A letter recently received from H. H. Culyer, ex. '02, who went to the Philippines in the summer, states that he is comfortably settled in a small town about forty miles from Manila and enjoying life in the East. He says that hemp buying is not all that it "is cracked up to be," but "it beats eight o'clock classes all hollow."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The Engineering society held a special yesterday morning and adopted the following resolutions sending them together with a small floral tribute to the home of Mr. Turner's father:

Be it resolved by the Engineering Society of the University of Nebraska:

Whereas: God in his infinite wisdom has taken from us our esteemed honorary member and personal friend Edmond F. Turner just as he was entering a professional career of success;

Resolved: That the society does hereby extend to the bereaved family of which he was a member, its sincere sympathy in this time of deep sorrow;

And that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the society and likewise a copy be presented to his family.

By the committee,

DAN GUTLBEN,
F. S. HUNT,
J. A. GREEN.
