T. N. E. DANCING PARTY.
 One of the prettiest university dances that has been given for some time took place a Walsh hall last Friday night. The dance was given by the T. N. Es. an inter-fraternity society which corresponds to the Omega Psi among the university societies.

Though the party was a very small one, only about eighteen couples being in attendance, the hall was most tastily decorated. Every where in the rooms were hung the fraternity pennants. A Japanese corner had been arranged where punch was served while the orchestra played behind an embankment of palms. The decorations in the dining room and the refreshments were in the fraternity colors, green and black. Large bronze candelabras held green and black candles while American Beauty roses gave the only note of contrasting color. Dancing was continued until early in the morning.

Professor Caldwell lectured Thursday before the history department of the Woman's club on "The Financial History of our Country from 1789 to 1820."

Miss Jessie Beuton Spurek, 97, was recently married to Judge Wilmer B. Comstock of Lincoln. Miss Spurek was well known in university circles and also as a teacher in the Lincoln public schools. The bridal pair are spending their honeymoon in the south. On their return they will beat home at Seventeenth and K streets.

W. J. BRYAN
 ON
"Tumble Weeds."

"Tumble Weeds" is a collection of original poems by Will Reed Dunroy, the author of "Corn Tassels." While some of these poems have special reference to western life, most of them are upon themes as broad as humanity, and they give evidence of an unusual degree of poetic talent in the author.—W. J. BRYAN, in the Commoner.
