Tim. F. McCarthy, '95, has removed from Aurora to Lincoln. He is connected with the Nebraska Paper and Bag Co. He has been county superintendent of Hamilton county for some time. He was succeeded in that office by J. A. Woodward who was a student in the University last year.

J. F. Stoltz, '99, was one of the fortunate ones in the land drawing down in Indian Territory last summer. He drew number 67 which was a very lucky number. He at once gave up his position as teacher at Culbertson and took up his residence on his new claim. He is located in the Washita Valley just across the border line. The Washita valley and river are both very beautiful and Mr. Stoltz is well pleased with the country. He expresses great hopes for its future.

The Pershing rifles held the best drill so far this year, last night. All of the officers and non-commissioned officers were present. The corporals have not yet been appointed. There were five sets of fours in the line last night which is an unusual showing at this time of the year. Orders were read to the effect that full uniforms, including leggings would be required after Thanksgiving. The first open drill will be held December 5.
