

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

NOTICE TO SENIORS IN INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE.

I wish to confer with every senior with reference to his University credits. Please bring your "credit books" to the Dean's Office, Room 104, University Hall, and see me if possible between 11:30 and 12 o'clock any morning within the next week. In case you cannot come at this hour, leave your "credit book" with the Recorder.

CHARLES E. BESSEY,
Dean.

ADVANCED CREDITS.

All students whose credits have not been satisfactorily adjusted or who may have advanced credit from high schools and academies should consult the University examiner as soon as convenient. Office hours, 11:30 to 12:30, in Dean's room, U. 104.

JAS. T. LEES.

MISSION CLASS.

Mission Study Class will meet Saturday. The class in Lawrence's Introduction to Foreign Missions meet at 1 pm. in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The class in "Evangelization" meets at 2 pm. in Y.W.C.A. rooms. All who have registered are requested to be present and others interested are invited.

SUNDAY MEETING.

Dr. H. O. Rowlands will address the men's meeting next Sunday, at 4 pm., in Union hall. During his travels in Europe last summer he had many opportunities to witness the workings of the Young Men's Christian Association. He will speak on the topic: "The Foundation of Association Work."

DEBATING CLUB MEETING.

A meeting of the Debating Association is called for Saturday, Nov. 2, 9:30 am. The meeting will be held in Law Room.

Wm. MORROW,
President.

The Chapin Union will hold a Halloween party at All Souls church, Twelfth and H streets Saturday night November 2. All students are invited.

The dramatic club is preparing two plays which will be given to the public before long. They are entitled "Ladies' Battle" and "Betsey Baker". The parts have been assigned and rehearsal will begin soon.
