

POLITICAL PHILANTHROPY.

Recently THE CONSERVATIVE was honored by being remembered at the rooms of the American Press association which caused THE CONSERVATIVE to receive from the postoffice the following evidence of the continued existence and vigor of those patriotic philanthropists, Jones of Arkansas; Stone of Missouri; Altgeld of Illinois; Senator William Vincent Allen of the Universe; and Henry M. Teller, of the Silver Moon and Colorado.

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Who could decline to grab and embrace to breathlessness such an opulent opportunity to give wide circulation to the great designs and profound utterances of that gigantic syndicate of brains and "trust" in statesmanship?

Certainly THE CONSERVATIVE, as an advocate of the gold standard, could not decline the luxury of circulating the sixteen-to-oneness of the distinguished economists named. Therefore this issue contains the hereunto appended effort of these five dynamos of populism, free silverism and antagonism to the federal judiciary. From time to time comment may be made upon this "ways and means committee" and its methods.

IN DEFENSE OF THE PEOPLE.

WAYS AND MEANS.

To the Friends of Our Cause—Through the action of the Democratic National Committee, the undersigned have been appointed a Committee on Ways and Means to begin work, now, for the campaign of 1900, and desire to issue the following address upon the work we have undertaken:

Money to meet expenses is as necessary in securing justice for the people in the trials of great political issues before the jury of the whole people, as it is necessary in the case of a litigant securing a fair and impartial hearing before a court and jury. In the latter instance a suitor without money is unable to employ counsel of ability, take needed depositions, and make other legitimate preparations requiring the expenditure of money; and when thus situated, if opposed by a wealthy adversary, he frequently falls in securing justice by being unable to fairly and fully present his case to the court and jury.

And while this is true of the individual in a court of justice, on a much larger scale it is true of a great body of people contending for the cause of truth and liberty. Money must be raised to pay the necessary expenses, or our cause will meet with an adverse verdict in 1900.

The forces opposing us have four active national committees, to whom money is supplied by those profiting by national legislation and the corrupt administration of affairs. One of these committees is the so-called National Democratic Gold Standard Committee, at the head of which is Mr. George F. Peabody, a New York banker. Another is the Indianapolis Committee, the outgrowth of the Indianapolis gold standard commercial convention, at the head of which is H. H. Hanna, who is insidiously working through commercial bodies, seeking to frighten them into compliance with the behests of the money power. The third is the bankers' organization at 52 William street, New York, that is supplying free of expense to all willing newspapers misleading arguments in favor of the gold standard; and the fourth is the National Republican Committee, of which Mark Hanna is chairman, and to whom the trusts, monopolies and other combinations are furnishing the money for corrupting the minds of the people and debauching the nation.

If we are to combat the evil influences at work the necessary money must
