The work of judging the fitness of the members of the interstate debating squad for membership in the Colorado, Kansas and Missouri teams will be continued this afternoon in the new chapel at 5 o'clock, when several of the speakers in the municipal ownership section will debate.

Miss Theresa Steele entertained a number of friends in a very enjoyable manner Saturday evening. Progressive high-five was the amusement, participated in by the following: Misses Grisinger, Townsend of Beatrice, Newton, Druse and Mrs. Boettcher; Messrs. Le Roy, Smith, Campbell, Sundean, Lucier and Boettcher.

DU TEIL—Cigars "that's all."

The basketball team is putting in some hard practice preparatory to its northern trip. The first game will be played with Minnesota on next Saturday. The game with Sioux City which, according to the schedule, was to have been played before the former will not be played until next Monday on the return trip. Kansas has asked the game with her team to be called off owing to the lack of a suitable floor on which to play, the one formerly used having been appropriated for some other purpose. Thus far it seems very probable that the date which was to have been taken by Kansas will be given to William Jewell College.

Y. W. C. A. TO HOLD SUNDAY MEETING.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold regular meetings on Sunday afternoon here after. The meeting last Sunday was well attended. Miss Weldy, the general secretary, led. She gave a strong earnest plea for Christian work saying that like Esther of old, students were brought to their kingdom, the University, for just such a purpose. At the close of the meeting the young women expressed their appreciation of the service, and their pleasure in the fact that they might look to such a meeting each week.
