John Henry

AND HIS SAD FRIEND

By GEORGE V. HOBART

"I brought Tacks with me because I had to do some shopping, and he's so much company," Clara J. explained, when I joined them at the restaurant by appointment.

"Tacks is always pleasant company," I said, politely, but I determined to keep a watchful eye on my youthful brother-in-law, nevertheless.

"That kid was born with an abnormal bump of mischief and by painstaking endeavor he has won the world's championship as an organizer of impromptu riots.

"Oh, John!" said Clara J. when I began to make faces at the menu card. "I didn't notice until now how pale you look. Have you had a busy day?"

"Busy!" I replied; "well, rather. I've been giving limitations of a bull fight. Everybody I met was the bull and I was the fight. Nominate your eats! What'll it be, Tacks?"

"Sponge cake," said Tacks promptly. "What else?" asked Clara J.

"More sponge cake," the youth replied, and just then the smiling and sympathetic waiter stooped down to pick up a fork Tacks had dropped.

In his anxiety not to miss anything, Tacks rubbed acrobatically, with the result that he upset a glass of ice water down the waiter's neck, and three seconds later the tray-trotter had issued an extra and was saying things in French that would sound scandalous if translated.

If cost me a dollar to bring the dish-dragger back to earth, and Tacks said I could break his bank open when we got home and take all the money if I'd let him do it again.

"Uncle Peter is delighted beyond measure with your business ability," Clara J. informed me after the treaty of peace had been signed with the waiter.

"Old Friend Life Time Threw Me Down—"

"He has a right to be!" I muttered, painfully, as I thought of my recent swift ride down the mountain side on U. S. & N. I had had a profit of $2,000 in it and then it went down and wiped me out.

"He says that by following his directions carefully you are seven thousand richer today. Are you, John?"

"Sure, Peaches!" I answered truthfully. "I'm seven to the good."

For my little uncle had left me seven horses, which had just been brought to me from Kentucky by Murr Higginbottom, his old trader.

I neglected to add the word skates, but, then, what's a little thing like that amount to among friends?

"Seven in one day," she said, enthusiastically.

"Seven in one day—one of them with four white feet," I said, like a man in a dream.

"What do you mean?" Clara J. asked, "is that a Wall street expression?"

"No," I answered hastily. "I was only talking to myself and I held the phone too close to my mouth. Let's start this banquet with a hot water-waiter, clam cocktails for three!"

"Uncle Peter, Aunt Martha and I had a long talk today about your prospects in Wall street," Clara J. rattled on. "Oh, John, you don't know how happy it makes me feel to think that you'll never, never go near those awful race tracks again."

My thoughts took the ferry for Jersey City, and I could hear Murr Higginbottom saying, "To Uncle Owen considered you all as big Casino on the eastern tracks, huh!"

"You'll make a lot of money with the seven you got today, won't you, dear?" Peaches asked encouragingly.

"Possibly," I replied, nervously; "still, you never can tell. They may get into the habit of running back inwards—or, I mean, the market is very uncertain!—Tacks, take your thumb out of that butter!"

"I was so sorry I couldn't get you on the phone early this afternoon," Clara J. informed me. "I called up your broker's office down town, but they couldn't find you."

Dike put in. "If I don't get 'policy' I'll bust out crying!"

"When did you see me in Jersey City? How dare you make such an accusation against me?" I demanded.

"John," said Dike, trying earnestly to look at me gravely, "I saw you in Jersey City zish afternoon. Pen-shonvonia station, zish threw me spoke to you politely—you threw me down. Followed you to demand 'policy'—you gave me shake." Saying this he grabbed a wine glass from the table and held it close to his heart in order to illustrate the intensity of his feeling.

"They sell them to the girls for hats, I guess."

ECZEMA GONE, BOILS CURED

"My son was about three weeks old when I noticed a breaking-out on his cheeks, from which a watery substance oozed. A short time after, his arms, shoulders and breast broke out also, and in a few days became a solid scab. I became alarmed, and called our family physician, who at once pronounced the disease eczema. The little fellow was under his treatment for about three months. By the end of that time, he seemed no better. I became discouraged, and as I had read the advertisements of Cuticura Remedies and testimonials of a great many people who had used them with wonderful success, I dropped the doctor's treatment, and commenced the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in a few days noticed a marked change. The eruption on his cheeks was almost healed, and his shoulders, arms and breast were decidedly better. When he was about seven months old all trace of the eczema was gone.

"During his teething period, his head and face were broken out in boils which I cured with Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Surely he must have been a great sufferer. During the time of teething and from the time I dropped the doctor's treatment, I used the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, nothing else, and when two years old he was the picture of health. His complexion was soft and beautiful, and his head a mass of silky curls. I had been afraid that he would never be well, and I feel that I owe a great deal to the Cuticura Remedies." Vagaries of Finance.

"I understand you have paid the mortgage off your place."

"Yep," replied Farmer Cornstossel.

"Then why do you complain of hard times?"

"All the neighbors have done the same thing. That leaves me with money on my hands that nobody wants to borrow."

$3.50 RECIPES CURES WEAK KIDNEYS, FREE

RELIEVES URINARY AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, BACKACHE, STRAINING, SWELLING, ETC.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the aches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a QUICK RECOVERY, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $2.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-28 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power. It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free, you can use it and cure yourself at home.

A Corner in Candles.

As an example of trusts and monopolies prevalent even in that early day it may be mentioned that in 1750 one Benjamin Crabb obtained the exclusive right to make sperm candles in Massachusetts for 14 years.

A year later, however, a factory was started in Providence, R. I., and within the decade there were eight factories in New England and one in Philadelphia. Their output greatly reduced the price of candles, which no longer sold for five shillings a pound. In those days $1.25 was worth fully three times as much as it is now.—From the Designer.

That Essential Struggle.

There are men who go through life without ever getting what one would call a throw-down or set-back—they never get to know what it means to face rough or tough weather. Their way is slicked and paved. They seem to miss the one great essential thing in every success—the struggle; days when everything looks as though one is about done for and ready to cave in.

Give Defiance Starch a fair trial—it is for both hot and cold starching, and if you don't think you do better work, in less time and at smaller cost, return it and your grocer will give you back your money.

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism

The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 18 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where other have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's." Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

The Walkers.

James M. Beck, the famous corporation lawyer of New York, is a native of Philadelphia, and to Philadelphia he often returns to see his old friends.

Mr. Beck, in a recent banquet in Philadelphia, defended corporations with an epigram.

"The trust buster and the Socialist may do what they please," he said, "but mankind will still be divided into two great classes—those who walk to get an appetite for their dinner, and those who walk to get a dinner for their appetite."

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

BURDENS LIFTED FROM BAD BACKS

Weary is the back that bears the burden of kidney ills. There's no rest or peace for the man or woman who has a bad back. The distress begins in early morning. You feel lame and not refreshed. It's hard to get out of bed. It hurts to stoop to tie your shoes. All day the ache keeps up. Any sudden movement sends sharp twinges through the back. It is torture to stoop and straighten. At night the sufferer retires to toss and twist and groan. Backache is kidney ache—a throbbing, dull aching in the kidneys. Plasters or liniments won't do. You must get at the cause, inside.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURE SICK KIDNEYS

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Mrs. M. A. Jenkins, Okanah, Tex., says: "I was bloated almost twice my natural size. I had the best physicians, but they failed to help me. For five weeks I was as helpless as a baby. My back throbbled and the kidney secretions were in terrible condition. The doctors held out no hope and I was resigned to my fate. At this critical time, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and soon was cured."

How To Tell When The Kidneys Are Disordered--

Painful Symptoms: Backache, sideache, pains when stooping or lifting, sudden sharp twinges, rheumatic pains, neuralgia, painful, scanty or too frequent urination, dizzy spells, dropsy.

Urinary Symptoms: Discolored or cloudy urine. Urine that contains sediment. Urine that stains the linen. Painful passages. Blood or shreds in the urine. Let a bottle of the morning urine stand for 24 hours. If it shows a cloudy or fleecy settling, or a layer of fine grains, like brick dust, the kidneys are probably disordered.

A CASE OF GRAVEL.

Harrison A. Sturtevant, G and Maple Sts., Tulare, Cal., says: "I was in bad shape with kidney trouble. Too frequent urination compelled me to arise at night, my bladder became inflamed and I suffered severe pain. When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I passed a gravel stone three quarters of an inch and variegated in color. After this my trouble disappeared."
