THREE CENTS

ROOTERS ORGANIZE.

Rally on the Campus well Attended—
Old Time Enthusiasm
Shown—Rumors of a Lower Rate—The Practice.

Yesterday's play was snappy. The weather was cooler and it had its effect on the men. The Varsity scored three touch-downs on the scrubs in short order. Two goals were kicked. Several new plays were tried and proved all Coach Booth could ask for. The scrubs were powerless when the latest tricks were used. Ryan was back on the field and replaced Drain at quarter the latter part of play. Eager and Mulligan relieved Crandall and Bender at halves, while Bell was given a try at full. All of the sub-backs showed up in fine shape, Bell especially making some fine gains. Ringer was in the field in citizen's clothes, wearing a cane and bent knee. He will be in the game next week. Malony is doing well at guard, but has hardly had the experience of Ringer. Captain Westover and "Stub" Crandall are limping around as a result of the Kirksville game. The Osteopathic sluggers almost proved too much for Nebraska, not in football, but pugilism. The whole team is sore and bruised, but in no case is anything serious.

The rooters collected on the south bleachers, and under the tutoring of Prof. Wyer laid the foundation of the main support of successful athletics—a rooters' club. Nebraskans were distributed with the yells on the back and the fun began. Captain Teach of company C was chosen as one squad yell leader. Tonight and tomorrow night yelling will continue at 4:30 on Nebraska field. Wilson and Hall have a line of megaphones for twenty-five cents that the rooters agreed to get. They have ordered two hundred. Nebraska will be equipped entirely new for their trip north. New sweaters, new jerseys, new suits, new everything. The appearance of a team counts much in the impression it makes.

Last night there was a rumor to the effect that the five-dollar rate had been cut by the Burlington and met by the Rock Island, but it could not be confirmed. Manager Cowgill went to Omaha yesterday to dicker on rates.

AT NORTHWESTERN.

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday gives the following resume of two teams Nebraska is interested in:

Five new candidates and Shock and Hansen of last year's line were the recruits received by Coach Hollister at Sheppard field yesterday afternoon. Northwestern now has all of last year's team back except Hunter, and the coach is puzzled to know who will make the team. He says not over five men of last year are certain to hold their positions because of the new men. Enough men were on Sheppard field to make three teams and have enough substitutes to meet the usual number of accidents. The coach will arrange another schedule for the second team. He is now corresponding with several of the smaller colleges for dates. Most of the games will be played in Evanston. Among the most promising men are the Rahger brothers of the University of Kansas and Johnson Hanson, who played on the prep. team several years ago. The practice was light and was intended to develop speed. Dr. Hollister has appointed a committee to canvass the students concerning going to Ann Arbor on October 17, the day of the game between Michigan and the purple. It is expected 200 students will go.

AT WISCONSIN.

From Monday's practice it would seem Coach King is not satisfied with the work at full back. Instead of playing Abercrombie there, as he has ever since practice started, he played Hammerson, the big sub tackle of last year's team. Hammerson's work, however, was not quite up to standard, and Abercrombie was called in for the last few minutes of play. At present full back seems to be the most doubtful position on the team. Holstein, although rather new at the game, is by far the most likely candidate for Jerry Riordan's old position at left guard. Schreiber at left tackle also looks like a certainty. He is a hard, aggressive player, and gets into the

CLASS ELECTIONS.

Seniors and Juniors Choose Officers—
Beattie and Strayer the Successful Candidates—
Other Offices Filled.

A lively session of the senior class was held yesterday afternoon. The cause of the stir was the election of class officers for the first semester.

The principal contest was over the choice of president. There were three candidates, Beattie, Horne and Milek. Considerable electioneering had been done beforehand and when the proper time came Mr. Beattie was able to marshal his forces and carry off the plum.

The meeting was called to order by the president, F. K. Neilson, who made a brief talk. He extolled the class for past achievements and deplored what he called "peanut politics." The three candidates for president were then put in nomination. The result of the ballot was as follows: Milek, 10; Beattie, 42; Horne, 23.

ness meeting of this year in the new chapel yesterday afternoon at one o'clock with about seventy members present.

Some electioneering had been done during the last few days and considerable interest was shown in the result of the election, particularly in the case of the president, who has the power of appointing the chairman, master of ceremonies and committee of the junior prom.

Three candidates ran for that office—James Furgeson, G. A. Lee and H. G. Strayer. The supporters of Strayer showed their hand and the result of the first formal ballot was his election to the office of president of the class.

The remainder of the elections resulted as follows: First vice president, Fred Lipp; second vice president, George Shidler; secretary, Miss Edith Hess; treasurer, Miss Emily Jenkins; sergeant-at-arms, Ray Polard; senator, DeWitt Hausen. It is worthy of note that this is the third time Miss Jenkins has been elected to the office of treasurer.

No other business coming before the class, the meeting was adjourned. Following the usual custom the retiring presiding officer was chosen as sergeant-at-arms.

DEBATING CLUBS.

The debating clubs will meet as usual Saturday evening, October 5, at their respective halls. New students are always welcome at these meetings. The questions and debaters are as follows:

UNION.

Resolved, That as a preventive of the spread of anarchy, the immigration laws of this country should be made more stringent. Affirmative, North, Milek, Strayer; negative, Chase, Weaver, Rulla.

PALLADIAN.

Resolved, That the United States should maintain her position as the fourth naval power of the world. Affirmative, Clarke, Keyser; negative, Wright, Johnson.

DELIAN.

Resolved, That it is for the best interest of Cuba that it be annexed to the United States. Affirmative, Furgeson, Davis, Johnson; negative, Nye, Morrow, James.

RUMORS OF A LOWER RATE.

Quite a flurry was caused last night by the rumor that a three-dollar rate to Minneapolis had been made by some of the competing roads. No confirmation of the report could be secured. At the B. & M. office nothing definite was known except that the rumor was abroad. The Northwestern officials professed ignorance of the cut, but said they did not know what they might do. They expressed the opinion that they could carry people to Minneapolis as cheaply as anybody. There is evidently a war on between the roads that may result in a reduction to less than five dollars.

interference in excellent shape. At quarter Fogg is showing up strong, and will probably hold the position.

Both Hammerson and Abercrombie are fast, heavy men, but neither is able to kick as the badger full backs of past years have. It is possible this difficulty will be solved by calling back Schreiber or Juneau when any punting or drop kicking is necessary. The men were not lined up for scrimmage work, the whole time being devoted to running through formations.

BATTALION APPOINTMENTS.

A part of the appointments of cadet officers for the ensuing year have been made. The remainder of them will be announced later.

Those so far announced are as follows: Burke Hall, captain company A; A. K. Barnes, captain company D; Chas. Teach, captain company C; James R. Farney, first lieutenant and adjutant; W. P. Wallace, first lieutenant company B. Until the appointment of the captain of B, the company will be in charge of Lieutenant Wallace.

F. W. Brown, '00, has accepted a position as principal of the Humboldt schools and will teach there this year.

Mr. Beattie was introduced as the new president and in a brief speech outlined his plans for the semester. He especially emphasized his desire to make the semester one of activity.

Messrs. Pepoon and Stull were placed in nomination for vice president. On motion it was decided to make the one receiving the most votes first vice president and the other second. The result of the ballot made Mr. Pepoon first vice president and Mr. Stull second vice president.

Miss Pollock was chosen secretary and Miss Barrett historian.

There was something of a fight for class senator. J. D. Dassenbrock and Carroll Powers were the candidates. The vote was close, Mr. Powers receiving 28 votes to Mr. Dassenbrock's 26.

Ex-President Neilson was made sergeant-at-arms.

After the election the president was empowered to appoint a football manager and captain. He was also ordered to appoint a committee, including the class senator, to confer with the Chancellor regarding a commencement orator. This early action is taken in order to insure getting a good one.
