MID-WINTER IN CALIFORNIA.

If you have never been to California, you have no idea of how agreeably you can pass the winter there. The weather is perfect—not so warm as to be enervating nor so cold as to be uncomfortable. Rain falls but seldom, yet the hills and valleys are perennially green.

Everybody lives out-of doors. Everybody walks, and drives, and goes a picnicking in January and February in just about the same fashion as northerners do in July and August.

The trip to California costs comparatively little, takes only a few days' time and involves no hardship of any kind. If you take the Burlington Route you will reach California three days after you leave Omaha. No changes of cars are necessary and the cost of trip—including railroad fare, berth in tourist car, meals, etc., is about $50.

Thro' tourist cars for Los Angeles leave Omaha every Tuesday morning and evening and every Thursday afternoon.
