

Synopsis of the Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors.

Columbus, Nebraska, May 24, 1910. The board of supervisors of Platte county, Nebraska, met in adjourned session at the court house in the city of Columbus, in said county, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of opening the sealed proposals on file in the county clerk's office for the repairing and rebuilding of the Platte river wagon bridge and awarding the contract for same.

Hon. Louis Schwarz, chairman, and John Graf, clerk.

Roll called and following members present: Supervisors Clother, Goetz, Peterson, Schure, Smith, Wilson and Chairman Schwarz.

The county boards of Polk and Butler counties were notified and requested to attend the opening of the bids for the rebuilding and repairing of said bridge and participate with the board of supervisors of Platte county in awarding the contract for same, by serving upon the chairman of each and serving with the county clerks thereof notices to attend, but they failed to appear.

The bid of the Western Bridge and Construction company, of Omaha, Nebraska; the Midland Bridge company, of Kansas City, Missouri; the Empire Bridge company, of Falls City, Nebraska; the Canton Bridge company, of Omaha, Nebraska; the Lana Construction company, of Harlan, Iowa; the Monarch Engineering company, of Falls City, Nebraska; the Iowa Bridge company, of Des Moines, Iowa; and the Standard Bridge company, of Omaha, Nebraska, for the repairing and rebuilding of said bridge and on file in the county clerk's office, were now opened and read.

Moved by Supervisor Peterson that the bids be referred to the committee on roads and bridges.

On motion of Supervisor Goetz a recess was taken by the board to give the committee ample time to examine the bids and prepare report and recommendations.

Upon re-convenement of the board of supervisors the following report was submitted:

We, your committee on roads and bridges to whom were referred the bids of the different bridge construction companies for the repairing and rebuilding of the Platte river wagon bridge south of Columbus, connecting Platte, Butler and Polk counties, Nebraska, would report that we have examined the bids and find the Standard Bridge company, of Omaha, Nebraska, to be the lowest responsible bidder and therefore recommend that the bid of said company be accepted and the contract awarded to said company, upon giving a good and sufficient bond to Platte county in the sum of $10,000.

M. E. CLOTHIER,
ADAM SMITH,
J. GOETZ.

Moved by Supervisor Schure that the report and recommendations of the committee be adopted by the board. Motion carried.

The Standard Bridge company now presented a bond in the sum of $10,000, executed by the Title Guaranty and Surety Co., a corporation created and existing under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania, as a surety, which was examined by County Attorney Henesley and found by him to be in due form of law.

Moved by Supervisor Smith that the bond presented by the Standard Bridge company be accepted and approved by this board. Motion carried.

The following resolution was introduced by Supervisor Goetz:

Resolved, By the board of supervisors of Platte county, that the contract awarded to the Standard Bridge company, of Omaha, Nebraska, for the repairing and rebuilding of the wagon bridge over the Platte river, south of Columbus, connecting the counties of Platte, Butler and Polk, be prepared in triplicate by the county attorney and that the same be signed and executed on part of Platte county by the chairman and members of the board. Further

Resolved, That one of said triplicate contracts be served on each of the county boards of Butler and Polk counties, and that said boards and each of them be and hereby are directed and requested to sign and execute said contract.

Moved by Supervisor Peterson that the resolution be adopted by the board. Motion carried.

The contract between the Standard Bridge company, of Omaha, Nebraska, and Platte county, Nebraska, for the repairing and rebuilding of the wagon bridge, south of Columbus, connecting the counties of Platte, Butler and Polk, was now signed and executed by the chairman and members of board of supervisors of Platte county, Nebraska.

Gentlemen: I respectfully report that on December 16, 1909, there was filed in my office the petition of Math Schumacher and others for the location of a public road, 40 feet in width, commencing at the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 11, town 18, range 2 west, and running thence due west on the half section line one mile and terminating at the southwest corner of the northwest quarter of said section 11, town 18, range 2 west.

Arndt and Charles Scheidel, sr., as appraisers to assess the damages caused by the location of the proposed line of road and who afterwards filed their report in the county clerk's office on May 2, 1910, and I herewith submit all papers therewith for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN GRAP,
County Clerk.

On motion of Supervisor Goetz, Attorney W. M. Cornelius was now given the privilege of the floor who addressed the board of supervisors at some length in support of the objections filed by Mary Macken against the location of the proposed line of road.

Greisen and Charles Chorick, at the conclusion of which it was moved by Supervisor Goetz that the entire matter relative to the location of the proposed road be taken under advisement by the board of supervisors as a committee of the whole. Moving Books.

Many persons complain that their books suffer in transit. The head of a moving company was interviewed on this subject, and he said: "After several years' experimenting with different things for the best conveyance of books I have found that the use of small boxes is by far the most advisable, the smaller the better. These boxes are easily secured for a few cents from your grocer. For storage purposes, where the matter is left to us, we move books in long, narrow boxes fitted with handles made especially for this purpose, but this is not necessary, of course, for the ordinary moving. Barrels simply ruin books, and large boxes filled with heavy volumes have caused more than one strike among our men. They are the clumsiest of all things to handle, as well as the heaviest."

Another mode of moving books is to tie them up in small bundles with stout wrapping paper and heavy twine, leaving enough of the twine to make a loop handle for lifting.—New Idea Woman's Magazine.

The Drummer's Sermon.

"Certainly I will make a few remarks," says the cigar salesman who, because of his solemn garb, has been mistaken for a man of the cloth. Ascending the platform, he says: "Men are much like cigars. Often you cannot tell by the wrapper what the filler is. Sometimes a good old stogy is more popular than an imported celebrity. Some men are all right in the showcase on display, but are great disappointments when you get them home. No matter how fine a man is, eventually he meets his match. A two-for often puts on as many airs as a fifty-center. Some men never get to the front at all except during campaigns. Some are very fancy outside and are selected for presents. Others have a rough exterior, but spread cheer and comfort about them because of what is inside. But all men, as all cigars, good or bad, two-fers, stogies or rich or poor, come to ashes at the last."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Origin of Commerce.

Commerce—the international traffic in goods as distinct from domestic traffic—was undoubtedly originated by the wonderful little people known in history as the Phoenicians. The "Yankees of antiquity," the Phoenicians, traded with various peoples long before their respective frontiers. All along the shores of the Mediterranean and up the coast of the Atlantic as far north as the British Isles their ships were to be found, leaving their manufactures and wonderful dyes and bringing back to Tyre tin, wool and such other articles as paid them to deal in.

Creating the merchant marine so long ago that history gives us no account of it, the Phoenicians and their colonists, the Carthaginians, held it until it passed on to Greece and Rome and later along to the republics of modern Italy.—New York American.

When Finished.

Busy persons, forced to defend themselves from interminable talkers who have little to say, can appreciate a hint to which Henry IV. of France once resorted. A parliamentary deputy called upon him and made a long speech. The king listened patiently for a time, but finally he became impatient and heaved a sigh. He took him by the hand and led him to where they could see the gallery of the Louvre.

"What do you think of that building?" When it is finished it will be a good thing, will it not?"

"Yes," replied the man of many words, not guessing what was coming next.

"Well, monsieur, that is just the way with my discourse," was the king's mild observation.

Peculiarities of the Opossum.

The American opossum is one of the most curious animals living in the United States. It is the only one that carries its young in a pouch like the kangaroo. It is the only animal that can feign death perfectly. It is remarkable for hanging by its tail like a monkey. It has hands resembling those of a human being. Its snout is like a hog's, while its mouth is liberally furnished with teeth. Its eyes are like a rat's, and it hisses like a snake.

Cash and Credit.

"Father, what is meant by bankruptcy?"

"Bankruptcy is when you put your money in your hip pocket and let your creditors take your coat."—Flegende Blatter.

It is just simply out of the question for a young fellow to find such clothes as those known as "College Chap" unless he comes to us.

The shoulders, the graceful waist, the delightful lapels, all proclaim them the clothes "de luxe" for men who know cleverness when they see it. Are you one of these men? We want to know you.

And further that said road be entered upon the road plat of the county as a public highway and the county surveyor be directed to survey and plat said road and file his survey and field notes with the clerk of this board. Motion carried.

The following was presented: To the Board of Supervisors:

Gentlemen: Pursuant to an agreement of the board and by request of the committee on county farm, the board in a body proceeded to the county farm at 9 o'clock a. m. May 25, 1910, for a general inspection of the condition of the growing crops and buildings, and also to inspect the condition of the county inmates now at said county farm.

The board convined itself upon examination of the crops and buildings and all in good condition, taking into consideration the condition of the winter and spring weather. We also find the live stock now on said farm all in good condition.

In regard to the condition of the buildings, the board is of the opinion that both the dwelling house and also the poor house should be treated with a coat of paint on the outside, also that the basement walls under the dwelling house is badly in need of repair and should be placed in a better shape by repairing said walls.

We also find that the interior of the poor house is badly in need of renovation and should be treated to a good coat of whitewash or paint in order to place same in a good sanitary condition. In careful inspection of the out-buildings we find the granary is in a very unit condition for the purpose it is intended, and would recommend the erection of a new building for use as a granary, the size and dimensions of said building to be agreed upon by the board.

On motion same was adopted.

We find the condition of all the county inmates now on said farm in fair health, and are all well treated by the superintendent and matron of said farm.

In consideration of the above condition of affairs we would recommend the within mentioned repairs be made, and that the committee on county farm be authorized to comply with all of the above requirements and recommendations.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN GOETZ,
C. A. PETERSON,
J. F. SCHURE,
LOUIS SCHWARZ.
