WOULD CAUSE NO SURPRISE

Recognizes Seriousness of Situation and May Respond to Wishes of the Masses.

Mexico City.—The resignation of Porfirio Diaz as president of Mexico within a short time is regarded here as a certainty.

No authoritative confirmation could be obtained, but there appears little doubt that President Diaz, recognizing the seriousness of the situation and responding to the popular demand, will retire when order is restored.

At the president's office no statement could be had and the cabinet, realizing that he was the only man who could give a direct answer to the demands of Francisco I. Madero, the revolutionary leader, that Diaz should publish his intention to resign, were silent.

Friday afternoon Minister of Foreign Affairs de Barra was peremptorily summoned to the office of the president. On arriving he found Senor Limantour, minister of finance, who likewise had been summoned.

Immediately afterwards typewritten statements were issued by the foreign office to all newspapers saying the reception to the Chilean minister and the banquet to him had been postponed until May 12.

Since the statement was issued General Diaz is known to have been out riding in his automobile. This morning he apparently was in his usual health.

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives.

One woman in a hundred is prepared for the time of childbirth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed childbirth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty.

In many homes once children there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

CURE THAT CATARRH. Our climate with its sudden changes is conducive to catarrh—which is a chronic inflammation of the mucous membrane surface of head—nose or throat.

One month's local treatment with Paxtine Tissue Antiseptic will convince the most skeptical that Paxtine is not a palliative but a specific for all catarrhal conditions.

Paxtine is a perfectly harmless antiseptic and germicide in powder form which contains all of the antiseptic qualities of liquid antiseptics, but with other valuable cleansing, germicidal, and healing ingredients added.

Just a little in a glass of water as needed—used as a spray and gargle, will not only remove the accumulated secretions, but heals the inflammation, destroys the germs of disease, and dispels the disagreeable odor caused by chronic catarrh.
