MANY YEARS AGO.

Files of the Journal, June 6, 1877.

The weather report for the month of June, 1877, records that there was a slight frost in the low places on June 9, and also that grasshoppers in considerable numbers fly north from the 14th to the 17th.

It is the request of the committee of Odd Fellows and Masons that those having old or odd coins of any kind, preserve them for deposit in one of the corner stores of the new hall shortly to be erected for the two orders.

In the proceedings of the county board: The resignation of P. H. Kelley as justice of the peace of Lost Creek township was accepted and G. W. Shaffer appointed in his place; also the resignation of W. D. Wilson, justice of the peace in Stearns precinct, was read and accepted.

L. H. North says that the Pawnees are greatly dissatisfied and not without cause. According to the census taken here there were 2620 in the tribe, whereas the census this spring, there shows they now number 1580, a decrease of 1040 souls, or very nearly forty per cent in two years. The fever and ague plays them off very rapidly. It is little wonder to put the Pawnees under military escort in removing them from their old reservation to the Indian Territory.

Asel Nelson and his wife have presented the city council with a claim of $2,261 against the city for injuries sustained by Mrs. Nelson on account of falling on a defective sidewalk, and medical attentions during the time she was suffering from the injuries, and the matter was referred to the city attorney. There were two bids for the construction of cement crossings for the coming year, submitted by Jacob Glur and McCord & Johnson, and the contract was awarded to the former. The request of the Union Pacific railroad to lay a main across Eleventh street to the power house of the Columbus Light, Heat & Power company, so they could get water from them, was turned down, and the committee reported that a warning had been served on both the railroad and electric light company not to construct the main. The city objects to the railroad company purchasing water from the light company when they are selling water, and would like to supply the railroad company. It is quite probable that an ordinance will be passed requiring that a building permit be secured before the construction of any building be commenced. This will enable the city to exercise a stricter supervision over structures built within the fire limit. Dussell & Son were paid the balance on the new wells, $804.11, and the engineer, John Martz, allowed $20 for his services in accepting them. All city water mains and service pipes will hereafter be laid in a uniform manner—four feet from the curb line. The city is now advertising for the sale of the $25,000 Platte river bridge bonds, recently voted. The petition for the removal of the lumber yard, south of the Union Pacific depot, is still in the hands of the judiciary committee, but report is expected soon.

After an illness of two months, Mrs. Robert Pinson, wife of Postmaster Pinson of Platte Center, died at her home Monday morning, aged 77 years. Mrs. Pinson was born in Ely, Cambridgeshire, England, December 28, 1833. Here she grew to womanhood and moved to Norwich and later to Saxthorpe, England, where she met her husband, Robert Pinson, and they were married at Norwich, England, September 1865. In 1870 they crossed the ocean and came to America and direct to Platte county, where they took up a homestead in Lost Creek township. In 1883, when Mr. Pinson was first appointed postmaster at Platte Center they moved to that town, but again resided on the old homestead for four years. In 1897 they again moved to Platte Center, which has since been their home. Mrs. Pinson was a sister of the late John Eusden of this city. Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, Jennie, wife of Willard Chapin of Walla Walla, Washington, and one son, T. J. E. Pinson, who lives on the old homestead in Lost Creek township. Mrs. Pinson was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral services, which were held Tuesday at the home in Platte Center, were conducted by Rev. D. I. Koush of this city, and she was brought here on the Norfolk passenger for burial in the Columbus cemetery.

Monday evening the Nebraska Fish commission car "Antelope" arrived in this city on a trip from Lincoln. The car was in charge of Deputy Fish Commissioner O'Brien and besides the fish distributed between this city and Lincoln, he had 20,000 young bass for distribution in this locality, and quite a number for shipment to Fullerton, St. Paul and Big Springs. Those distributed here were allotted under the supervision of the Columbus Fish, Game and Protective association, which has done much toward restocking this locality with game and fish. Mr. O'Brien received several encouraging reports regarding the croppie he distributed here several years ago, and is of the opinion that these fish will be the most plentiful game fish in this section. The car will visit this city again in October, when another lot of spawn and fish will be distributed.

Friday evening the city council will hold a special meeting to consider the proposition presented by the Columbus Light, Heat & Power company, and they desire that all the patrons of the light company who are interested attend the meeting. The proposition of the light company is substantially as follows: The highest rate charged shall be fourteen cents per kilowatt, with a ten per cent discount if the bill is paid before the tenth of the month. This rate applies to users of less than fifty kilowatts per month, but on larger quantities a sliding scale will be made, a reduction for each additional fifty kilowatts used. This proposition has been before the council for several weeks and they have been considering it, and the Friday night meeting will probably dispose of it.

Mike Gold, who runs the Thirteenth street pool hall, and Sam Bordy, who was employed by him until last Saturday, had some trouble the first of the week, and Sam got the best of the argument, Gold receiving a bad gash on the face. Last Thursday the first suit ever filed in this city to enforce the cigarette law was filed against Mike Gold, who operates the Thirteenth street pool hall. The complaint was sworn out by Sam Bordy, who swears that during the month of May, Gold sold or gave to Carl Boetcher, Bernard Burns, Fritz and Ray Rector, Dick Carpenter, James O'Brien, Bob Hayes and others cigarettes or material to make them. The case was up before Police Judge O'Brien Monday of this week, and a continuance taken until June 20. Gold declares that he is innocent and the complaint is an attempt by Bordy to make him trouble and injure him.

On The Diamond.

This week Manager Dolan released shortstop Cooper and right fielder Pasha and signed Littlejohn of Illinois and Brown of York to fill their places.

Catcher Agnew of the Omaha team has also been signed and will probably play with the team on their return here Thursday.

During the last week Columbus won but one game—that of Wednesday from Grand Island. Nansen, who was in the box for the visitors, passed two men to first, and then passed another and forced one man home. Two wild pitches brought in two more runs and he was relieved by Murry, but the game was won by Columbus.

Thursday the teams played and in an eleven inning game Grand Island defeated the home team by a score of 11 to 12.

Seward was here Friday and Saturday and won Friday's game by a score of 9 to 2, Dolan saving the home team from a shut out by knocking a two bagger in the ninth.

Saturday the most exciting game of the season was played, requiring eight-inning innings to decide it, Seward winning by a score of 2 to 4.

Sunday and Monday the Columbus team played at Grand Island, losing both games, the first score of 6 to 3 and the Monday game by a score of 1 to 0.

The three new players signed by Columbus will materially strengthen the team, and the Fremont-Columbus game tomorrow will no doubt be a good one.

The two Columbus-Seward games, scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, were postponed on account of rain, and Thursday and Friday Fremont plays here, Columbus playing Saturday and Sunday at that place. Monday, June 13, there will be a postponed game played here between Columbus and Kearney.

The management have arranged for twenty reserved seats for autos or rigs, located on the south side of the diamond next to the fence. These can be reserved either up town or at the grounds.

Last Friday evening the closing program of the Commencement exercises of the Columbus high school were given at the North theatre. The entire class was seated on the stage, but six orations were delivered, the remaining members having been at the two previous programs given at the high school building. The following from the Alliance, Neb., Times tells of an accident to W. M. Talbator, son of Postmaster Talbator of Monroe: Another unfortunate railroad accident occurred in the yards Wednesday morning, in which switchmen Ed Owen and Wm. Talbator nearly lost their lives, and switchman Johns was slightly injured. Spreading rails is supposed to be the cause of their engine leaving the track. The three men were standing on the foot board when the crash came. Mr. Johns managed to climb upon the engine, but the other two were caught under the front of the engine and crushed into the cinders. Mr. Owens suffered severe internal injuries, while Mr. Talbator is suffering with a leg so badly lacerated and bruised that amputation may be necessary. It took sometime to dig the men from under the engine at the time of the accident.

The Doxey Trial Ends.

Saturday morning's dailies contained the closing chapter of the trial of Mrs. Dora E. Doxey for the murder of William J. Erler, and the verdict of the jury was acquittal. In his instructions to the jury, the judge instructed them to bring in a verdict of murder in the first degree or acquittal. That the verdict was a surprise to Columbus people is putting it mild. Mrs. Doxey was re-arrested on a charge of bigamy by the Clayton county, Missouri, authorities, and was released on $2,000 bonds.

After being released under bond, Mrs. Doxey left St. Louis for this city arriving here Sunday. She is looking after some business matters and her household goods, which were left here at the time of her arrest.
