GETS DEATH PENALTY

JURY IN DAVIS CASE BRINGS IN ITS VERDICT.

HAPPENINGS OVER THE STATE

What is Going on Here and There That is of Interest to the Readers Throughout Nebraska and Vicinity.

Almsworth, Neb.—The jury in the Davis murder case after deliberating ten hours forty minutes Tuesday brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree and imposed the death penalty. Owing to the fact that it was a holiday the court could not set the date of execution nor the attorney for the defendant file a motion for a new trial, but he did ask for a day or two in which to arrange his affairs, and the court set February 25 as the time for hearing of motion.

Walter Rifenburg, alias, George Wilson, convicted of the crime, received the verdict without a quiver and when taken back to his cell in the county jail took up the work of writing letters to relatives without the loss of a moment's time.

Monday was given over to the arguments of the attorneys of both sides and it was found necessary to hold a night session of the court in order to finish. Judge Harrington concluded his charge to the jury and placed the case in its hands at 8:20 p. m. and at 7 o'clock the jury announced to the bailiff that a verdict had been reached and the judge and other officers of the court were hastily summoned and despite the early hour and the intense cold, there were present in the court room when the verdict was read about 100 people with a number of women among them.

The crime of which Wilson was convicted was an atrocious one. J. Davis, Jr., who conducted a pool hall, on the night of December 27, last, closed his business at 11 o'clock and started home. He was shot while passing through an alley near his home, the bullet passing almost through his head. His pockets were robbed of about $225. The body was then dragged to a barn nearby, where Davis must have partially revived. The murderer then took some sharp instrument and inflicted a number of serious wounds about the head, Davis lived but an hour or two and never regained consciousness. Wilson was suspected and placed under arrest and when searched about $225 was found on his person.

Demented Man Shoots Brother.

Burwell, Neb.—Salem Essy, the demented man that attempted to murder his two brothers in the north part of the county is now in jail. He was in charge of a brother and broke away and went to a neighbor's house and stole a gun. He then returned and shot one brother twice at a distance of a few rods and then assaulted the other brother and would have choked him to death but for the arrival of neighbors, who found it necessary to beat himself into insensibility to subdue him. Thomas Essy, the man that was shot, is resting easy and the doctors report that he will recover. Salem Essy will be sent to the asylum.

Some few weeks ago Salem Essy was before the insanity board, but the commissioners did not find him serious enough, as they thought, to send to the asylum and his brother and sister agreed to care for him.

Aged Man is Missing.

Fremont, Neb.—Search is in progress for Gilbert Fay, an eccentric old man, who has been living in a hole in the ground for some time. Fay has not been seen for about a week. He left the home of his son and established a home for himself in a little house he owned. After that he came periodically to see his Fremont relatives. Neighbors noticed that there were no signs of Fay's presence and remembered they had not seen him for some time. They notified the police, who in turn, notified Fay's son. The search was commenced but it has not yielded results. Fay has resided in Fremont for a long period. He is past eighty years old and well known, particularly on account of his long flowing hair. He has not worn a hat for ten years.

ONLY NECESSARY TO TREAT STOMACH, SAYS COOPER

The new theory advanced by L. T. Cooper relative to the human stomach has attracted such widespread attention that the public in cities visited by the young man has been joined by many physicians in a discussion of his beliefs and medicines.

Mr. Cooper says human health is dependent almost entirely upon the stomach. He says that no disease can be conquered without first alleviating all stomach disorders. He further says that most men and women of this generation are half-sick owing to degenerate stomachs. And lastly, he claims that his New Discovery medicine will rejuvenate the human stomach in 90 days.

Cooper has been traveling from one city to another, conducting in each what he calls a campaign of education. For the past year he has met the public in the larger cities of the country, and his success has been phenomenal. Thousands of people have flocked to his headquarters wherever he has gone, and the sale of his medicine has been beyond anything of the kind ever before witnessed.

Possibly the most interesting feature of the attention this young man has attracted is what his army of followers, whom he has converted to his beliefs through his medicines, have to say on the subject. The following statements are from two well-known residents of Chicago and Boston, respectively, and the enthusiasm of these is characteristic of Cooper's admirers generally.

Mrs. H. B. Mack, of 3201 State street, Chicago, says: "I have been suffering for 12 years from a combination of stomach trouble, catarrh and constipation. I had a gnawing pain in the pit of my stomach, a sort of a dull pain that I could not quite understand. Then there was a dull headache, and my mind seemed to be wandering continually. I could not eat, and what little solid food I did eat I could not retain on my stomach. I tried every remedy I could think of, and also tried out a number of patent medicines, but without any apparent result. It was through one of my friends that I heard of Cooper's preparation, and I immediately decided to try some of it. It is two weeks since I took my first dose of it, and I feel like a new woman. The headache seems to have disappeared, and the pain in my stomach, along with it. The medicine is worth its weight in gold, and I want to thank Mr. Cooper for what he has done for me."

Mr. Edwin F. Morse, of 20 Oakley street, Dorchester, a suburb of Boston, says: "For three years I had not a well day. My stomach was in frightful shape; the mere thought of food would nauseate me, and I really had a horror of anything to eat. All solid food would cause me extreme indigestion, bloating and gas on my stomach, and nothing lasted right. Some time ago I got some of the Cooper's medicine, about which there is so much talk. I actually feel as well and strong as a boy ever since the first bottle. Every sign of stomach trouble has disappeared, and I have a hearty appetite and eat three square meals; everything seems to taste good. Anyone who knows what chronic indigestion is can appreciate what this means to me. I consider this the most remarkable medicine I ever heard of."

Items of Interest Around the State House

Riots at South Omaha Expensive. Documents filed by Secretary of State Knox with Governor Shallenberger indicate that the state of Nebraska will have to pay damages amounting to $247,954.99 on account of the anti-Greek riot at South Omaha February 21, 1909. The meeting was held following the shooting and killing of Policeman Edward Lowry by a Greek named John Masourides who was being placed under arrest by the officer. The secretary of state has asked Governor Shallenberger what he has to say about the claims. The governor will refer the matter to Attorney General Thompson. It is the policy of the federal government not to pay claims of other countries on account of damages to life and property of foreigners committed in any of the states, but to ask the states to make good whatever damage has been inflicted. This was the attitude of the general government when Chinese were damaged in Wyoming. Governor Shallenberger may have to recommend that the next legislature pay the claims represented by Austria-Hungarians, Turks and Greeks who were damaged by the riots in South Omaha. If the state has the pay the claims presented, it will be an expensive riot. The various foreign governments interested in the claims allege that the riot continued for nine hours and no attempt was made to call out the state troops for protection. The statement is made that laboring men incited the riot, believing they had a grievance because of the foreign-born workmen who were worked in the South Omaha packing houses for lower wages than American-born men would work for.

Commissions for Guardsmen. Adjutant General Hartigan has recommended for commission the following named officers who have passed the examination prescribed for Nebraska national guard officers: Colonel Fred J. Hollingworth, First regiment, to date from May 24, 1909. First Lieutenant Frank R. Beers, battalion adjutant, First regiment, to date from May 24, 1909. Second Lieutenant Herbert D. Walden, battalion quartermaster, First regiment, to date from May 24, 1909. Captain Charles L. Brewster, Company C, First regiment, to date from May 25, 1909. First Lieutenant Elmer L. New Interstate Demurrage. The western freight bureau has notified the state railway commission that the code of demurrage rules recommended by the state railway commission at their meeting in Washington, and also recommended by the interstate commerce commission, has been adopted by the bureau and will be enforced May 1 on interstate traffic. Nebraska has a statute of its own applying to demurrage charges on interstate shipments.

Commissioner Winnett, who attended the Washington meeting, said the proposed new rules make little change in this state. The new rules will enable large shippers to average the time limit on cars unloaded during a week or month and pay demurrage charges on an average basis.

Premature Repentance. The sick man seized his wife's hand in his feeble grasp.

"Please, tell me the whole awful truth at once," he begged, gaspingly. "Oh, William!" cried his wife, "it's all right, at last. The crisis is past and the doctor assures us that you will recover!"

"Is he absolutely sure of that, my dear?" "Perfectly." "Well, then, darling, please do this for me at once. Run and telephone to my partner that I didn't mean what I said yesterday about not foreclosing that mortgage. He'll understand that I must have been out of my head."

What It Meant. "Robbie," asked the school mistress, "what does history mean when it says that in the country's pioneer days some of the settlers didn't have a roof over their heads?"

A GOOD CHANGE A Change of Food Works Wonders.

The wrong food and drink causes a lot of trouble in this world. To change the food is the first duty of every person that is ill, particularly from stomach and nervous troubles. As an illustration: A lady in Mo., with her husband, been brought around to health again by leaving off coffee and some articles of food that did not agree with them. They began using Postum and Grape-Nuts food. She says: "For a number of years I suffered with stomach and bowel trouble which kept getting worse until I was very ill most of the time. About four years ago I left off coffee and began taking Postum. My stomach and bowels improved right along, but I was so reduced in flesh and so nervous that the least thing would overcome me. Then I changed my food and began using Grape-Nuts in addition to Postum. I lived on these two principally for about four months. Day by day I gained in flesh and strength until now the nervous trouble has entirely disappeared and I feel that I owe my life and health to Postum and Grape-Nuts. "Husband is 73 years old and he was troubled for a long time with occasional cramps, and slept badly. Finally I prevailed upon him to leave off coffee and take Postum. He had stood out for a long time, but after he tried Postum for a few days he found that he could sleep and that his cramps disappeared. He was satisfied and has never gone back to coffee. "I have a brother in California who has been using Postum for several years; his whole family use it also because they have had such good results from it."
