ATHLETIC BOARD MEETS.

Important Elections—Bill Milford, Cap '98, Made Assistant Coach—Ike Raymond Assistant Manager of Foot Ball.

The Athletic Board held its initial meeting last evening in Coach Booth's office. The meeting was more a welcome back and a hand shake than a business proposition. However, important business matters were discussed and some decided. Bill Milford, Captain '98, was elected assistant coach, Ike Raymond, Assistant Manager. Offers from handlers of sporting goods show that Rudge and Guenzel made the lowest offer and consequently were awarded contracts in athletic goods for the coming season.

Several little talks were made on the prospects of downing Minnesota and Wisconsin. Camp life was depicted, practice plans and table discussed.

A meeting of the Athletic Board was held August 21. Those present were, Profs. Richards, Caldwell and Myers, Messrs. Koehler, Ringer, Cortelyou. The Board organized by the election of Prof. Caldwell, President, Mr. Cortelyou, Vice-President, Mr. Booth, Secretary. Mr. Ringer acted as Secretary, pro-tempore. A finance committe was elected as follows: Profs. Richards, Clapp-ets, Messrs. Doane, Thomas, Cortelyou. Football committe choice was as follows: Wyer, Chairman, Ringer, Congill. Sale of season tickets was authorized at $2.50 each. Details to be in the hands of the committee.

Prof. Richards was named a committee of one to see to building a permanent fence around the athletic grounds. The erection of a neat ticket office was discussed and it was thought that the present senior class, one of the literary or fraternal societies might be glad to build a memorial office at a cost of perhaps $50 or $75.

Such a one, built in very artistic and effective design has just been erected by one of the student societies at the athletic field of Purdue University.

THE FOOT BALL TEAM.

Camp has ended. The padded candidates for football fame have returned to Lincoln. The rains made camp life unhealthy, and play unprofitable and general conditions unsatisfactory. Last Saturday evening Coach Booth [illegible] Carroll and Capitals Westover [illegible] Only preliminary [illegible] attempted. The tackling machine, a thing of [illegible] The "dummy" will be [illegible] on Nebraska Field. Practice [illegible] Monday and Tuesday afternoons and will continue [illegible] Captain Westover, when [illegible] said: "Things are looking [illegible] I think here we [illegible] best teams in the history of [illegible] football. I expect forty men [illegible] next week. Individually we have [illegible] Coach also looks on the [illegible] He is rather covered about his [illegible]

"Nebraska will be O. K." Manager Cowgill smiles when you mention Minnesota and Wisconsin. The following men are wearing the summer's grass off the gridiron: Koehler, Brew, Ringer, Stringer, Westover, Cortelyou, Shedd, Johnston, Dorain, Ryan, Lehmer, Crandall, Eager, Bender, Kingsbury, Rymer, Briggs.

With such bright prospects for real football of the championship sort; it follows that student support will make or break Nebraska's chance of entering Western football.

Thanksgiving day, last, was a step toward the goal. The season will be the run. The team can furnish the rolling stock; the students must be the passengers. Football is the intercollegiate game. The students must be eulogistic and supporting. Fringe the field every night and cheer candidates. This encourages the team and spurs the men to their best. It don't cost but a few moments of your time, and it means lots to foot ball. See here, everybody must go to Minnesota—the game is October 12th at Minneapolis. The giants from the North had a following here of 650; with a band, enthusiasm, money, everything. Nebraska must send 400 at least. Count yourself one. Figure on going. The rates will be low; specially low. Yale and Harvard have their backers. Minnesota [illegible] ha have her sons for a few days. Knights of the megaphone and [illegible] of the pigskin.

The Daily Nebraskan is making an unprecedented offer in University journalism. The offer is made to solicitors to induce special activity in gathering subscriptions for the Daily. It is no less than a trip to Buffalo to attend the great exposition and return, with admission to the grounds and an expense allowance. This may look like a big proposition but a little figuring will show that it is within the reach of any one who will do a little hard energetic work. Five subscriptions a day for three weeks will do it. This ought not to be a hard proposition among 2,500 students.

If this prize is not reached there is a bicycle, an elegant Marlin repeating rifle with a leather case, a trip to Minneapolis and return with exepenses paid. Every student will want to go to Minnesota to see the big game. This offer will enable him to go without expense to himself. Two subscriptions a day for the next thre weeks will do it.
