Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Every business man ought to attend the business men's gymnasium classes at the Y. M. C. A. The first class will start October 16, at five o'clock. Each business man ought to make it a point to start when the first class starts, and attend regularly. Classes will meet on Monday Wednesday and Friday evenings at five o'clock. Look over the schedule and plan to enroll in some class.

The senior class will meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8:15. All members holding full membership are entitled the privileges of this class.

The intermediate class will meet at 7:15, on Monday and Wednesday evenings, and at 7:30 on Saturday evenings. All boys holding $8.00 memberships are entitled to the privileges of this class.

The schedule for these classes include all kinds of gymnasium work, indoor baseball, basket ball, valley ball and a number of the good games. Special work can be arranged for swimming, wrestling an special apparatus work etc.

As the winter months approach, plans for the activity along all lines are being made. The first number of the entertainment course comes next week, and the social and physical features will soon be in full swing.

The bowling alleys, with new paint and finishing, will be ready next week. The boys' and men's Bible classes will be conducted on much the same lines as last year. Drop in some evening and see if you cannot be interested.

M. N. A. Wins on a Fake.

On a plowed an uneven field the Columbus high school lost to Nebraska Military Academy at Lincoln in the last three minutes of play. The game was won on a fake forward pass and goal was kicked, making the score 6 to 0. It was no disgrace to be beaten this way, for if luck had not broken against them, the home boys would have tied the score and maybe won the game.

Sidney Collins, Nebraska Military's coach, who for three years were the Scarlet and Cream at the State University, and was known all over the west as the best center in the Missouri valley, if not in the middle west, admitted that his team was outplayed by the home boys. He said in part, "We won not because of superiority of team, but because of an injury to one of our opponents. The score that would have more nearly shown the comparative standing of the two teams would have been 20. Without a doubt you are a stronger team than David City." A return game was refused.

Columbus won the toss and N. M. A. kicked off to Rector, who returned ten yards. A punting duel, mixed the forward passes and other open plays was kept up during the first quarter, which ended with the ball in their 35-yard line. The second quarter, and in fact the whole game, was largely a punting duel, and Colton had a small shade the better of it. Schmoeker tore off some good gains, he making ten yards at a time on several occasions. The half ended with the ball on their 10-yard line.

To start the second half, Colton kicked to N. M. A. The quarter ended with the ball in Columbus' possession on their 25-yard line. The last quarter was a repetition of the others. N. M. A. finally recovered a punt on Columbus' 25-yard line. Then the line twice and then Weller scored the only touchdown of the game on a fake forward pass. Goal was kicked.

There were only three minutes left to play. Colton kicked off to them and the half ended with the ball on their 30-yard line.

Columbus made their downs more times than N. M. A. did. The game was marred by the slugging of the Military boys' 270-pound center. Late in the game he hit Cady on the eye and the big fellow retired in favor of Kinsman, Cassin going to right tackle.

Columbus' ground gainers were Schmoeker, Kaufmann and Kinsman. Kaufmann played a star game and Lincoln spectators say there is not a better high school player in the state. He broke through the line on a tackle and ran forty yards to within ten yards of their goal, where he tripped on the uneven ground and lost the chance for a touchdown. He made several big gains. He and Kinsman both tore off good gains. Schmoeker was the best ground-gainer among the back-field, and was used to good advantage on tackle smashes.

Colton ran the team well. The home guards were hammered at in vain, and Cady, too, deserves credit for his clean game. The home boys were out-weighted ten or more pounds to the man and little Jake Gurl looked like an ant among a bunch of elephants.

This Saturday the boys go to Beatrice and there play Beatrice high school. It is one of the big games on the home boys' schedule and also one of the most talked of games in the state.

Last Sunday Mrs. Branigan's sixty-fifth birthday and family and friends to the number of fifty-six gathered at her home to do honor to the occasion. The reunion was most complete, there being but two absentees, one son-in-law, Mr. Haller, of Bladen, and one grandson, Will Branigan, of Columbus. There were eleven children and twenty-five grand children present, besides the sons and daughters-in-law. The birthday offering from the children was a handsome buffet. May the day be an annual festival for many years to come is the wish of her many friends and neighbors.

Dr. Ray preached at Clear Creek last Sunday afternoon, and will preach again next Sunday, at three o'clock. There were a good many out last Sunday but we hope to see many more next Sunday, to enjoy the splendid sermons with us. Come everybody.
