The lack of interest in musical activities that is manifest among the students of the University indicates a state of affairs that ought not to exist. The accomplishments that a general musical education bring to a student cannot fail to be of inestimable value to him after he has left school. This is a fact that ought to be recognized by all, but it is usually not realized until it is too late to begin. The social advantages which a knowledge of music brings to a man or woman, are of inestimable value after school days are over.

The University offers to all students free instruction in choral work. The advancement that can be made in these classes can be seen in the work of the advanced class last Friday in the oratorical "The Messiah." If students fail to take advantage of these opportunities, they fail to get all that is possible out of their University life.

CHAPEL ASSIGNMENTS THIS WEEK.

This morning at convocation, Professor Taylor will continue his address on reciprocity begun last Tuesday. On Tuesday morning Professor Swezey will talk about the New Star of 1901. Wednesday morning Professor Bessey will speak on Forestry. Thursday the period will be occupied by G. A. Loveland of the Weather Bureau. Friday a special sacred music program will be rendered.

SOPHOMORES ORGANIZE TEAM

The sophomores met Saturday afternoon for basket ball practice and chose Dan McCutchen, captain. Two teams were selected and spirited practice was engaged in for an hour. From the twelve men who were out material for a good team will be selected. Those in the game were: McCutchen, Magdanz, McNow, Powell, Manning, Huse, Miers, Beard, Bell, Elliott, Beers, Melick.

ENGLISH 11 AND 13.

Those members of English 11 and 13 to whom I returned their first arguments, submitted on October 3 and 4 respectively, will please return to me those arguments—not rewritten—before the University classes for the Christmas recess.
