Nebraska does not lack in enthusiasm when she is once aroused but it is a hard proposition to get her aroused. Any one who saw the campus last Saturday was very forcibly reminded that Nebraska had gone to Minnesota. It is useless to blame ourselves now for the rooting we did not do up there. Minnesota is not the last one we play this year. We are going to play Ames, Missouri and Kansas at Lincoln before Thanksgiving. If we don't get out and root we ought to lose all of these.

The Daily advocates the organization of a rooters club on a permanent basis. There ought to be a regular set of officers, and they ought to be fellows who are not afraid to go ahead. Nebraska has plenty of material for such a club, but it wants to be welded into something effective before its influence will be felt. A meeting in the chapel for the formation of such a club on a permanent basis may be looked for within a few days. Let every man who has any regard for Nebraska's name turn out when the call comes.

It is to be regretted that there were not ample accommodations to carry all who desired to see the game Saturday. The railroads cannot be blamed, however. Had the sale of tickets been made some days in advance it would have been possible to have known somewhere near the number that were going. Under the conditions this was not possible. The final rate was not made until the last minute and then all the plans were overthrown. Considering everything the excursion was a success from every point of view.

ECHOES FROM THE GAME.

It is reported that a good deal of practical joking was indulged in on the several sections of the excursion train. In one car where some three or four "solid" couples were traveling the rest of the passengers provided themselves with rice and administered a shower to the interested parties.

Particularly among University people was observed the pleasure taken in the beautiful fall scenery in Minnesota. The foliage of the trees in all their flaming and bronzed shades on the hill sides in the heat of the sun presented a sight very rare in Nebraska. A great many ambitious ones took advantage of stops made and gathered huge bunches of leaves and branches. One car was a veritable bower of beauty.

Considerable comment has been noticed in regard to the behavior of the crowd which took advantage of the rates. It is only due to the welfare and good name of the University to say that a large number of people who went up on those trains were parties entirely disinterested as far as the University was concerned. A great many made the trip unpleasant to University people because of their rowdyish actions and general bad behavior. It is a very easy thing for such to bring discredit to the University and it is hoped that it will be understood that any ungentlemanly conduct observed was not, except perhaps in rare instances, due to students.

A large number of students were very much disappointed in that they had so little or almost no time to visit the Minnesota University buildings and grounds. Those who improved their opportunity and went up on Thursday night had time to see a considerable number of places of interest to students in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Some Nebraska students who were in Minneapolis on Friday had the good fortune to attend chapel at the University. They report that it was a great meeting and full of life and noise. The time was given up to the "Rooters Club" and they took complete charge. The large auditorium was completely filled and the windows packed with students.

It was noticed at the Minnesota game that they have about as many people in the neighboring trees and on fences and housetops as we have here. There was no way to tell how many of them were possibly students, but we can only hope that they were not. Public student sentiment should be such that any student would be ashamed to look another fellow student in the face after doing such a thing.

The Alpha Phi house at the University of Wisconsin was badly burned a few days ago. The fire was caused by an over-heated furnace. Much damage was done to the young ladies' belongings in getting them out, and the personal loss will be considerable. The loss on the building was fully covered by insurance. The sorority property was uninsured and the loss thereon consists chiefly in the damage to furniture by smoke and water. The girls who were living in the building at the time will for the present live at the Gamma Phi house.
