

MR. BRYAN'S RESPONSIBILITY.

Mr. Bryan's comments on the supreme court "insular" decision are, in the language of a dispatch, "more vigorous than is customary even with him." He says that the president has "joined hands with the supreme court to change the form of our government" and that a "5 to 4 decision declared McKinley emperor of Porto Rico." Mr. McKinley "gratefully accepted the title conferred upon him by the highest judicial tribunal in the land."

Whether this is true and reasonable or untrue and unreasonable, Mr. Bryan is mainly responsible for the condition of affairs which he describes. He disrupted the democratic party in 1896 by forcing on the Chicago convention an undemocratic, unsound, populistic platform on which he stood as a presidential candidate, and was repudiated with his platform by a million of the best democratic voters in the country. In 1900 he forced on the unwilling and recalcitrant democratic voters, the same platform and himself again as a candidate. With any other candidate and with a constitutional democratic platform, McKinley would not have been re-elected in 1900.

For all the present evils of the country which he describes, Mr. Bryan, with the violent, undemocratic, unpatriotic, unnatural, absurd populistic fusion which he twice represented as a presidential candidate, is to the amplest extent individually responsible.—Chicago Chronicle.
