

1800 PAIRS WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S FINE HOSIERY

Special Sale of Hosiery on First Floor at 17 cents, 29 cents and 50 cents

THERE is one well-known house in this country which is the largest importer and dealer in fine hosiery perhaps in the world—certainly in this country. They have hundreds of salesmen all over the United States. The samples they carry amount to from 15,000 to 18,000 pairs. We have bought our selection, amounting to about 1,800 pairs, at prices which we think you will agree with us have rarely been equalled except in these sales which we have held each six months for many seasons and almost every pair in the lot worth at least twice the price we ask, and many of them more. They are all reasonable goods.

LOT 1.

17c

Women's plain cotton lisle, in medium, light and heavy weights, medium and light weight silk lisle, split gait in medium and light weight, outside cotton and lisle, black lisle with lace ankle in a large range of patterns, plain colored silk lisle, black and tan lace ankle embroidered. All 25c to 35c stockings, many in the lot worth more, at 17c.

LOT 2.

29c

Women's finest qualities in plain black lisle and silk lisle in medium and light weight, black and tans with the newest embroideries. These are embroidered in self and colors. Also in this lot are a quantity of fine imported spun silk hose in black and colors. Regularly 50c at 29c.

LOT 3.

50c

Women's fine black lisle embroidered in self and colored embroideries. A collection of hand-embroidered patterns entirely new. Also a few spun silks, with colored embroideries and a small lot of pure thread colored silks, $1.00 stockings at 50c. Children's and Misses lisle hose and heavy cotton hose for boys. All 25c hose at 15c.

Sale Begins Friday July 28, Continues three Days

GRAY'S

Columbus Markets.

The following poultry market is reported on July 26, 1911. Prices subject to change:

Hens, per lb.	8
Old Roosters.	3
Spring Chickens, per lb.	12
Butter, per lb.	14-20
Eggs, per dozen.	11
Potatoes.	1.50

STOCK AND GRAIN MARKET

Wheat, per bu.	72
White corn, per bu.	52
Yellow and mixed corn.	52
Oats, per bu.	34
Rye.	65
Hogs, per 100 lbs.	$5.85-$5.95

Think of It.

Notice.

On account of recent development I hereby withdraw my recent offer of sale of stock in the Magnolia Consolidated Gold Mines Company, Boulder Co., Colo. Albert W. Lutz.

THE SIGN OF WISDOM

is a savings bank book. The man or woman who is wise enough to save now will be sure of comfort in years to come.

BE WISE

Open an account with the Home Savings Bank. Even if you only have one dollar it will be enough to start. Once you begin you will find it easy to keep on saving. The more you save the larger the interest at the end of the year.

HOME SAVINGS BANK

G. W. PHILLIPS, Cashier
Open Saturdays till eight p. m.

The officers of the library board filed their report for the year ending June 1, of which the following is a summary:

Books on hand June 1, 1910.	2502
Books bought since.	156
Books lost.	2658
Books worn out.	10
Books worn out.	15
Bound volumes of magazines.	2633
Patrons of library.	2,933
Total number loans.	1,371
Paid for books.	$188.94
Papers and magazines.	44.10
Other expenses.	884.04
Total expense.	$1,117.28

The report also shows the total number of loans for each month, February having the largest number, 1,143, and June the smallest number, 572.

Duncan.

August Fickel went to Columbus last Thursday.
Chas. Woods, of St. Edwards, was in Duncan last Friday.
Frank Sokol went to Silver Creek last Wednesday.
August Fickel went to Osceola last Friday.
Ed Zybach is having two of his cars painted up this week.
Mrs. Borowiak, of Norfolk, is here this week visiting her parents and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kozlowski.
Frank Powell went to Columbus last Friday on business.
Doc Johnson, of Osceola, was in Duncan last Friday.
Duncan was visited by another fine rain Saturday night.
Henry Blausser's boy has been very ill the past week.
Mrs. Alica Webb, Mrs. Jennie Parrott and children and Miss Lue Hunter, of St. Edwards, visited with Mrs. C. A. Gibson a few days this week.
John Sokol and family went to Silver Creek Sunday.
Clear Creek ball team came to Duncan Sunday to trim the Duncan team, but they got left to the tune of 21 to 8. A large crowd was present.

John Engel, Jr., and Harry Schneider went to Columbus Sunday to take in the ball game.

Chas. Sokol, of Silver Creek, was in Duncan Sunday evening.

Miss Josie Sturck and several lady friends of Columbus were in Duncan Sunday evening attending the dance.

Fred Gibson went to Columbus Monday.

Several auto loads from Columbus went through Duncan Monday on their way to Silver Creek to the ball game.

H. Robinson, of Columbus, and George Williams and Harry McCoual, of Albion, were in Duncan Monday on business.

District 44

A nice little shower Saturday night, probably .17 of an inch.

John Dischner and Art McGann each had hogs on the market the first of the week.

Will Rickley was in this vicinity Monday looking for bargains in young pigs.

S. P. Drinnin and children visited Sunday afternoon at home farm.

Gertie and Loretta McGann spent Sunday with the Misses Johns on the Luckey farm.

Charlie Galley and wife were callers Sunday at the home of Ben Fix. Grace Drinnin and sister, Marguerite, were visitors the first of the week at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Henry Yonki, in Richland.

Mamie Sheedy and sisters have installed a fine new piano in their home, and now we may sit on our own door-step and hear the sweet strains of music as "it hath charms."

Mrs. Henry Yonki and Grandma Yonki visited Tuesday at home farm. Otto and Matilda Mueller, Mike and Nellie Johnson were guests Sunday evening at the McGann home.

Ye scribe returned home Saturday from St. Mary's Hospital, where he went some weeks ago for an operation. They tell us we were a pretty sick chap after being on the operating table for three hours, but now we feel somewhat like a colt again, thanks to the medical science and good care of the never-tiring nurses.

We can't remember of a July being so dry. The new swarm of bees that came in May and June will surely suffer unless they are fed.

Robert Cresap and his bride paid a visit to George Drinnin at home farm Sunday. They were accompanied by Miss Nina Cresap and their uncle, W. R. Price. Mr. and Mrs. Cresap will be at home after August 15th at New London, Iowa, where the groom has a good position teaching school, and "may their lives be as one continuous honeymoon."

Cedar Chips.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Bonner and little son left Monday morning for their home in Kingston, Ontario, after a months visit with Dr. Bonner's parents at the Cedars. Mrs. Bonner having so far recovered from her recent operation as to be able to travel. Dr. Bonner has been elected to a chair in Queen's college, Kingston, for the next two years.

Miss Rose Martensen and brother Arthur will attend the Frontier day celebration in Osceola Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Miss Cellia Rinesmith was the guest of the Misses Boner a couple of days last week.

Miss Gladys Eastman entertained a number of her young friends last Friday afternoon. The occasion being her thirteenth birthday.

L. D. Johnson and family came down from Lindsay last week and visited with Duncan Hensel and family a few days.

Wallace Goodrich, who has been in the employ of J. J. Barnes, will leave the last of this week for California. He will be succeeded in the fields by Paul Dickey, of Columbus.

Mr. Peltor, who was laid up for some time with a sore foot, is again able to be at work.

The Brien boys are at work putting up hay on the Newman meadow.

The Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Bonner last Thursday and quilted a good sized quilt.

Mata and Fred Umethrich went to their home near Cayuga Sunday, taking their cousin, Evaline Houser, with them for a visit.

Miss Madge Moore visited with Miss Ursula Wade a few days last week.

Miss Anna Bonner is visiting in Duncan this week with Mrs. Woodling.

William Hauser goes on crutches at present, having severely strained a limb.

There will be preaching the first

Sunday in August, which will probably be Rev. Dibble's last services, as he has resigned his pastorate in Columbus and will leave soon.

Richland.

July yet, cool and not wet.

Emil Heldt had a load of hogs on the Richland market last Wednesday.

Mrs. Will Kluck was a guest of Mrs. Fritz Settgast Wednesday.

Charles Gertch, of Shell Creek, was in our village Wednesday.

J. D. Reynolds, of Fremont, canvassed these parts the past week in the interest of the S. F. Baker Medicine Co.

Wm. Brocklesby has erected a new four-post steel wind mill.

The families of C. J. Wertz and H. Yonkie are afflicted with the new disease going around called "summer grip."

Adolph Kluck and wife, of Shell Creek, visited with relatives here over Sunday.

Ernest Luschi accidentally drove one wheel off the Hord elevator approach and lost about ten bushels of fine wheat last Saturday.

Ed Yonkie and wife visited with Pete Swanson and wife Sunday.

Henry Engle had a lively runaway Friday night, while passing a moving steam threshing outfit. A bruised foot and broken buggy tongue are the results.

Miss Katie Kruger has been visiting among her kith and kin here the past week.

A tumble out of the end of his wagon while unloading sand last Friday caused Fred Kluck to receive two broken ribs on his right side, which will lay him up for several weeks.

The ladies of the M. E. church here will serve ice cream and cake this Wednesday evening on the church lawn, and for ten cents you have a chance to fish from a well filled "pond." Come, come all and help the good cause along.

The material is being placed on the ground in District 23 for the new school house. A. Blust, of our city, has the contract and work will commence soon.

Miss Ethel Stevenson is reported much improved but will enter the hospital at Columbus for treatment soon.

Clint Stevenson and wife were Columbus guests Saturday.

The ladies are envying our good neighbor, Mrs. Pete Swanson, as she is enjoying that delicious fruit, the ripe tomato, from her own garden. They are of the "Earliest of the World" variety, and were not irrigated, either.

Schuyler is advertising a big three-day celebration at the opening of the new steel Platte River bridge August 3, 4, and 5. A picnic dinner will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday, August 3, at the north end of the bridge. Everybody invited.

We have just received word that our young friend, Robert Cresap, nephew of Will Price and wife, had taken unto himself a wife from one of our southern cities. Here's congratulations and best wishes for a future full of unalloyed happiness, peace and prosperity.

FOR SALE--8000 ACRES

OF THE CELEBRATED

T. B. Hord Cattle Feeding Farm

SITUATED IN THE FAMOUS PLATTE VALLEY, NEAR CENTRAL CITY, IN MERRICK COUNTY, NEBRASKA

This land lies on the main line of the Union Pacific railroad, within a short distance of Central City.

T. B. Hord was known all over the country as an exceptionally shrewd man and one of the best judges of land in the state, and he selected these lands when he had his own choice, believing they were the best. Please do not forget that nearly every acre of this land is virgin soil that has been used for meadow and pasture and has been fertilized for twenty to thirty years with thousands of cattle that have been grazed and fed there.

This land has been placed in the hands of the PAYNE INVESTMENT COMPANY, of Omaha, by the administrators of the T. B. Hord estate to be closed out immediately and will be sold on the most remarkable terms ever offered in this country. It is offered at from $25 to $50 per acre less than the surrounding farms can be purchased. For further particulars in regard to this sale see me.

CHAS. L. DICKEY

Real Estate and Insurance

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA

Groceries

Country butter that is fresh
Eggs that are tested and reliable
Ferndell Canned Goods, finest flavor

— VEGETABLES —

kept fresh and wholesome under a constant spray are a few of the reasons why our store is patronized by particular people who want only the best in the grocery line

E. N. WAIDE

The Eleventh Street Grocer

COLUMBUS

NEBRASKA