Entered at the post office at Lincoln, Neb. as second class mail matter.

The era of class scraps has apparently begun, and from now on until the end of the year there will likely be a series of happenings which will more or less take the interest of the whole University.

The action by some classmen last night in attacking the members of the Freshman class by poster was somewhat unlooked for and more or less comment has been remarked about the University on the way in which the campaign was opened up. It seems that the language and mode of attack in the notice published has been criticised by some as being entirely too strong and uncalled for, there being plenty of room for an attack in the nature of a "roast" which would have been practically as startling and which in a charitable manner could bring as much glory to the originators of the poster.

The Daily, on this matter, desires place its elf on record as forever discouraging any thing in the nature of a libel in any way circulated against any class or members of any class or any other organization in the University.

We do not mean to discourage the conflicts which come up naturally between the different classes but we do and will continue to discourage all questionable means of raising excitement among the classes in the University.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The University of Michigan considers that the resemblance between Nebraska's song, "The Scarlet and Cream" and Michigan's "Yellow and Blue" is too striking, particularly in the last paragraph. The Yellow and Blue was written in 1883.

The University of Wisconsin has a faculty gymnasium class.

The gate receipts of the Wisconsin-Minnesota game amounted to $15,387. The new permanent grand stand at Madison cost $900.

The University of California has given notice to students that re-examinations to raise grades will no longer be allowed.

Minnesota's receipts for the Nebraska, Iowa and Wisconsin games were $31,000.

The Yale graduates living in the Hawaiian Islands are considering the idea of founding a scholarship at Yale.

The University of Chicago has absorbed nineteen schools within the past five years.

Andrew Carnegie has promised to give $1,000,000 toward a great technical institute, if Pittsburg will furnish the site.

It is reported that some college professors in the east are preparing to get out a dictionary of American college slang.

Iowa's athletic association closes the year in debt. This is due, partly to improvements made on the grounds, and partly to poor house patronage. The Minnesota game was a disappointment, there being only $4,400 paid attendance.

Fifty-two candidates are out trying for a position on Michigan's base ball nine for next year.

Cornell has a fencing team and is arranging for contests with Michigan and Wisconsin.

A Cornell Association has been organized in the Philippines.

Five hundred and thirty-five courses are offered by the faculty of arts and sciences at Harvard for the academic year 1901-02.

Columbia University will grant free tuition to at least five Filipinos to be recommended by the government.

Undergraduates of Harvard University are attempting to arrange an international debate with Yale and Harvard on one side and Cambridge and Oxford on the other.

State Secretary Bailey of Omaha, called at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Tuesday morning. He is working for the state convention to be held at York in February.

D. B. Eddy of Yale visited the University last week in the interest of the Student Volunteer monument for foreign missions. He spoke at the Sunday afternoon meeting which was held in the auditorium and a large crowd was present in spite of the severe weather. Mr. Eddy's visit has helped both of the Christian Associations in their missionary activity, giving them a large vision of the missionary field and the responsible part that students have in the civilizing of every corner of the earth.

Norton Ware of Nebraska City is pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
