Justice court practice was organized in the Law School, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Herbert completed his work in law Thursday and left for Bismark South Dakota where he will join a law firm.

Howard Saxton, law '01, is in Lincoln looking up a location to practice his profession. Mr. Saxton was a candidate for county judge of Cass County this fall.

G. B. Johnson of the junior laws, was in Omaha a few days last week. Mr. Johnson will not resume his course until next semester.

A practical joke was played on Mr. Morrow of the junior laws a few evenings ago, while he was acting as sub-librarian. One of the law boys put a cat in a drawer of the librarian's desk, while he was out for a moment. Shortly after he came back, "Scrubby" Hohl went to the desk and requested a book which he knew to be in the same drawer with the cat. When Mr. Morrow opened the desk the cat popped out, and so also did Mr. Morrow's eyes. It is said that one could have knocked them off with a stick.
