MANY YEARS AGO

Files of the Journal, April 3, 1878.

Considerable snow fell in this vicinity last Friday. That, with the heavy rain of last Wednesday, gives us plenty of moisture for the spring crops.

"Neb." should be universally used as the abbreviated name of our state. We notice that the government officials use it, and for good reasons. Mistakes often happen with "Neb." because the latter is indistinctly made and mistaken for a "V," thus sending the document to Nevada, as happened the other day with a "letter of advice" for a P. O. money order of $25, and the payment of the order was delayed two weeks in consequence.

Senator Saunders' timber culture bill, reported by Senator Paddock from the committee on agriculture, has passed the senate, after an animated discussion, in which our senators took very prominent part. The bill amends the old law by reducing the amount to be planted from forty to ten acres, trees to be set four feet apart instead of twelve, and allows no one person to take under the law more than 100 acres. If the bill can be passed in the house it will be a good law for Nebraska settlers.

Last Monday was pleasant, mild, sun-stone and warm, the east and garr were sporting in the Loup, the lark and robin twittering in the line, and the small boy, astride his stick, galloping along the sidewalk, playing ride pony, was happy. Yet the happiness of the east and the garr, the robin and the lark and the little boy on his stick horse are matters of mere insignificance, when compared against the happiness of the man who mows his ideas at the school meetings. What an opening for the post-up feelings of one whole year!

Bonds for paving, sewerage and a new city hall were endorsed by the Commercial club at their special meeting held Wednesday evening for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed for the purpose of investigating the paving and sewerage propositions. The paving question was the main one contained in the report, and the paving district recommended extends from Platte to Lewis streets, and from the south side of Fourteenth to the alley south of Eleventh street. The amount of bonds recommended for the intersections was $15,000, which the committee believed would be sufficient and for the sewer the same amount would be required. Some time ago bonds were voted for a city hall, but after the election had been held it was found that the city did not have authority to issue these. The present legislature has a bill before it which will provide for this and in addition to the other recommendations was one for issuing $15,000 for city hall purposes should the bill become a law. The committee was composed of Gus B. Spiece, H. A. Clarke, G. W. Phillips, G. Frischholz and L. H. Leavy. The report was adopted by the club without a dissenting voice, and those who have been pushing these projects feel as though there is no question about their becoming a reality in the near future. Petitions will be circulated for the various bonding propositions and President Frischholz appointed the committee to circulate them: E. J. Galley, G. E. Spiece, S. E. Marty, E. H. Chambers and H. A. Clarke.

Both city tickets are complete, and the time for withdrawals or additions expired last Friday. For mayor, Louis Held, the present incumbent, has no opposition, and the same is true of the city treasurer, Walter Boettcher; city clerk, Wm. Becker; police judge, Wm. O'Brien; and water commissioner, P. J. McCaffrey. Chas. Wurdeman, for city engineer, who was nominated by the democrats, will not have any opposition. In the First ward there is but one candidate for councilman, Louis Branken, the democratic nominee, having no opposition. The same is true in the Second ward, where the name of Wm. Kurt, democrat, will be the only name on the ticket. The Third and Fourth wards each have two candidates, Charles W. Freeman being the democratic candidate and E. E. Bergman the republican nominee. In the Fourth ward George Winslow, the present incumbent and the republican nominee, is opposed by Gus Frish. With usual contest, there are but two school board candidates, Louis A. Lachnit for the democrats and Charles L. Dickey for the republicans.

Gustavus Schreiber, aged forty five, died Saturday afternoon at his home on East Eighth street, death being due to kidney trouble. Mr. Schreiber was born in Brandenburg, Germany, February 18, 1836. When he was a year old the family came to America, arriving in Illinois in 1836. Here they lived until 1869, when they came to Platte county, which has since been his home. Until 1885 Mr. Schreiber lived on the old home stead, north of this city, with his parents, when his mother died. After this he purchased another farm, and later moved into this city. Mr. Schreiber never married. He leaves three brothers, William and Louis of this locality, and Fritz Schreiber of Wisner, and two sisters, Mrs. Gerhard Voss and Mrs. Carl Kling. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Shell Creek Lutheran church, of which he was a member, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mueller, and burial was in the cemetery at the church.

Final adoption of the plans and specifications for the remodeling of the High school building was before the board of education at their special meeting last Thursday evening, and this was accomplished after some few minor changes in the plans submitted by Architect Wurdeman. In a few days bids will be called for so that the contracts may be let and the work begin as soon as the spring term closes. Teachers were also elected as follows: C. E. Collett, principal; Mary A. Johnston, Ruby B. Bickley, Ellen J. Hanson, Emily F. Rorer. For the grades, Minnie Baier, Lena Schmocker, Angeline Bracken, Ora Bracken, Kate Luchsinger, Julia Thomas, Eloise Bragger, Mrs. Ida Thompson, Mabel Ecker and Sophia Ainess. This does not complete the list of teachers, as there are a number of other positions which will be filled by the board at a later meeting.

Next Saturday, April 1st, the fishing season opens, and already several large camping outfits are making ready to be on the ground as soon as the law will permit. It appears a hardship to the real fisherman, who never goes beyond the rod and reel to enjoy the sport, to be compelled to stop in November, just when his favorite "pike" are doing all manner of bait-taking stunts. There should be no closed season for the man who fishes with rod and reel. But bear in mind that all sportsmen over eighteen years of age must take out a license. This will cost you one dollar at the office of the county clerk, and may be the means of saving you much trouble in case the "bogy" man comes around.

Lute North came up from Omaha Saturday and remained over Sunday with the home folks, returning Monday.
Mrs. Jacob Giar, accompanied by her daughter Anna left Saturday for Omaha to visit with relatives and friends for a week.
O. I. Martz of Omaha is now local manager for the Bell telephone, succeeding D. J. Echols, who resigned last week.

The event of the week was Stires millinery opening. Everybody was pleased with the artistic styles and moderate prices.
E. H. Chambers of this city has been elected as one of the jurors for the next term of federal court, which convenes in Omaha April 10.
A letter from J. E. North, who has been spending the winter in San Diego, Cal., says they expect to start for Nebraska in a few days.
Miss Freda Phillips, who is attending the public school in this city, left Saturday for her home at Belgrade to spend her spring vacation.
Last Saturday J. E. Whitcomb purchased Chalmers Shannon's interest in the firm of Whitcomb & Shannon in the Hagel bowling alleys, and is now the sole owner of the place.
Last Saturday evening a Columbus bowling team, composed of Galley, Whaley, Burrows, Brangan and Palmer, defeated a Schuyler team in that city, the score being 2,357 to 2,306.

Con Keating, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Mary's hospital two weeks ago, is now improving slowly. For a time his condition was such as to cause his friends much anxiety.
Miss Bertha Giar returned to Grunell Sunday noon, after spending several days with home folks, she being accompanied by her brother Carl, who will spend several days with friends.
A letter received by Robert Neumeister from his wife, who is at present in Sheboygan, Wis., said she is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia, contracted soon after she arrived there.
Tuesday of this week the work of preparing the ball grounds for the present season was commenced. This will be done under the supervision of Manager Corbett, who will see the grounds are in first class condition.
Will Zinnecker arrived last Friday evening from Fillmore county, where he has been farming for the last year or so. He will not return there, however, as he did not renew the lease on the farm, but will make his headquarters in this city.
Paul Hagel left Monday afternoon for Rochester, Minn., where he will undergo an operation at the famous Mayo Bros. hospital. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Eugene Tiffany, and Will Hall of Norfolk, who will remain with him.

Post Office Inspector Lindland was in the city last week gathering data for the establishment of the proposed additional city route. His work is along the line of looking up the location of sidewalks and street lights, these being among the important requirements asked for by the department.
While painting at the Meays home last Friday, J. O. Blodgett met with an accident that will lay him up for some time. The ladder on which he was working slipped and he fell to the ground, spraining his right wrist and breaking a bone in his left wrist. While not serious the break is quite painful, and he is carrying his arm in a bandage.
Last week Baggageman Elias at the Union Pacific issued an order for all hotel and transfer men who meet the trains to keep entirely off the station platform. Heretofore they have been in the habit of crowding up to the trains, and to remedy this they were instructed to keep close to the building. But they were soon back at the trains again, and the order for them to keep off the platform was the result.

Robert Herman Cockson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cockson of south of the river, died last Friday, aged five days. Funeral services were held Saturday at the Catholic church, and burial was in the parish cemetery.
Dan Lord, a former old-time resident of this vicinity, now living in Denver, was in the city a couple of days last week. Mr. Lord still retains interests in Nebraska, and came this trip to look after a shipment of sheep from his ranch near Fullerton.
Ex-Supervisor Peterson of Walker township, who has been at St. Mary's hospital for some time, was discharged from that institution Tuesday of this week. A few weeks ago the index finger on his left hand began to swell, and the doctor discovered that the bone was affected and that amputation was necessary. This was done, and he is now recovering from the effects of the operation and expects to return home this week.
A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Fleming last Thursday evening. At 8:30 o'clock Mr. Burton Mount and Mrs. Grace Fleming were married by Rev. William L. Dible. The beautiful Episcopal ring service was used. There was gathered a small company of friends who after congratulations were served light refreshments under the charge of Mrs. Drake. Mr. Mount is by trade a railroad bridge builder but will make his home in Columbus for at least this summer.
Last Tuesday evening, while Deputy Sheriff Mark Burke was returning to his hotel in Norfolk after taking an insane patient to the asylum, he discovered a Bohemian emigrant from Rushville, named Koutoc, who was the victim of an attempted holdup in the Northwestern yards at that place. The old man, who was unable to talk English, was on his way to the west, and had a considerable amount of money with him. His assailants hit him in the neck but were frightened away before the robbery could be committed. When Mr. Burke saw the old man he was in a dazed condition, with blood flowing freely from the wound. He was given medical aid and taken to Omaha, where the bullet was removed, and he is now recovering.

Tuesday evening about six o'clock Martin Burke and another hobo undertook to help themselves to some clothing and as a result Burke is in the county jail, while his partner is at large. They entered the store and the other man asked to look at some clothes, which were in the rear part of the building. Horatio Adams was waiting on him, and while thus engaged heard a noise in the front part of the store. Glancing into a mirror which gave him a view of the front portion of the store, he observed Burke taking a coat and vest, and at once started after him. Burke succeeded in getting out of the store and the police bell soon brought Chief Schack, who succeeded in arresting the fellow and he was lodged in the city jail. Wednesday morning he had his hearing before County Judge Batterman, and pleaded guilty, drawing a jail sentence of thirty days, every other day on bread and water.

Commercial Club Elect Officers.

Tuesday evening the Commercial club held their annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers, and also listening to the reports of the committees appointed to solicit funds enough to complete the amount required for building the roads between the city and the Platte river bridge.

The chairman of the soliciting committee not being present, a report was made by the three other members, and they reported subscriptions to the amount of $816.50, stating that there were quite a number whom they had not seen and that they could without doubt raise the required $1,000. This report was accepted and the committee continued until their work was completed.

When the reading of the minutes was completed, G. A. Schroeder asked that the report of the committee on paving be amended so as to include Lewis street from the south side of Fourteenth to the alley south of Eleventh street. After some discussion a motion was carried including Lewis street from the north side of Thirteenth to the alley south of Eleventh in the proposed paving district. The committee on paving was also given power to take the matter before the city council.

The club authorized the officers to confer with the county board and request them to make formal application for the government expert to build the proposed road to the Platte river bridge, as the amount of money required was practically assured. The committee first appointed on securing the government expert was instructed to see Mr. Sheldon and find out what the cost of securing the proper material would be, the necessary gumbo being located on his land, near the proposed road.

Eight directors were then elected for a term of three years, two from each ward, James Haney and W. J. Walter were elected in the First ward; Mr. Haney succeeding F. J. Kersenbrock, who has removed from the ward, and Mr. Walter succeeding himself. In the second ward the two directors whose terms expire, Jacob Griesen and S. J. Ryan, were re-elected. In the Third ward the present members, H. A. Clarke and C. J. Garlow, were also re-elected. In the Fourth ward there were three members to elect, one to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of S. B. Gregg. The vacancy was filled by the election of Matt Abts, and F. J. Gerhartz and G. A. Schroeder were selected; Mr. Schroeder succeeding H. L. Johnson, who had removed from the ward, and F. J. Gerhartz succeeding himself.

President Frischholz was authorized to select five delegates to attend the state meeting of commercial clubs at Kearney the latter part of April, and these will be announced later.

After the club adjourned the board of directors proceeded to elect officers for the following year, as follows: President, G. Frischholz; vice president, Carl Kramer, C. O. Gray, G. A. Schroeder; secretary, Eilert Mohlman; treasurer, G. W. Phillips. Before the adjournment of the club a motion was unanimously carried instructing the directors to re-elect President Frischholz and Secretary Mohlman, and this was carried out by the board.

Congregational Church.

Dante in his wandering in hell saw an entrance over which were these words, "All hope abandon ye who enter here." He asked Virgil what it meant. "It means the home of the soul to misery abandoned." Such, however, is not a normal soul. God has put in the soul universal the star of hope.

When the seven classic philosophers were holding a banquet together it was asked of them, "What is the most universal possession?" The possession agreed upon was hope, for said they, "He that hath nothing else has hope."

A crew of fifteen men once left a burning ship at mid-Pacific. They were thousands of miles from land. They had to leave the ship so hastily that they had not time to take oars, or sail, or any other tackle or gear with which to produce motion. They were only able to snatch away some food and water. They lived six weeks in that boat. The last twenty days they dreamed every night of feasting and awoke every morning to the same starving wail, vacant waters and desolate sky. Yet these men never lost hope for they perceived from the outset that their boat was in the current of an equatorial ocean, a current which those who knew the geography of the sea were aware would slowly but surely carry them at least to land, which it did. Sometimes the patience of hope in that way. No oar, and no sail; no strength and no light; for many days neither sun nor moon, no stars appearing, only the magnet of faith pointing steadily to the Rock of Ages. But we should never forget that the hope which God has put in the soul universal reaches up into a current that surely drifts Godward if we are only following its bearing.

The pastor of the Congregational church will discuss this subject next Sunday evening from the theme: The Man God Created and His Development—Man and His Immortal Hope. You will be helped by this sermon. The morning theme will be: Christ's Requirement. We invite you to share our church services with us.

Base Ball.

About a week or ten days ago the revised schedule for the state league was submitted to the various clubs, and last Saturday dailies contained the following regarding the result:

The proposed schedule of 112 games for each team in the Nebraska State league has been approved by a majority of the clubs in the league, and the official schedule will be sent out as soon as President Sievers can get it into printed shape.

Superior will open at Grand Island on May 12 for two games, Hastings at Kearney, York at Fremont, and Seward at Columbus. All other series throughout the season will be of three games. On the Fourth Grand Island will play at Kearney both morning and afternoon, Columbus at Fremont, York at Seward and Superior at Hastings. All receipts on this day will be pooled. There will be no "split" games on the national holiday, as was the case last year, the purpose being to save the traveling expense. The clubs will close the season as follows: Grand Island at Superior, Kearney at York, Columbus at Seward, and Fremont at Hastings. The Sunday games have been evenly distributed, to be played at the towns scheduled, if possible, or transferred or postponed, as the conditions may warrant.

Guns, ammunition, tents, also all kinds of repairing.—W. E. Rohrich, new location 1207 Platte street.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Watch the columns of this paper for the announcement of "The Whirl o' The Town." This is a home talent play, of sixty characters to be given in the North opera house in the later part of April.

Mr. Anderson took twelve of our boys to Monroe on Monday noon of this week to put on a zymastic entertainment in the gymnasium of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Beal is trying to arouse interest in the gym work and he asked the Columbus association to send some of its athletes to show what is being done in Columbus.

The program given for railroad men on last Friday evening was much appreciated. A good number of the men and their families were present and enjoyed even the splashing they received in the swimming pool. These monthly exhibits are showing a steady development on the part of the fellows who take part and a very decided improvement in athletic ability is noted in all the classes.

Our boys at Monroe carried off high honors on Monday evening of this week. An enthusiastic audience greeted and cheered each successive event as the best on the program. The opera house was used and it was crowded to the full. The program started with a marching drill in which they formed the association emblem, the Y. M. C. A. letters, and closed with the cross formation. The duaneb drill was followed by the pyramid building in one of which the ceiling was reached. Following the diving came a talk by Rev. Wedge of Genoa in which he spoke of the ideals of the association represented by the boys and inviting the boys to Genoa for a similar performance. The 100 pound wrestlers carried the house by storm but the 60 pound men caused the audience to fairly raise the roof. The clown boxing event was very amusing and was fully appreciated. In the tumbling the work of Leonard Linstrum was especially well received. The program was closed by the torch club swinging by Mr. Anderson and all decided it to be a first class evenings entertainment. This is one of the ways in which the Columbus association can be of service to the surrounding towns.

The City Council.

Besides opening the bids for the new chemical truck at the special meeting Friday evening the city council also received the report of the committee on fire, which included the annual report made by the chief of the fire department. One of the important matters considered was the installation of a fire alarm system in place of the present one, and this will be taken up and investigated by the committee and a report made covering what can be utilized here. The re-districting of the city for fire districts, which was also recommended by the chief, was endorsed and early action will be taken on this. The number of districts will be increased to either eight or ten, and this will make it much easier for the firemen to locate a fire. Another meeting was held Monday evening to further consider the bids on the chemical truck, and also to prepare for the report of the committee which goes to Omaha in a few days to witness the test of the new chemical truck recently purchased by that city.

The following judges and clerks for the spring election, Tuesday, April 4, were named by the council:

First Ward—Judges, T. S. Jaworski, Robert Hirschbrunner, G. Frischholz, clerks, M. C. Calto, Earl Galley.

Second Ward—Judges, Chas. Micko, Mike Wisenfluh, Ed Branigan; clerks, Adolph Luers, Isaac Brock.

Third Ward—Judges, Geo. Willard, C. M. Elston, Frank VanAlstine; clerks, J. R. Mengher, Walter Novell.

Fourth Ward—Judges, F. J. Gregor, Bazil Gietzen, J. A. Turner; clerks, A. J. Kryzcki, D. D. Boyd.

Methodist Church Notes.

Our services begin on Sunday at 11 o'clock and the subject for the meeting is, "Companionship in God's Work." Sunday school at noon. The evening meetings are changed to a later hour as follows: The Epworth league will meet at 7 p. m., and the leader is Miss Sadie Cover. Evening theme is, "The Departed Gods." Special music to our public meetings.
