Tigers Vanquished on Two Fields

ushers. The members of the various teams which played during the evening and the managers, Miss Barr and Miss Pound, say they would like to express through the columns of the Nebraskan, their appreciation of the help rendered them from these various quarters.

Interviewed on the point by a reporter, Miss Barr said she did not know yet about the financial side of the game. It had not been expected that expenses would be met, since the opposing team had been brought so far, and so small an admission fee had been charged. Nor would it have mattered since there is plenty of money in the basket-ball treasury.

Things look, she said, as if not only had all expenses been met, but a good sum left over and above to help toward the annual tournament for the challenge trophy, in February, or a possible game with Minnesota next year.

The Patronesses for the evening were: Mesdames E. B. Andrews, W. J. Bryan, C. E. Bessey, J. B. Horton, J. T. Lees, S. B. Pounds, C. R. Richards, A. S. Tibbets, H. H. Wilson and I. P. S. Weeks. Many prominent people, from the University or the city were noticed among the spectators. Basket ball at the University draws the best class of people in the city for its patrons, and seems to hold high place in popularity.

The line-up for the Missouri-Nebraska match was as follows:

Forwards—Missouri, Maud Montgomery, Caroline Stoner. Nebraska, Eleanor Miller, Minnie Jansa.

Centers—Missouri, Blanche Enyart, Logan Norvell. Nebraska, Hannah Pillsbury (captain), Gertrude Macomber.

Guards—Missouri, Lake Brewer, Anna Newell. Nebraska, Elva Sly, Zora Shields.

Substitutes—Edith Dungan, Sophie Bodenheimer (Missouri), Margaret McCutcheon (Nebraska.)

For the second team—mixed team game: Forwards—Pearl Archibald, Eona King, Edith Higgins (captain) Amy Conger, Alice Towne, Margaret Honeywell. Guards—Ida Taylor, Clara Fowler, Carolina Cook, Ruth Bryan.

THE HIGH SCHOOL GAME.

Red Oak high school was defeated by the Lincoln high school on the campus by a score of 17 to 0. The Iowa boys were clearly out-classed at all stages of the game especially on their defensive play. Only once did they hold the Lincoln boys for downs.

Lincoln played in her usual form and there were no stars, every man was in his place and the line opened up holes in the opposing line through which the Lincoln backs had no difficulty in going.

Red Oak kicked off to Burwick, who returned fifteen yards. On the second down Haegle was sent through left tackle for 60 yards and the first touchdown. Haegle kicked goal. Score 6 to 0.

After a few more downs E. Follmer went around the end into a clear field for about 50 yards but was cowned on Red Oak's three yard line. On the next down Lincoln pushed the pig skin over for the ond touchdown. Haegle kicked goal.

In the second half the Iowa boys took a brace and played ball. They worked the ball steadily down the field and into Lincoln's territory but did not threaten the goal. They were finally stopped and held. Then the Lincoln boys began a procession which netted them another touchdown. Haegle failed goal. Score 17 to 0. After several wrangles as to whom the ball belonged to time was called with the ball in Red Oak's possession in the center of the field.

LINE UP.
