A chess tournament is being arranged for some time in the future between Stanford and California universities.

The sophomores of California are laying plans for a sophomore circus, to raise funds for the track team.

Michigan is agitating the question of student and official support of the university band. Meetings to rouse enthusiasm and support have been held in order to preserve the band intact and make it worthy of the institution.

Yale won in the intercollegiate swimming championship matches between that institution and Harvard, Columbia and Pennsylvania.

W. J. BRYAN

ON

"Tumble Weeds."

"Tumble Weeds" is a collection of original poems by Will Reed Dunroy, the author of "Corn Tassels." While some of these poems have special reference to western life, most of them are upon themes as broad as humanity, and they give evidence of an unusual degree of poetic talent in the author.—W. J. BRYAN, in the Commoner.

At all good bookstores or of the University Publishing Co., Lincoln, Nebraska, $1.00, postage prepaid.
