Sleeplessness

is a terrible affliction. The most common cause of it is some form of indigestion. Ripans Tabules positively cure indigestion. They do not act like opiates, producing an unnatural, immediate effect, but gradually exert an influence over the nervous system, which results in ready sleep, sound and refreshing.

"I am glad to give my testimonial in regard to the great worth of Ripans Tabules," writes a middle-aged lady, living in Philadelphia, Pa. "I slowly recovered from a severe illness and was getting along very well, only I could not sleep, which kept me from gaining strength. A friend advised me to take Ripans Tabules which acted like a charm, giving me refreshing slumber and also renewing my strength. I was also troubled with dyspepsia, and found to my great surprise that as my strength returned I was cured of this disease also."

WANTED.—A case of bad health that R-I-P A-N-S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R-I-P-A-N-S on the package and accept no substitute. R-I-P-A-N-S. 10 for 5 cents; may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., 10 Spruce St., New York.

EARLY EPISTLE FROM OMAHA.

OMAHA, NEB., April 7, 1855.

MY DEAR EMMA:—

I have just received two dear, good letters from you, one dated March 9th., the other the 15th., and hasten to answer them, before even opening one of the many newspapers from home. We came up to Omaha the first of the week, expecting to return to Bellevue the next day, but my husband was taken extremely ill and for three whole days was obliged to keep his bed. You know he is very seldom sick, and I can assure you I was somewhat frightened. He took a dose of calomel in time and other medicine, so that he recovered sooner than I had any idea of, and has today gone down to Bellevue to get us some clean apparel and the mail. But I have got the start of him, as a man came up and brought it to us. There is no postoffice for Bellevue except across the river at St. Mary's, in Mills county, Iowa. We will never live in Bellevue again. I shall return some day next week to arrange and pack our trunks, then return, probably, to Omaha, to remain until I start for the East, which will be earlier than I wrote you. S——g has made arrangements to edit "The Nebraska City News," for one year, a weekly paper, at six hundred dollars. He also intends practicing law, has rented an office with Judge Bennet; they are to practice in Iowa and Nebraska. S——g was admitted to practice in Council Bluffs, Iowa, yesterday, and can practice anywhere in the state. We have been down to Nebraska City, and are very much pleased. There are nearly fifty houses already completed, and so crowded that I can have no place at the hotel. S——g can find lodgings for himself, but none suitable for me; so we have concluded that I shall remain here and board at this house (a comfortable and well kept house) while S——g goes down there once in two weeks and remains three or four days, long enough to get out two papers.

A Homicide.

I had intended to remain at Bellevue and keep house, but since we have (fortunately) been up here, a horrible murder has been perpetrated there, which prevents us from ever making it our home again. I will send you a full account in print, as I cannot write a word, I get so excited. The parties were well known to us—and George Hollister has lived with us ever since we have kept house, and his corpse was taken to our cabin, and the prisoner examined there. News came up to us the night it happened, and word from Judge Ferguson for Governor Izard to send men, a sheriff and constables, down to take charge of him, as the citizens were determined to lynch him. He was kept from the mob, and is at present in this place, in the hands
