

20

20

SYNCPSIS.

story evens with the introduction n Stephons, adventurer, a Massathan increased by authorities a real Chills. Reing interested in miniae op rations in Belvia, he was de-noun of by Chile as an insurrectionist and as a consequence was biding. At his hold his attention was "attracted by an Englishman and a young woman. Stephens rescal the young woman from a drunken offlar. He was thanked by her. Admiral of the Peruvian mavy confronted Stephens, told him that war had been declared between thile and Peru and offered bin the office of captain. He desired that that night the Esmeralda, a Chilcan vessel, should be captured. Stephens accepted the commission. Stephens met a motiey crew, to which he was assigned. He gave them final in-structions, They bounded the vessel. They successfully captured the vessel supposed to be the Esneralda, through strutegy. Capt. Stephens gave directions for the deperformed the crift. He entered the cub and for maid. Stephens outchly former the wrong vessel had been captured

CHAPTER VIII .- Continued.

She bent her head slightly. "What vessel is this?" "The steam yacht Sca Queen of Liverpool, owned by Lord Darlington.' she announced, soberly, her face and lips white.

"How came you anchored off the government docks?"

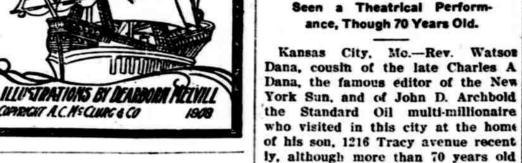

"By special permission of the presidente. We were towed into that berth early last evening, after the Esmer alda had been hauled up against the quay to ship armament and stores." I drew a deep breath.

"Could you tell me if it was known to others that you contemplated anchoring there?" She hesitated, her lips slightly apart, one hand pressed against her tem-1º.e.

"It is most important that I learn the exact truth," I urged, earnestly, "I ask from no idle curiosity."

"I am not generally consulted in such matters, senor," she admitted.

has never raised his hat to a woman "That sounds simple enough, but do you realize what our probable fate would be?"

She clasped her hands tightly, pressing them against her breast.

"What do I care!" the contempt in her voice grown bitter. "You have done the evil, by your own confession; now you should pay the price. You this mark of respect I reserve for my rescued me once from insult, and I God."

hold the remembrance of that act in your favor. Prove yourself worthy a woman's respect by making amends for this wrong. Take the Sea Queen back now, before it is forever too late, and all I can do, or that my husband can accomplish, shall be done to save you from punishment. Prove to me that your words are not false."

I hesitated, doubt and suspicion rendering me totally incapable of clear thinking before her insistent demand. being the best loved man in Ohlo Her face grew whiter as she marked He has given away a fortune, but has my silence.

words faitered from between her lips ulmost unconsciously.

tion my power."

"Your power? Why, you just informed me you were in command."

I advanced a step forward, my manner respectful enough, yet she half brought the protection of the chair between us.

"Perhaps I may never succeed in making you clearly comprehend my boy grew up in an atmosphere of re present position," I said, soberly, "yet | ligion. Early in life he began preach-I intend to try, because, in truth, I ing. As he expresses it, his college need your assistance as greatly as you course was taken behind the counter need mine. Twenty minutes ago, Lady Darlington, it was true I be-

and I had enjoyed no opportunity for clesely observing either. But it is impossible for me to conceive how the others of my party could have innocently made such an error. What project they may have had in mind I cannot even guess, but I believe now the Sea Queen was deliberately captured, and that I have been decoyed into the leadership of an act of piracy.

If so, then I am only one man pitted against 20. What I may accomplish

I have at present no means of knowing. I must see the others, endeavor to discover their secret purpose, and learn whether or not I possess any real authority on board. Lady Darlington, do you at least comprehend what I mean? Do I make it clear to you that I am in a position searcely less

With lips parted and hands clenched over her heaving breast she stood silent, apparently deeply aroused by to recose full confidence in me. Yet her very hesitancy was to me an en-

"You certainly have every reason to doubt me at present, madam," I urged, with increased confidence, "yet

I mean to prove myself worthy your trust by deeds rather than words.

Will you consent to do as 5 wish, at perilous than your own?"

couragement.

lieved myself to be in absolute command of this vessel. Now I gravely state in his boyhood and many a ride suspect whether I may not be a mere of 30, 40 and 50 miles he has taken puppet, helpless in the hands of oth- on horseback that he might be able ers. As I have already endeavored to

"Do you believe there is anything in mental suggestion?" "Not a thing." "Don't you think it is possible if one person keeps his mind steadily fixed on a certain thing which he wishes another to do that the other will be influenced so that he will eventually do it?" Archbold's Cousin Never Touches at all. I've been wishing for a week trouble, while if you go to the bad that you'd pay me what you owe me without making it necessary for me to ask you for it."-Sunday Magazine of the Cleveland Leader.

Sometimes a man is as badly fright- ing she didn't. ened by an imaginary snake as a woman is by a real mouse.

Let none of you treat his brother in treated.-Mohammedan.

and declares he never will. o man has greater respect for womankind than I." said Rev. Mr Dana, "but for a man to raise his has to her is an act of sacrilege. The Bible teaches us to uncover on enter ing the temple of the most high, and

RARE TYPE OF MAN

Rev. Walson Dana Never Tipped

Hat to a Woman.

Liquor, Tobacco, and Has Not

Mr. Dana has never touched liquor. never chewed tobacco, smoked of gambled, has never told a lie and has preached the Gospel for 50 years. He has never entered a theater or seen a theatrical performance, has never traveled a mile on train or boat or Sunday.

He has not an enemy in the world and has never spoken unkindly of his fellowman. He has the reputation of never been involved in a lawsuit and "So you-you lied, then!" the cruel has never had a fight.

Rev. Watson Dana's great-grand father was one of the party that first "No, I spoke the truth," I answered, settled in Washington county, Ohio gripping myself sternly, "but I ques- in 1778. They founded the town of Newport, a city that is surrounded with historical spots and famous places.

He was born in 1836 in the house his father built on Dana's run, withshrank back from my approach and in a stone's throw of the Dana mill, whose crumbling stone walls served for pictures for many a famous artist His father was a minister and the of a country store and his theological course on horseback.

> There was not a railroad in the to preach to a few farmers and set-

On Ghosts.

James H. Hyslop, the brilliant psychologist, narrated, during a discussion of the Paladin case in New York. an original old lady's opinion of ghosts. "Ghosts!" exclaimed the old lady, scornfully. "I don't take any stock in them. If you die and go to the good place it isn't likely that you'd want "No, I don't believe in the theory to waddle back to this poor vale of place you'll be kept there.'

The girl who says she wouldn't mar ry the best man living will probably live to have the satisfaction of know-

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coate, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. To not gripe.

Young man, don't marry a parlor a way he himself would dislike to be ornament unless you can afford to bire a cook.

If you had positive proof that a certain remedy for female ills had made many remarkable cures, would you not feel like trying it?

If during the last thirty years we have not succeeded in convincing every fair-minded woman that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands and thousands of women of the ills peculiar to their sex, then we long for an opportunity to do so by direct correspondence. Meanwhile read the following letters which we guarantee to be genuine and truthful.

Hudson, Ohio .- "I suffered for a long time from a weakness, inflammation, dreadful pains each month and suppression. I had been doctoring and receiving only temporary relief, when a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and wrote to you for advice. I have faitbfully followed your directions and now, after taking only five bottles of the Vegetable Compound, I have every reason to believe I am a well woman. I give you full permission to use my testimonial." -Mrs. Lena Carmocino, Hudson, Ohio. R. F. D. No. 7.

St. Regis Falls, N. Y .- "Two years ago I was so bad that I had to take to my bed every month.

but I believe we had been waiting several days for the opportunity to take that position. This is as I have been told."

She seemed to be awaiting my explanation, striving to be courteous, yet | words strove to overcome the blunt-1 with lines promising great speed. Oth with her impatience slightly evidenced | ness of my speech. by the continual taying of her foot on the rug. But I was not yet can be any necessity for discussing We boarded what I believed to be the through with my questioning.

night?"

Her gray eyes widened.

the engineer were in charge when I re- kindly enlighten me as to the cause his machinery in our service. The tired. The others, with the majority of your intrusion into this apartment, very audacity of the attempt brought of the crew, had gone ashore at sun- and your presence on board the down to enjoy the fun. But why do vacht."

you ask, senor? Are these not on board now?" "I regret being compelled to answer no. Only the engineer, three of the me, I read strength of character and harbor watch, and some Kanaka firemen have been found. I have discovered no trace of the first officer."

"Then-then he must have rowed ashore with two of the men!" she exclaime d.

"How chanced you to be left here ing implicit obedience. alone?

She hesitated, her hands clasped on the chairback, her bosom rising to the use of English, so as to be forced her lips to reply, as though thus ciently clear, "whatever explanation I seeking the quickest way of clarifying may make cannot be pleatant, but it

We were all invited to the palace of the presidente to listen to the speeches and view the fireworks, Lord Darlington was greatly interested, and most desirous of attending. The unfortunate scene which occurred at the hotel early in the evening left me, Lowever, with so severe a headsche that I begged to be allowed to remain here it we with Celeste. At first both Lord Daril igton and mamma refused to depart without me, but when the presidente dispatched his own steam launch to convey the party to the wharf, they decided it would be most discourteeus not to attend. Lord Dartington's membership in the house of lords gives him a certain official recognition abroad which he does not care to have lapse. The yacht's captain accompanied them, and no dream of evil befalling those left behind ever occurred to any one of us. O senor, tell me, what does it all mean? What has happened?

"I presume I must explain," I said regretfully, "although it is not an easy task by any means. You will have confidence in me. Miss Doris?" "I shall endeaver to do so," she returned, an increasing coldness in her the hotel-a man who I was led to bevoice. "But I am Lady Darlington." "Your parden; I supposed you to be that genticman's daughter." The color swept in a wave of rick promised immediate release from my crimson into her cheeks, the gray eyes | dangerous predicament, and, likewise, becoming darker.

Darlington's wife."

erwise I relied entirely upon the

"You-Why, You Are a Robber, a Pirate!"

"I do not feel, senor, that there knowledge of the officers under me. by private affairs with you at present. Esmeralda scon after midnight, over-"Were no officers left on board last Enough that I am Lady Darlington, came the small harbor watch with litand that I have nationally answered the the difficulty, captured the engine rather impudent questions you have room, and, by holding a gun at his "Certainly yes; the first officer and seen fit to ask. Now, Senor Estevan, ear, persuaded the engineer to operate comparatively easy success. The main cabia had been secured by my orders Her tone had changed to imperiouswhen we first arrived aboard, and I came below just now, after all danger ness. This was plainly a command. seemed far astern, to learn if any and, back of the fair face fronting officers were hidden away here. I had a proud insistence long accustomed to examined all the other staterooms, finding them empty, and at last control. It was not fear but disdain opened this door in my quest. Not that darkened her gray eyes. Her until I saw you did I in the slichtest manner begged nothing-it pictured dominant command, the attitude of realize that we were on board the wrong vessel, nor that we were enone who addresses a servant, expectgaged in anything except an honorable my encnest appeal, yet totally unable adventure of war." "Lady Darlington," I began, stand-That the hasty details of my story ing directly before her, and reverting both startled her and impressed her with its truth, was evident enough, yet certain of making my meaning suffiher lips curled with contempt, and her eyes remained unbelieving. "How many men accompanied you?"

shall be truthful. It is far better that "A crew of 20, with two officers." you comprehend fully the situation we are in-your own peril, as well as my "Peruvians, I presume?" responsibility."

Her expression changed from abbitrary defiance to an amazement not untinged by a sudden development of fear as her hands grasped the chairback convulsively; but 1 went on steadily to the end.

"I am not, as you naturally supposed, a Chilean, but a native of North America. My name is Stephens. I was in Valparaiso under most unpleasant circumstances, seeking vainly to escape from the country, and hounded by the secret police because of my connection lately with a revolutionary movement along the Bolivian frontier. The merits of that affair need not now be discussed, but I had become involved in it through certain business connections, and had at tained Valparaiso after much hard ship, seeking escape by sea. There discovered every avenue closed against me, and was reduced to a des perate plight. I was in hiding from the governmental authorities when risked almost certain discovery-last evening. A little later-after you left lieve represented the Peruvian government, approached me with strange proposition, which, however a suitable reward for the successful "Nevertheless, senor, I am Lord performance of a certain service. I am a sailor, and the particular duty least for the moment?" "No, madam," reluctantly, "hotch-She did not appear to know what potch dragged from the seven seas." she had better do or say, her glance Her expressive face dargened, her fingers clenching again nervously wandering in uncertainty from my face to the questioning eyes of the about the chairback. maid. The latter leaned forward with "And you really expect me to besome cagerness. lieve that preposterous tale!" she burst forth, indignation shattering all "Surely it is best to say out, madame; ze man has ze look henorable," her hands gesticulating despair. "An" on ze whoi' ship zers was no one else

My cheeks flushed at the harsh words. I could feel the surge n blood yet I met her gaze quietly.

endeavoring to make it appear worse." impressed to some extent by the gravity of my manner. "Then prove it."

"How?" "By steaming directly back to Velnaraiso and delivering up this stolen and closed the docr.

vessel to its lawful owners."

to do?

tlers in a little neighborhood, tor explain, it was comparatively easy for poor to support a minister. me to mistake this yacht for the Es-Time and again he has been called meralda. They are very much alike, and it would last from two to three weeks. I wrote to you for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am happy to say that I am cured, thanks to your medicino and good advice. You may uso my letter for the good of others." - Mrs. J. H. Breyere, St. Regis Falls, N. Y. ž

There is absolutely no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to cure female diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical. For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

ordinary bounds of speecit. "You must, indeed, think very highly of my intelligence. You-why, you are a sea-robber, a pirate!" to help us." "As you say, Celeste, there is no choice;" and Lady Darlington's gray eyes again sought mine reluctantly. "I sincerely desire to repose complete studies. Such a test could be made

"I have told you the exact truth. Lady Darlington, as I promised," I returned, seeking to speak calmig, "without any real hope that you would believe. Yet I want yen to try. It is you accede to this?"

silent acquiescence, and, still facing them both. I backed out of the room

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

confidence in you; to believe you to sweep the college curricula of nearworthy. What is it you wish us ly every study now considered assentiail What would become of the higher mathematics if this test were ap-"Merely to remain where you are, all bad enough as it stands, without beyond the observation of others, until plied? Who uses conic sections of I can ascertain the exact trath of our trigonometry in his business? What She leaned slightly forward, clearly situation. So soon as I learn this, I business man has actual recourse to shall return with the information. Will what he learned of chemistry or min-stakes.

eralogy? The utilitarian test can be She lowered her head slightly, in applied tos rigidly to college studies with the result of greatly narrowing the collega curric slum. The cultural studies ought to have a chan :.--Minneapolis Journal.

Love Will Find a Viay. Oberlin was the first coeducational college in this country. In the early days they had a rule that in case there were but one man and one womand in a room, at least one chair should be between them. One even-bring suit for recovery. Utility in Studies.

he has practically nothing. There are many persons who owe him and who will never pay, knowing he will not President Schurman's questioning of the utility of teaching modern languages in calleges is somewhat surprising. While it may be true, as he claims, that not one in 509 outside of teachers will use them, this is not a valid reason for discontinuing them as

Rev. Watson Dana.

late at night to ride Lirough storm and cold to the bedstde of some par is noner. He frequently walked miles to preach rather than profane the Sab bath by taking a convenient train. He has never had his life insured. He holds that life insurance is a specie of gambling, with life and death as

At one time he was wealthy; to-day