remarkably handsome male member of the faculty in whom all the girl students were much interested. "Is he married or unmarried?" became an all absorbing question. Finally some of them had the courage to approach the college secretary and ask if the files might be looked over. And there the handsome professor, anticipating perhaps some such investigation, had recorded his matrimonial pretensions as follows: "Married or single? Yes."

Sweet Revenge.
"It must be fine to be under contract to write exclusively for a big magazine."
"And to have all the other magazines clamoring for your work, eh?"
"Just so. Think of the satisfaction of sending 'em a printed refusal slip."

"Yes. He says his father taught him to hitch his wagon to a star."

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH.

This Offer Should be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspaper and medical journals have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune should serve as a warning to others. Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing—Pepsin. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the pepsin in a form almost identical to that naturally created by the system when in normal health, so that it restores to the gastric juices their digestive power, and thus makes the stomach strong and well.

We want every one troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia to come to our store and obtain a box of Rexall Dyspepsia tablets. They contain Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin prepared by a process which develops their greatest power to overcome digestive disturbances.

Rexall Dyspepsia tablets are very pleasant to take. They soothe the irritable, weak stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, relieve nausea and indigestion, promote nutrition and bring about a feeling of comfort.

If you give Rexall Dyspepsia tablets a reasonable trial we will return your money if you are not satisfied with the result. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall remedies in Columbus at Pollock & Co's drug store on the corner.

Miss Jane McClay returned to her home last Wednesday evening after a few minutes absence to find her mother, eighty-five years old, lying on the floor with her clothing on fire. She hurriedly extinguished the flames, but too late to save her mother's life. The burns and the shock caused her death about an hour later. The McClays live in Prairie Creek township eleven miles west of town. Mrs. McClay had evidently been trying to replenish the fire in the kitchen stove, as one of the lids was off the stove and the cob basket was lying near. She either fainted and fell against the stove or some of her clothing caught fire and she fainted from the pain and excitement for she was unconscious when her daughter found her. The son, James, was summoned from the field and when he came in he phoned to Chapman for a doctor, but before the latter arrived Mrs. McClay was dead. The family came to Merrick county in 1873.

FURNITURE TALK

About Our New Fall Line

We are showing on the floor at the present time our new line of Bed Room Furniture in Circassian walnut, mahogany, bird's eye maple, golden oak and the good imitation quartered oak.

In beds we have something new in wood in the Ver-nis Martin and enamel finishes. The first time these goods were shown was in Grand Rapids last July. We can truthfully say that at the present time we can show you a larger line of bedroom goods than we ever carried before.

In kitchen cabinets we have just received a line of the Springfield make, the best we know of, in prices ranging from $18.50 to $40.00. We also show the McDougal line of sifter bin cabinets.

Pedestal extension tables, 42 inch round tops, we are selling now for $11.00. These are first class tables in oak and ash, solid woods, golden oak finishes. Genuine quarter sawed oak tops on these tables at $14.50 and $16.
