MANY YEARS AGO.

Files of The Journal Aug. 15, 1877.

The architect for the new monastic building arrived in the city. He belongs to the Franciscan brotherhood, and is called Brother Adrian.

Farmers generally are more careful than usual in stacking their grain. The experience of the past two falls led them to believe we might have a repetition of the wet weather.

Franklin square, if fenced in and planted to trees, would be an ornament to the city; as it is, it is certainly anything but ornamental and we do not see its particular usefulness.

Chas. Morse received the first load of new oats that has been brought to town, at 20 cents a bushel. He expects to see them at 15 cents, but thinks it would be advisable for farmers not to sell at any such prices. There is no better feed for young stock of all kinds.

James Russell has completed stacking sixty acres of small grain—a splendid crop. He says that fall plowing for wheat produced only about half so much to the acre as was raised from corn ground. James has got tired pumping water by hand for his stock, and purposes having a windmill.

While acting as a member of the First ward election board Tuesday, Edwin O. Rector was stricken, and died of acute stomach trouble soon after being taken home. For several months he had not been in the best of health, but nothing serious was anticipated. About 4:30 in the afternoon he went across the street from the court house, and while standing at the well at the Sam Gas home he was stricken and fell. He recovered however, for a few minutes, but another attack came and this time he was taken home in an automobile, passing away when he reached there. Mr. Rector was born in Antioch, Illinois, June 23, 1838. There and at Salem, Wisconsin, he made his home until the outbreak of the civil war, when he enlisted in Company H, Thirty-third Wisconsin Infantry, August 5, 1862, and served for three years to a day, being mustered out on the same day of the month he enlisted. In 1863 he was wounded in the left arm and sent home on furlough, and on May 28, 1863, he was married to Emily J. Munson at Salem, Wisconsin. After his furlough expired he returned to his regiment and after being mustered out went to Chicago, where they resided for nine years, being there during the great fire. In 1878 he came west, and although it was not his first trip, having been in Kansas in 1859, he settled in Webster county, near Red Cloud, in 1878. In 1893 he came to Columbus with his family and this has since been their home. Mr. Rector has always been an active member of Baker Post No. 9, Grand Army of the Republic, and at the time of his death was its commander. Besides his wife, two sons, Fred D. and Jesse E., both of North Platte, survive him. Three sisters are also living, Mrs. O. E. Munson of Jennings, Kansas, Mrs. C. H. Munson of Sharon, Wisconsin and Mrs. D. A. Williams of Antioch, Illinois. Arrangements for the funeral have not been announced, awaiting replies from message sent relatives, but the services will be conducted by Rev. W. L. Dibble of the Congregational church, and will be under the auspices of Baker Post No. 9, Grand Army of the Republic, that being a wish of the deceased. Union Camp No. 134, Sons of Veterans, will probably also attend as a camp.

Sunday's dailies told of an automobile accident at Rochester, Indiana, which resulted in the death of Mrs. John Eckert, a lady well known to many Columbus people. A party of seven from Logansport, Indiana, were on their way to Lake Manitowish, and when crossing the railroad tracks at Rochester the machine was struck by a railroad train and Mrs. Eckert instantly killed and the remainder of the party injured. Mrs. Eckert was a relative of the Wm. Bucher and G. Frischholz families of this city, and had visited here on several occasions. Telegrams were received by the relatives in this city saying that Mrs. Eckert was the only one who lost her life in the accident, while the dispatches in the dailies said there were five killed. No further particulars were given excepting that a later message said the other members of the party were not seriously injured. Mrs. Wm. Bucher, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Al. Becker, left Monday evening for Logansport to attend the funeral.

Preliminary organization of the five German societies of this city into a local branch of the German-American band was completed last Saturday evening at the Maennerchor hall. The societies included are the Orpheus, Maennerchor, Sons of Hermann, Gruetli and Landweverein, and this second meeting was the outcome of a preliminary meeting held Thursday evening, over which Carl Rohde presided. The object of the organization is to conduct a research of American history for the purpose of ascertaining more about the lives and records of German born citizens of the pioneer days, to encourage the adoption of gymnastic exercises in the public schools, and to unite all of the German-American societies into one body for the purpose of promoting principles common to their interests.

Arthur and Verner Wilson, John Babcock, Steve Kent and Ed Thomas left Tuesday afternoon for Schuyler, where they will join that company of state militia and go to Fort Riley, Kas., to the annual encampment. These boys are old members of Company K, and go with the Schuyler company so they will have the required number of men. Under instructions from the war department a company is not allowed to attend the encampment with less than a certain number of men enrolled, but provides that they can take substitutes and the five boys from this city will give them the required number of men.

Manager Saffron is pleased to announce to his patrons that for one night Friday August 19 he has secured an extraordinary attraction. On this date, Miss Grace Cameron, the Broadway favorite will appear in C. Herbert Kerr's brand new comedy "Nancy." This character is a continuation of her famous character "Little Dollie Dimple" which we all liked so well upon the occasion of Miss Cameron's last appearance here. Her supporting company is an exceptionally fine one and the production is carried in its entirety by the company.

Miss Bertha Glur left Wednesday morning for Lincoln, where she will visit with friends for a few days.

T. W. Blackmore of Friend, Neb., was in the city Tuesday renewing acquaintances. Mr. Blackmore was a resident of Columbus and Monroe for several years before going to Friend.

Adolph Luers and Eilert Mohlman left last Saturday for a ten days' trip in the west, during which time they will visit Colorado Springs, Salt Lake and take in the Frontier Days at Cheyenne on their return trip.

Work on the excavating for the new double store for M. Lavine, on Ely street, has been somewhat delayed by the wet weather. The east wall of the old Journal building, which will be rebuilt, has been torn down.

Saturday Joe Baumgartner was arrested for intoxication and placed in the city jail over Sunday, and Monday morning he was up before Police Judge O'Brien, who assessed him $5 and costs, amounting to $31, which he will work out on the streets.

A complaint was filed in County Judge Ratterman's court last Saturday by H. J. Backes of Humphrey, charging Ray Noel with embezzlement, the amount named being $125. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Sheriff Lachnit, who located Noel at Wichita, Kas., and left for that place Tuesday morning to bring him to this city for a hearing.

Copious rains of the last week measured 2.10 inches, and as the showers fell the ground took up all the moisture. While some of the crops were slightly damaged by the dry weather, the rain saved many fields and the yield will not be much below the average. Pastures were pretty well dried out have been revived and this item is a big thing to the farmers who have livestock.

Jake McNeely of Monroe, charged with assault, and for whom a warrant was issued by Police Judge O'Brien last week, was not to be found last Wednesday when Sheriff Lachnit went to that village for him. Later, however, on Saturday, he kept a previous agreement and appeared in police court to answer the charge. After a preliminary hearing the case was continued until August 19 and he was released, his bond being fixed at $100.

There is considerable complaint from local fishermen regarding gas that goes to the river through the sewers. They claim that the gas poisons the fish and makes them unfit to eat. This is certainly an important matter and should be looked into at once. The Columbus Fish and Game Protective association have been doing much to keep our waters well stocked, and anything that may injure or destroy the fish should be brought to their attention.

Union Camp No. 134, Sons of Veterans have taken steps towards organizing a ladies' auxiliary, and at the last meeting of the camp a committee was appointed to take up the matter. There is a national organization of this character but whether or not the Columbus auxiliary will be affiliated with that organization will be determined later. Some time ago this was taken up but nothing definite resulted, and now the camp will endeavor to have the organization completed before the cold weather.

On next Friday at the North Theatre charming Grace Cameron will present for public approval, C. Herbert Kerr's latest 4 act comedy "Nancy." This is Mr. Kerr's very best effort in the way of play writing, and for comedy and pathos none of his former successes can compare with "Nancy." Miss Cameron's role is the best she has ever appeared in and fits her entirely, and is adopted more particularly to her talents than any other play she has ever been cast in. The production is complete in every detail, and the company is a noted one.

A four foot body of vanadium ore which it is believed will run in the neighborhood of 10 per cent has been discovered in the fifty-foot level of the Magnolia shaft. The ore was opened up many years ago when the mine was being worked for gold and silver values and this ore was left, being then considered valueless. The old drift is being cleared out and retimbered and a sample has been taken to determine the vanadium content.—Boulder County, Colo., Miner. This mining property is owned by a number of Columbus people.

Last Saturday evening over one hundred German-Americans met at the Maennerchor hall to discuss the political situation and organize for the primary. The meeting was presided over by Otto Kinder and speeches were made by Carl Rohde, August Bostelke, Chas. Segelke, Jr., Chas. Segelke, Jr., and Otto Kinder. From the sentiment of the meeting there is but little doubt that Platte county Germans in this locality are for Dahlman. A German band furnished music for the occasion.

Those who are looking after the new Platte bridge are doing all they can to hurry up the shipment of steel piling from Pittsburg, which, at present, is causing the delay in work on the structure. As soon as they arrive all material needed will be available and the bridge company will push work to make up all lost time possible. And Columbus is just as much interested in the early completion of the bridge as anyone, for as soon as it is available a large share of trade, which is now going to other towns will come here again.

Opening of North Theatre, Aug. 19.

Dainty and petite Grace Cameron, formerly leading lady or star with "Little Dollie Dimple," "Fifi, Pafi, Pafi," "De Wolf Flopper," "The Tenderfoot," "When Johnnie comes marching home," "The Bostonian," "Savage Grand Opera Co." "The Normandy wedding," "Foxy Quiller," etc., etc., is coming to us in a brand new farce comedy from the pen of the eminent young author, C. Herbert Kerr, who wrote, "Dollie Dimple," "Over the Fence," "A Trip to Egypt," "The Beauty Doctor," "The Reformers," Randolph and Adolph, "Papa's Baby," etc. The title of the new play is "Nancy," and the character is that of a little country miss, simple but good. The play abounds in comedy situations, and the dialogue is amusing throughout.
