

WANTED! WILLIAM Z. SUTTON

$5,000.00 REWARD!

The undersigned will pay Five Thousand Dollars in cash upon the production, within one year from November 1, 1899, and satisfactory identification of to whom the following transfers of real estate in Otoe county, Nebraska, have been made, and who has also made subsequent transfers, it is alleged, to other parties; being the same William Z. Sutton who executed his promissory note for $2,500.00, dated January 1, 1894, payable in five years from its date, with interest coupons attached, payable to the order of John C. Watson and assigned to Mrs. Theresa Neff, who also executed his promissory note for $2,500.00, dated October 4, 1894, payable one year thereafter to John C. Watson and by him negotiated at the Nebraska City National Bank; and who also executed his promissory note, dated January 1, 1894, for $2,500.00, payable in one year thereafter to the same Watson, and by the same Watson negotiated at the Merchants National Bank of Nebraska City.

The subjoined lists describe the real estate transactions involved. The William Z. Sutton wanted, and whose production and identification in person will be paid for as above, is the one who lived, it is said, near Unadilla, Otoe County, Nebraska, and has had his paper discounted, through John C.
