

SAM ADAMS ON PUBLIC SERVICE.

"Whatever kind of men may be denominated enemies to their country certainly he is a very injudicious friend to it who gives his suffrage for any man to fill a public place merely because he is rich, and yet there are recent instances of this in our government. I confess it mortifies me greatly. The giving such preference to riches is both dishonorable and dangerous to a government. It is equally dangerous to promote a man to a place of public trust only because he wants bread, but I think it is not so dishonorable; for men may be influenced to the latter from the feelings of humanity, but the other argues a base, degenerate, servile temper of mind. I hope our country will never see the time when either riches, or the want of them, will be the leading considerations in the choice of public officers."

Vain hope!
