FITTING SHOES

It must not pinch here and show slack there. There should be no loose spots or tight spots, but shoes should fit all over

YOUR SHOES should be so nicely adapted to your feet that they give the impression of being at least a size smaller. Those new fall shoes with high toe and short vamps we have our stock complete) are as neat looking as any styles offered for many seasons past.

We Still Have Fits.

is making a tour of the district. Special trains cost money. Who is doing this?

In contrast to this was the magnificent tribute paid to Mr. Elliott last Tuesday in Burt county, the county of Mr. Latta. Forty-three automobiles, bearing 175 local republicans of Burt county made a tour of the county. Mr. Elliott is not making his campaign by special trains bearing national dignitaries, of the rank of Clark and Bryan, but rather by the free good-will of his neighbors.

Wednesday evening, Mr. Elliott and Governor Aldrich held a monster meeting at Central City, and everybody was there. Next Saturday he will travel as the guest of his friends in Boone county, and make a call on the citizens in that part of the district.

But Dan Stephens can't get next to the folks on the ground floor in that manner; no, sir; he has had the Mc-Killip training, and must have his special trains, his Bryans and Clarks.

People have said mean things about Pat McKillip; but they are not all true: Pat was in Columbus a day or two ago. He was not here in conference with the republican leaders of the county; and it is well known that he is not a resident of the district, he is taking a lively interest in this campaign. We don't believe he was here in the interest of the prohibitionists, and we don't remember hearing of a socialist going bankrupt. No; he is now paying his debts to Dan Stephens—debts far more important than the clearing off of the obligations to his former neighbors at Humphrey and Cedar Rapids, who have received a dividend of twelve and one half cents on the dollar.

Mrs. Ida Thompson spent several days last week at Doniphan, where she had been called on account of a serious accident which had befallen her father. She reports that he is somewhat improved, but that his advanced age will make recovery rather slow.

A middle aged widower would like to marry a good, respectable lady between the ages of 40 and 65 who would like a good husband. No bad habits, $25,000 worth of property. Has no relatives. Address John Kinder, communicator for party, Columbus, Nebraska.

C. L. Dickey returned Wednesday evening from Chicago, where he had been called last Thursday on account of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. H. J. Hoover. She had been an invalid for many years, and her death which occurred Saturday morning, had long been expected. A peculiarly sad incident was the fact that the morning of her death, her husband was stricken with paralysis, and there is little hope for his recovery. The couple have one child, a daughter, sixteen years old.

Emil Komarek met with an accident Wednesday evening that will keep him confined to his home for a few days, at least. He had coupled two cars, and had gone on top of one of the cars, when the train started, and the coupling drew apart, apparently not having caught properly. He had gone out with his crew for Lincoln on the freight, and the accident occurred at David City. The accident, while quite painful, does not seem to be necessarily very serious, one ankle being badly sprained. He was brought home on the passenger.

John Adolph Hauser, of Platte Center, and Miss Emma Cartenen, of this city were married last week Wednesday at St. Philomena's church, Omaha. Rev. J. W. Stenson performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. The ceremony was witnessed by Jacob Roth and Miss Margaret Leona Hauer, sister of the groom. The groom is cashier of the Farmers State bank at Platte Center, and the bride was until a short time ago book-keeper in the office of the Columbus Automobile Company. The young couple will make their home at Platte Center.

Don't forget the Orpheus dance Wednesday evening, November 8th.

Do your policies give you proper protection? We issue farm policies in the strongest company in the world for the same charge the weaker companies make. Becher, Hockenberger and Chambers.

Male footed hogs are immune from cholera, and when crossed with the Poland China makes one of the very best breeds. Mr. A. J. Thomas, in the First National Bank Building, has a few male mule foets for sale.

Edward Rossiter has accepted the local agency for the National Fidelity and Casualty Company, and is now prepared to wait on all the old customers of the company, and also to write new business for them.

Miss Wilbur, who was called last week, to Massena, Iowa, by the serious illness of her sister, returned today, leaving her sister much improved. Miss Wilbur intends to continue her work at the creche garden.

"The Servant in the House," which will be seen at the North Theatre on Monday, November 6, was called by Harper's Magazine "The most remarkable play in the English language," and the New York Sun said it was "The greatest drama of the generation," and the Chicago Daily News declared it to be "The most beautiful play of all ages." Messrs. Gaskill and MacVitty, the producers, are sending this wonderful play here with what is said to be the greatest cast of players ever sent into the Middle West, prominent in the cast is Hugo B. Koch, an actor who has endeared himself to play-goers by his excellent work of the last few years.

There will be a new business enterprise started in this city before the first of the year if present plans of parties from the east materialize. We are not at liberty to disclose the definite nature of them at present, but will say that the gentleman who has been looking over the field says that he believes Columbus to be the best city in the state, and that it has been his desire for many years to so arrange his matters that he might move here. He states that on each visit here he can see so much improvement that he becomes more enthusiastic each time. It certainly is pleasant to hear expressions of this kind from residents of other cities, and it makes us feel that if brief visits in the city can have that effect on one man they must on many more.

Last Wednesday afternoon, the German Lutheran church in this city was the scene of a double wedding, when Miss Clara Bartels and Mr. H. A. Fiddelke, and Miss Laura Bartels and Mr. Alfred Muff were united in marriage. The brides are sisters, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich Bartels, residing six miles north of this city. The ceremony was performed at three o'clock by Rev. H. Meisler, in the presence of many friends and relatives of the young people. Prof. E. Schmidling presided at the organ, and at the approach of the bridal party, played a wedding march. The bride party was preceded by two flower girls, Misses Lydia Rodehorst and Helen Kummer, and were attended by Misses Edna Rodehorst, Lillie Bartels, Louise Loske and Helen Bartels, and Messrs. George Bartels, Walter Bartels, Edward Mueller, and Louis Rodehorst. Miss Clara Bartels wore a white mesaline, and Miss Laura a gown of cream crepe de chine, and carried white roses. After the ceremony the guests were taken to the home of the brides' parents, where a reception and dance was given. Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Fiddelke left for their future home at Riverdale, where the groom is in the grocery business. Mr. and Mrs. Muff left Tuesday for Monee, Illinois, where Mr. Muff is located as a stock buyer.
