 DEBATING CLUBS.
 The Union Boys Debating Club held its meeting as usual. The question, resolved, that the United States government should aid the Boers in their struggle for liberty, was debated by Messrs. Scott, Pospisil, and Meier in the affirmative and Messrs. Cronin, Gibbons and Baldwin in the negative.
 The Palladin Boys Debating Club argued the question, resolved, that labor unions cannot accomplish anything to justify their continued existence. The affirmative was upheld by Messrs. King and Nelson, and the negative by Messrs. Johnson and Hall.
 The Maxwell Debating Club argued upon the question, resolved, that Congress should pass an act defining the circulation of anarchistic literature and speech as treason. Affirmative, Messrs. Swain, Peterson, Sr., and W.K. Williams. Negative, Messrs. Rotruck, F. C. Foster and Reardon.
 Inconsistency of Present Laws.
 A New Jersey baker who was fined for selling bread on Sunday has demonstrated the inconsistency of present laws by buying on Sunday a cigar at the drug store kept by the justice who fined him. He also bought stamps at the postoffice, showing that the government itself violates the law.
