

Cost of Guarantee of Deposits

The cost to the State Banks for the Depositors Guarantee Fund is very great. The protection afforded, costs you nothing. Secure this protection by depositing your money with this Bank.

Columbus State Bank

Fred Moore, of Schuyler, spent Sunday with Fred Schmecker.

Miss Emig, of Omaha is a guest of Mrs. G. B. Speice this week.

Ray Hart, of Central City, spent Monday with friends in the city.

Hugh Bell, of, Shenandoah, Iowa, is spending the week at the home of W. A. McAllister.

Fred Strother returned Tuesday from Monroe, where he had been visiting his brother Kenneth.

Mrs. C. E. Pollock left Saturday for Denver for a visit of several weeks with relatives.

Miss Madge Harris left Tuesday for Omaha where she will visit friends for a few days.

Miss Jennette Johnson is entertaining a little friend this week, Miss Alice Barne, of Omaha.

Mr. Clarke, of York, and Mrs. Chaff, of Bellevue, spent Sunday at the H. A. Clarke home.

Misses Ruth Clark and Belle Newman will leave Saturday for a visit with friends at St. Edward.

Mrs. C. W. Wooley accompanied by Misses Miller and Kell, of Norfolk, auto'd to Schuyler Tuesday.

Miss Alice Lyons, who has been spending the week with friends at Humphrey returned Sunday evening.

Rev. Meissler went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend a meeting of the mission board of which he is a member.

Miss Velma Covert returned Monday from Fullerton, where she had been visiting friends and attending the Chautauqua.

Miss Mollie Richards who has been visiting at the home of her brother D. B. Richards, returned to her home in Fremont Tuesday.

Miss Ella Smith returned Friday from a visit of six weeks with friends and relatives at Wagner, South Dakota, and at Bristow, Nebraska.

Miss Myrtle Olson, who has been the guest of Miss Ruth Clark for several days, returned to her home in St. Edward Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Jaeggi entertained a few friends at a Lyric party Monday evening in honor of Misses Peggy Carsten and Zee McCorkle, of Albion.

Miss Ellen Leisy, who has been on a home-stead near Ellsworth since March, returned Tuesday and will make Columbus her home in the future.

Mrs. J. B. Geitzen, is expected home from the west Thursday evening, after a three months visit with friends and relatives in Washington and California.

FOR SALE—Six room house in fine condition 1521 Sixteenth Street On account of moving away property will be sold very cheap. Mrs. C. J. Crozier.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Timm, of Osceola, accompanied by Mrs. John Jennings and Mrs. Frank Kersonbrock auto'd to Creston Saturday to visit their sister Mrs. W. Jackson.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

Columbus friends of the contracting parties were much surprised to read in the Lincoln papers today an account of the marriage of Robert F. Stewart, of North Platte, to Miss Fannie Geer, of this city. The bride needs no introduction to the people here, as she has lived here for many years, having been city librarian for the past eleven years. The groom was for two years a plumber in the employ of Dussel & Son, and has many friends here. The following account of the marriage is taken from the Lincoln Journal: Miss Fannie A. Geer of Columbus and Robert F. Stewart of North Platte were married last evening at 8:30 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Heater 2342 Garfield street, Rev. Rudolph Caughey of the Westminister Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few friends were present. Mrs. Heater served refreshments following the ceremony. Mr. Stewart is a merchant at North Platte, where they will go at once to make their home. Mrs. Stewart has for eleven years been the city librarian at Columbus and has lived practically all her life in that city. Her father was one of the well known attorneys of the state before his death.

WINTER IS COMING
and along with it you will want COAL for your comfort. See us about it and you will have SOME MONEY LEFT
after your coal is bought. Coal of all kinds for range, furnace or heater.

T. B. Hord Grain Co.
PHONES: Independent 206
Bell 188

100 feet of new garden hose for sale cheap. Call at this office.

Miss Carrie Merz spent Sunday in Fremont, the guest of relatives.

Miss Abbie Grady, of Schuyler, was visiting Columbus friends Monday.

Mrs. Wood Smith returned from a ten day's visit with relatives at Fullerton.

Miss Hattie Seehaus, of Schuyler, spent Sunday in Columbus the guest of friends.

Miss Nelle Sullivan, of Platte Center, spent Sunday with Mrs. Alice Sullivan.

Miss Ethel Baker will leave today for an extended visit with friends in Omaha.

Ralph Boyd, of Norfolk, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Boyd.

Mrs. Sarah Brindley, of Kearney, arrived Sunday for a visit with Mrs. O. L. Baker.

Miss Fannie Britell, of Wayne, will arrive Friday to spend a few days with friends here.

Mrs. Will Kaufman will entertain the afternoon Five Hundred club Friday afternoon.

J. Ebner and Will Gruenther left left Tuesday for a stay of several days at St. Edward.

Misses Lulu Lucke and Vinta Nash will go to Omaha Sunday to spend the day with friends.

Mrs. William Newman is entertaining her brother Mr. Bisson, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Miss Elsie Jaeggi entertained Misses Alma and Emma Carsten, of Albion, the last of the week.

Miss Marguerite McKelvey spent Sunday with friend in Fullerton and also attended the Chautauqua.

Rev. C. W. Ray was called to Norfolk Saturday to conduct funeral services for a former parishioner, Mrs. Nelson.

Miss Nancy Smith who has been visiting Miss Rose Leavy for several days, returned to her home in Burwell Tuesday.

Miss Neta Worden went to Schuyler Tuesday to visit Miss Nola Robinson and to attend the institute, which is in session there.

Misses Bertha and Caroline Miller are expected home the last of the week from a two weeks visit with friends at Calmar, Iowa.

Mrs. Alfred Palm and children, of Norfolk will arrive the last of the week for an extended visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Boyd.

Mrs. Homer Saunders and baby, of Eedgemont South Dakota, arrived the first of the week for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Julia Rasmusen.

Miss Elsie Jaeggi, accompanied by her guests Misses Zee McCorkle and Peggy Carsten, of Albion, spent the week end in Omaha the guests of Miss Rose Walker.

C. C. Gray left Tuesday for Colorado Springs, Colorado to spend a few days with Mrs. Gray and Miss Geraldine, who have been at the Springs several weeks.

Miss Elsie Jaeggi entertained two sorry sisters, Misses Zee McCorkle and Peggy Carsten, of Albion this week, the young ladies returning to their homes Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Strother returned Monday from a six weeks tour of the west, spending some time at the home of her brother Fred Naylor at Stockton, and with friends at Los Angeles.

Miss Clara Howard, of Lincoln, has been appointed city librarian to succeed Miss Fannie Geer, who has resigned. During the past five years Miss Howard has been librarian at Havelock.

Get your meals at the new Eagle Cafe. W. E. Eahart, proprietor.

List your farm and town property with Chas. L. Dickey, State Bank Building.

Judge Post leaves this afternoon for a business visit to Chicago. He will be absent several days.

Refreshments will be served in connection with the public dance at Orpheus hall next Tuesday evening. Don't forget it.

Joseph Mostek drew a fine of ten dollars and costs in police court this week on a charge of procuring liquor for his father, who had been for bidden to indulge.

On complaint of Maude Crist, Dewey Hatcher was brought into police court Monday on a charge of using bad language toward her children. The evidence showed that one of her daughters had struck the Hatcher boy with a fire shovel on the shoulder. J. T. Crist addressed the court and did so in language that the court thought was worth about ten dollars for contempt. This fine was later remitted, and the case against the boy deferred.

As a result of the primary last week, former county Judge Robinson, of Humphrey, was nominated as the republican candidate for the same office. Judge Robinson was one of the regular democratic candidates for the nomination, but failed to receive the nomination, and received that of the republicans instead and has filed an acceptance. The republicans also nominated Gideon Braun of Loup township, for county superintendent, and he has filed an acceptance for that office. The vote for clerk of the district court was a tie between C. M. Gruenther and E. H. Taffny, each receiving 81 votes, the tie being later settled by lot, Mr. Gruenther winning the nomination. He has not yet filed an acceptance.

Not all the candidates for the nominations for the various offices at the recent primary have filed their expense account statements as yet. John Graf, in his race for county clerk, was high man in the matter of expenditures, his statement showing that it cost him $79.50 to get the nomination and he was followed closely by Shell Clark, who spent $77.65 to get to be second man in the run for county treasurer, while Adolph Luers admits that he spent $75.50 in his campaign. Judge Hensley spent $43.75, not including three items of printing, the amounts of which are not yet filled in. Otto Heuer swears it cost him just $52.67 to be nominated for treasurer, while Louis Schwarz spent $58.05 and W. F. Dodds $17.00 in making a vain chase after the same prize. Louis Hled is out $52.07 as a result of his campaign for clerk of the district court, and Judge Thomas spent $10.10 to get on the ticket for judge of the same court. Judge Robinson disposed of $60.11 in his effort, while F. S. Lecron, who had no opposition for the nomination for superintendent, opened his heart and his pocket-book to the extent of $41.00. Gideon Braun was compelled by law to pay up his filing fee of five dollars to get on the republican ticket for superintendent, and that was all he spent. The same statements are made and sworn to by Supervisors Smith and Schure, who are candidates for re-election. Judge Albert spent $79.00 in the campaign for judge of the supreme court.

William Heuer was a Fremont visitor last Sunday.

Arthur Linstrum spent Sunday with friends at Milford.

Willis Summers, of Malvern, Iowa, has been visiting friends here this week.

Arthur Wolf and family of Humphrey are spending the week at the home of David Thomas.

Mrs. Jacob Glur is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Ernst, at Duncan.

Miss Ida Darlow, of Omaha will arrive today to be the guest of Miss Mary Howard for a few days.

Mrs. L. H. Leavy and daughter Miss Rose went to Omaha Tuesday evening for a several day stay.

Mrs. Odella Patsch who had been a patient at the hospital for several weeks returned to her home Wednesday.

Miss Anna Boettcher who has been a patient at St. Mary's hospital for the past four weeks, returned to her home last Friday.

J. W. Putnam and family were Omaha visitors last week. They were accompanied home by Mrs. J. T. Dolan, who had also been visiting in the metropolis.

Henry H. Jones, of Winside, was in the city Saturday afternoon between trains on his way to Denver. While here he was a guest of his sister Mrs. W. M. Mason.

M. S. Binney spent Sunday in Fullerton visiting his parents and attending the Chautauqua. Enroute he stopped in Grand Island on a business trip, returning Monday.

Chris Wunderlich made a flying trip to Denver last week, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lang, of Chicago, who had been guests at the Wunderlich home for several days.

Isaiah Lightner and Mrs. Charles Lightner, of Monroe, were in the city Saturday evening on their way home from Richmond, Indiana, where they had been attending a gathering of Friends for the past ten days.

John Sweeney, formerly of Lindsay, but who for the past three months has been living at Mitchell, was brought to the city Saturday to enter the hospital for an operation for appendicitis. He is a very sick man, but his family and friends hope for his early and complete recovery.

C. E. Pollock is now president of the state base ball league. President Sievers left last week for a sojourn of several weeks in California, and before leaving called the board of directors to elect a president to take his place, and Mr. Pollock was chosen. The offices of the state league will not be taken from Grand Island for the remainder of the season.

Eugene Condon, a former Columbus business man was married at Denver Tuesday evening of last week, to Miss Maud E. Orr, of that city. That is the story told in announcements received by friends of the groom living here. Mr. Condon at one time conducted a stationery store here in company with his sister, Mrs. Jennie Walker. The happy couple will make their home in Denver.

About two hundred people witnessed the ball game between the local nests of the Owls and the Eagles down at the lot last Sunday. Both sides had picked some of the very best players in their respective organizations. Albert Ernst and Steve Douglas did the twirling for the Owls with Everett Benson behind the bat while the Eagles' battery consisted of Dolan and Gates, and Stovick. At the beginning of the ninth inning, the score was a tie with twelve runs each. The Eagles drew a blank and the night birds followed with a deciding score by Taylor. A game will probably be arranged for next Sunday between the Owls and the railroad men.

Ed. J. Niewohner
Jeweler
Columbus
Neb.

I have just received a quantity of 20 year Boss Gold

Filled Watches

in small 12 gentleman size. They come in either open face or hunting style. The movement is the nickle, seven jewels. Will run and keep good time a lifetime.

Reliable Dueber

The Price $10.00

Ed. J. Niewohner
Jeweler and Optometrist

Ours is a Complete Line

Steam and Furnace COAL

Now is the Time to Provide for the Coming Winter

BECAUSE Coal is cheaper at this time of year. You can get better service in handling now than when the rush is on.

COME IN AND TALK IT OVER

Geo. A. Hoagland Co.

Richard Goehring, Mgr.
COLUMBUS NEBRASKA

Mrs. J. E. Peterson and daughter Vergie, spent Sunday with relatives at Silver Creek. They were accompanied home by Miss Ruth Berger.

Theodore Friedhof Sr., Miss Friedhof, Theodore Friedhof jr. and Edgar Uilde auto'd to Lincoln Tuesday. Mr. Uilde will continue his journey from there to his home in Mexico City.

Miss Luin Talbot, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. Mullholland, for the past week will leave this afternoon for her home in Wood River. Mrs. Mullholland and children will accompany her home for several weeks stay.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following this week Fred W. Laun and Miss Anna Laun, of Platte Center, James Hugh and Miss Hanna Lambrecht, of Schuyler and Wm. L. Chenoweth and Miss Ruby Rickley of Columbus.

Sophia Stach has commenced action in district court against her husband John Stach, involving the title of certain real estate. She alleges that at the time of their marriage about three years ago, she was possessed of this real estate and some personal property and money, but that her husband has appropriated her property and used it in the purchase of other real estate. She asks for the property to be accounted for and that she be given a permanent alimony. The parties live near Cornlea.

Sheriff Lachnit and County Physician Neumarker were called to Monroe last evening in response to a message announcing the sudden death of a Mr. Johnson. The sheriff was called in the absence of coroner Gass from the county. The physician made an examination of the body and decided that he had come to his death through a stroke of apoplexy, and on his recommendation an inquest was not deemed necessary. Mr. Johnson had lived in the Monroe neighborhood for several years and leaves a family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow are now back from their trip in the west. Mr. Snow arrived here just in time to see the circus parade come marching down the street last Tuesday, while Mrs. Snow remained for a few days to visit relatives in Colorado, arriving in Columbus later in the week. Mr. Snow says in speaking of their trip that they did not find just what they wanted in the west. It will be remembered that when they left here they had in mind one or two business propositions, which they might take up, but they have decided not to accept either one. He says he likes southern California much better than he does the far north west, but for the present will not locate anywhere.

Mrs. W. H. King last week entertained her sisters, Mrs. Robert Bowman, Mrs. N. W. Huston and Miss Ella Wing at her home. Miss Wing left Saturday for Glenwood, Iowa, where she is this week delivering a series of twelve lectures before the teachers of Mills county. From there she will go to Cornub, Iowa, to address the woman's club, and will then return to her home at Tipton, Iowa where she has taught manual training in the schools for the past six years. Mrs. Bowman will leave in a few days for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where she will join her husband, who has his headquarters there. Mrs. Huston left yesterday for her home in Manhattan, Kansas, where she is engaged with her husband in the publication of the Manhattan Nationalist. She is a practical newspaper woman, and a member of the Kansas Woman's Press Club. She has any friends here who knew her before her marriage.

Tuesday at high noon at the home of the bride's father William J. Rickley occurred the marriage of Miss Ruby Ray Rickley to William L. Chenoweth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Harkness, pastor of the Presbyterian church and was witnessed only by the immediate relatives and close friends. At the sweet strains of the Mendelsohn wedding march played by Miss Eulalia Rickley, the bride and groom took their places before a bower of ferns and American Beauty roses. They were preceded by Ralph Rickley, of Omaha, a nephew of the bride, who carried the ring in an American Beauty rose. The bride wore a white batist, embroidered gown and carried a shower bouquet of the bride's roses. Mrs. Chenoweth is the youngest daughter of William J. Rickley and is a Columbus girl in every sense of the word. Having been born in Columbus, a graduate of its high school and having taught ten years in its public schools. Mr. Chenoweth is one of Columbus' popular business men, for several years manager of the dry-goods department of Gray's department store. Mr. and Mrs. Chenoweth left on an afternoon train for a several weeks trip to Buffalo, and Niagara, then down the Hudson to New York City. After October 15 they will be at home to their many friends at 320 West T-nth street. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Rickley and sons, of Omaha, Miss Courtney Dale, of Omaha, Mr. Chenoweth, of Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Avery, of Texas.

Blackberry—

A Good Old Remedy
We want just three minutes of your time when you are again troubled with Cholera, Diarrhoea or any bowel complaint.

We will give you one dose of Nyal's Blackberry Carminative, free—you will be so well pleased with the result that you will return for a bottle of it. You will want to keep it in your home.

Nyal's Blackberry Carminative—

It is the quickest and surest relief for bowel disorders we know of.

Allays irritation—cleanses the bowels before they are checked and acts as an antiseptic. It is moderate in its action—being only slightly astringent it does not go to extremes—it acts just right in every way.

You can give it to the little ones with perfect safety—it is all good and good for you all and that's why it should be in your home.