The Jayhawkers made their score on a thirty-five yard run on a quarterback kick.

THE TRACK MEET.
 The Annual University Handicap Track meet was held Friday afternoon on the athletic field. A gold medal was given the winner of each event. Shedd in the Hammer throw.

Manager Clinton expressed himself as well pleased with the results of the meet. Several new men showed up well. The showing made indicates that Nebraska will have a strong track team this year.

PALLADIAN MUSICALS.
 The first Palladian musicale of the year was given at the usual hour last Friday evening before a large and appreciative audience. The first number was a piano solo by Miss Hasse. It consisted of three selections from Grieg. "Lonely Wanderer," "Erotilis" and "To Spring." In response to encore, Miss Hasse repeated the best of the three.
 A vocal solo "The Flight of Ages," by Miss Lally followed. The selection was especially adapted to Miss Lally's voice. Following this came a piano duet by Miss Pearl Emerick and Miss Sylvia Beatty. The selection was a military march entitled, "The King's Hussars."
 The closing number, an instrumental solo, was by Miss Anne Griffin. All the numbers were enjoyed and each deserves special mention.

SOME MEN Need a Change of Clothes this fall... Others need a change of Clothiers.

THE MAN who has been in the habit of having his clothes made at the tailors is apt to shy a little when we talk to him about $15 suits. Its very SIGNIFICANT though that so many of our customers were devotees of the best tailor shops... YOU'D UNDERSTAND WHY AFTER YOU'D worn one of our suits. Here's a fine lot of chevrets and cassimeres at $10, $12.50, $13.50 and $15.00. Couldn't be a better time to try us than now—"all things for the well dressed man."

HAVE YOU tried on one of our long, loose, easy fitting, yoked overcoats? There is nothing this side of the finest tailor that can hold a candle to them. They're just about the smartest, richest looking coverlet a man ever stuck his arm through. Here is a lot at $15, $18, $20. Other kinds at prices from $7.50 to $20. Every other stylish thing to dress you wear.
