TUMBLE WEEDS.

Sioux City, Iowa, Oct. 21, 1901.

Mr. Dunroy:—
 Are these poems REAL poetry? Most certainly, for they have come out of the heart of the poet, and the thought is the thought of the people and of the race. All come as a message, sometimes almost divine, out of the heart only to find a lodgment in the heart. That indefinable something which characterizes all true poetry and all divinely gifted poets is clearly found in Tumble Weeds.
 Kindly yours,
 WILLIS MARSHALL.

What in the world to give a friend?

Yale men know and the New Haven Union says: "The question of what in the world to give a friend is solved by SONGS OF ALL THE COLLEGES which is alike suitable for the collegian of the past, for the student of the present, and for the boy (or girl) with hopes; also for the music-loving sister and a fellow's best girl."
 "All the new songs, all the old songs, and the songs popular at all the colleges, a welcome gift in any home any where."
