F. W. Taylor, well known to some of the older students as the former superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, for several years connected with the management of the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo, sent several very interesting botanical specimens to the University Herbarium. They are orchids of certain rare species growing in Venezuela.

Ringer, one of Nebraska's strongest linemen, has been ordered by his doctor to quit football for the rest of the season. He has been troubled with a bad knee for some time and the injury was aggravated in the Minnesota game. His loss will make a big hole in the Nebraska line.—Kansas City Star.

E. H. Pierce, returned yesterday from the northern part of South Dakota where he had been engaged since the last of May in a government surveying party, under the contract awarded to G. W. Bates and his partner, an engineer from Omaha. Mr. Pierce was so busy registering yesterday that he scarcely had time to shake hands with his friends. He says that Mr. Bates will be back in a day or two to continue his work in the Civil Engineering Department.

THE LOG OF THE THOMAS.
Librarian J. I. Wyer has just received a little book called the Log of the Thomas; with the compliments of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Abbott. It is a neat volume of seventy-five pages, dedicated to the officers of the transport Thomas, which last summer carried four hundred teachers to Manila. It gives the history of the voyage and personal paragraphs concerning members of the expedition. Many university people will find it of interest, as Mr. Abbott and wife are both University graduates. They are at present members of the teaching force in the Philippines.

TUMBLE WEEDS.

Sioux City, Iowa, Oct. 21, 1901.

Mr. Dunroy:—

Are these poems REAL poetry? Most certainly, for they have come out of the heart of the poet, and the thought is the thought of the people and of the race. All come as a message, sometimes almost divine, out of the heart only to find a lodgment in the heart. That indefinable something which characterizes all true poetry and all divinely gifted poets is clearly found in Tumble Weeds.

Kindly yours,
WILLIS MARSHALL.
