Eagles Loose In Town.

They're here, everywhere, all over town; none in rags, none in tags, but all in handsome gowns. The city is in her gala attire this week to do honor to the state aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, which has assembled here for their annual convention, which began yesterday and lasts three days, ending tomorrow evening with a big banquet.

All the visiting Eagles, numbering about seventy delegates from every part of the state, express themselves as being well pleased with the entertainment that is being put up for their benefit by the local aerie, and the local committee and members have spared no work or expense to make the week a pleasant and profitable one for all concerned.

Aside from the regular convention business sessions the management has secured the services of the Nat Reiss Carnival Company, which is providing amusement for the crowds and which was brought here under the auspices of the local aerie.

One of the most interesting numbers of the entire program is scheduled to take place this evening at which time a competitive drill will be put on by the teams from a number of visiting aeries. These drills are to be of high class, the first prize being $150 and the second of $75.

Tomorrow the election of officers for the ensuing term will take place. Mrs. A. M. Covert and daughter. We do not know enough about the Miss Clara, expect to leave Sunday politics of the order to know whether
