THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, SEPTEMBER 20, 1901.

THREE CENTS

FIRST LINE-UP.

Varsity Squads Line Up For the First Time This Season.—Team Work Excellent. Doings at Kansas.

Never in the history of Nebraska football has September 18th seen the equal of the team this fall. With a squad of veterans like Nebraska has it will take but a couple of weeks to bring the padded fellows into the prime of condition. Wednesday night's practice was a revelation. The first hour was given over to individual coaching and kicking and catching the ball. Coaches Booth and Melford gave linemen personal attention. Reimer especially engaged Booth's attention. He is six feet six in his golf stockings and weighs like a Minnesota man—over three hundred. He towers like a church spire over the other candidates and comes like a kangaroo down the field after the ball. Coaching may develop a Hansen or Turner and the Man from Neligh will be given the chance.

Dropping on and running with the ball engaged the men. Then the first fine-up of the year came on. Crandall and Bender played halves, Kingsbury full, Ryan quarter, Shedd and Cortelley ends, Stringer and Westover tackles, Ringer new guards, Koehler center, Edwards half, while Drain for the first time this year donned his spurs and took quarter for a few moments.

Then something happened. The way the veterans fell into the interference and walled up an impregnable attacking column, brought joy to the spectators. The game was on again. The talk about Froid and Fountain of York high school on investigation has proved only a ghost. Nothing material to it. Froid is trying for a position on the Chicago varsity where he went to study medicine. Fountain will not enter college this fall. Both men are experienced and tried. It is a disappointment to everybody.

Things may not be so "easy" for Nebraska in the far west as was anticipated ante-season. Kansas may prove a momentary enigma, if not a permanent riddle. Reports from the Jayhawk country say forty candidates are out for broken necks and football honors. Kansas has rented a camp where fifteen picked men will live, eat and sleep under the vigil of Coach Outland until the last game. K. U. is making a Herculean effort to beat Nebraska this year. It will be '99 over again. If Nebraska beats Minnesota and Wisconsin and if Kansas beats her, Kansas earns a place and right to schedule with the middle-west. Thus it is the Jayhawks make their mightiest effort. Minnesota, beyond a few protestations on the earliness of the Nebraska game, is silent. This much is known, however. Each Williams has a squad of veterans who well might be the envy of any western college both in numbers and experience. About forty were in camp for several weeks before college opened up on a lake near the head of the Mississippi.

REGISTRATION INCREASES. The University was closed all day yesterday and no business whatever was transacted. The only place open all day was the Y. M. C. A. rooms which were kept running to accommodate students looking for rooms and boarding places.

Wednesday, registration went on in full blast. The increase in the enrollment over last year for the first two days was thirty-eight. Wednesday 106 new students were enrolled which with the 94 who registered Tuesday, makes a total of 200 new students who are matriculated in the University. Last year at the same time only 162 were enrolled.

The increase in the registration is causing some comment among those interested in the University. It was feared that the attendance this year would be cut down by the crop failure and the new limit of fee of three dollars. The way new students are lining up before Professor Lees is an indication that the enrollment will be larger than ever.

The fact that an extra fee of three dollars will be charged those who do not register within the limit may be accountable for the early increase.

This, however, would hardly be sufficient to cause so large an increase among the new students. Those who have watched registration for a number of years are of the opinion that it indicates a larger attendance than ever before.

The additional fee of ten dollars per semester charged to students from other states will probably cut down the attendance somewhat. One young lady from Iowa, attending that her matriculation would be eighteen dollars, asked that her fee be returned to her and left for home.

The work of registering students will continue until Tuesday evening.

The summary of attendance at the University last year shows an increase in practically all departments. In 1899-'00 there were 2,209 students on the roll. Last year the number was increased to 2,256. The summary for last year is as follows:

Miss Emma Fuller, who took her master's degree in English literature at the University several years ago, was married Wednesday to Arthur Dean, a Chicago architect. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride in Crete. She is a graduate of Doane college and attended Wellesley college before coming to the University. During the last year she has been an instructor in the affiliated school of music of the University of Illinois.

The six-months-old child of Professor A. E. Davison died Tuesday.

DOINGS IN SOCIETY.

Great Activity Among the Social Set.—A Week of Festivity.—Long Series of Dances, Luncheons and Parties.

The busiest week of the year in society is on. The rushing season among the Greeks has begun in earnest and every day is crowded with functions for the entertainment of prospective freshmen. Of course the sororities are the principal features, and luncheons, dinners and dancing are quite the fashion.

Kappa Kappa Gamma led with a chafing dish party at the home of Miss Whedon on Tuesday evening, which was followed on Wednesday with a one o'clock luncheon, given by Miss Adeloyd Whiting and Miss Emily Jenkins. The vaudeville play which had been arranged for last evening was postponed until Tuesday of next week. This evening a dancing party will be given at Walsh hall. The Kappas have pledged Miss Elizabeth Cunningham of Lincoln.

The young ladies of Delta Gamma entertained informally Wednesday evening at their handsome new chapter house and pledged Miss Loraine Comstock, Miss Julia Dewey and Miss Luella Lansing. On Saturday evening Miss Margaret Honeywell and Delta Gamma will entertain at a dinner dance.

Mrs. Ida Smith Griffith, grand treasurer of Pi Beta Phi, arrived in the city from New York Wednesday. In her honor a chafing dish party was given Wednesday night by Miss Burru. Yesterday morning Miss Minnie Morrill entertained at cards, the prize, a handsome hand-painted dish, being won by Mrs. Griffith.

A theatre party planned for last night was given up. This evening a dancing party will be held at the home of Miss Darlene Woodward and tomorrow evening there will be a banquet. The young ladies of Pi Beta Phi pledged Miss Blanche Meeker, Miss Helen Dalson and Miss Willa Allen, who is the daughter of Senator Allen of Madison.

Delta Delta Delta entertained informally at the home of Miss Josephine Poynter on Wednesday and Miss Eola Auld will entertain for them this afternoon at four o'clock.

The young ladies of Kappa Alpha Theta entertained Wednesday morning at the home of Miss Carson. They have pledged Misses Nelore Wilson, Alice Towne, Sally Agnew and Zelia Cornell.

DEBATING CLUBS.

The various debating clubs will meet at their respective halls Saturday evening. The Palladians will install the officers elected last spring and make arrangements for the annual feed to be held the following Saturday. The Delian boys will meet in the old chapel and will discuss some question of burning interest. The Union boys will organize and elect officers for the term. A question will be discussed and a general good time assured. New students are invited to attend the meetings of any of the clubs.

Y. M. C. A. NEWS.

Owing to the probable inability of Dr. Wharton to be present at the Sunday afternoon meeting it has been decided to make a slight change in the program. The meeting will be a general rally for new students. Several good speakers whose names cannot yet be announced will be present and special music has been arranged for the occasion. All new students are invited to be at the meeting. It will be held in the old chapel.

LOST.

A gold medal inscribed "Tri-State Tennis Association Medal." Finder please leave at the Registrar's office.

Students who are looking for a place to board are advised to examine the boarding house list in the Daily Nebraskan.

STOCKHOLDERS IN THE DAILY.

For the information of those interested the following list of stockholders in The Hesperian Publishing Co., the publishers of the Daily Nebraskan, is given: E. Benj. Andrews, E. H. Barbour, Chas. E. Bessey, Edward A. Bessey, J. F. Boomer, L. L. Brown, Lawrence Bruner, H. W. Caldwell, Chas. E. Chowins, F. E. Clements, S. D. Clinton, U. G. Cornell, J. W. Crabtree, J. C. Crawford, Cliff Crooks, J. Hunter, Linn M. Huntington, O. S. Irwin, J. A. Kees, W. H. King, H. P. Leavitt, A. C. Lee, G. A. Loveland, J. A. Manning, E. K. Martin, S. H. McCaw, J. T. Milek, H. H. Nicholson, H. Winett Orr, C. A. Bearson, E. F. Piper, Roscoe Pound, H. H. Roberts, R. C. Roper, C. R. Richards, L. A. Sherman, D. D. Stull, O. V. T. Stout, G. D. Sweezey, C. I. Taylor, W. Thatcher, Geo. L. Towne, E. R. Walton, John Westover, Max Westerman, E. W. Washburn, O. G. Whipple, J. I. Wyer.

F. G. HAWXBY NOMINATED FOR REGENT.

Fred G. Hawxby, '99, was nominated for Regent by the fusion conventions Wednesday morning. He was selected first by the populist convention and later endorsed by the democrats.

Mr. Hawxby has been the recipient of many honors since his graduation. He served last winter as a representative in the legislature from Nemaha county and did much effective work for the University in that capacity. He has shown his interest in his Alma Mater by his undying efforts in her behalf. He was known last winter as one of the most talented young men in the legislature. While in the University he took an active part in debating and several times represented Nebraska in the inter-state debates.

FREE TRIP TO MINNESOTA.

Subscriptions to the Daily are coming in rapidly under the influence of the prize offers published Wednesday. One solicitor in a few hours work on Wednesday and Thursday secured 25 names. Several new solicitors have been added to the list during the last few days.

One of the most popular prizes offered is the free trip to Minneapolis and return for the big game. The offer includes expense money and admission to the game. A little work with the aid of a literary society or fraternity ought to start an active solicitor well on the way toward the forty mark.

The annual publication of the Y. M. C. A., the University Hand Book, has again made its appearance among the students and is much in evidence during the first days of registration. The book was published without cost to the association, being subtlety by them to a second party. It is a great convenience to all students and may be obtained at the association rooms.

It has been decided to change the location of the Saturday night reception of men, from the chapel to the Art rooms on the second floor of the Library building. Two or three addresses will be made and new students will be made to feel at home. A large attendance is looked for.

General Secretary Hubbell is taking hold of the association work and getting used to his new surroundings. He has had considerable experience, having been in charge of association work at Moorhead, Minn. He is a graduate of Fargo College, North Dakota.

Prof. Grove E. Barber of the Latin department, and Ida E. Mock of Omaha were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Facker, 4747 Lake Ave. They returned this week from an extended trip through the east.
