The editorial in Wednesday's issue of the Nebraskan in which the playing of the band was referred to has apparently been misinterpreted by some of the members of the band. There was no intention of criticising any of the members of the band, for it is well known that they are doing very well considering the equipments and the music with which they are provided. The idea intended to convey by the editorial was that too little attention was paid to marches and military music, with the natural consequence that the band on dress parade is not what it is in the concert hall. As a concert band it is undoubtedly the best that the university has ever had. Yet the presence of the members of the band on the bleachers watching the band instead of being with it is evidence of the fact that the band is not a strictly military band.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

During the week the new committees of the Y. M. C. A. have held meetings and organized their department of work. Saturday at 6 o'clock there will be held a dinner in the Y. M. C. A. room for all the committeemen, and officers of the association. About seventy men will be present. The written policy of each committee will there be read by the chairman. This meeting will thus combine the social and the business interests. The member of a committee who stays away will miss a square meal and a chance to get on the inside track of the association work.

MEN'S MEETING.

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the president of the association, Mr. Ringier, will address the men on the committee work of the Y. M. C. A. Anyone desiring knowledge of committee work let him come out Sunday afternoon. This will be an important and interesting meeting. Every man in the university is invited to be present, but it is especially important that every committeeman be present.

TORONTO DELEGATES.

The Toronto delegates have been busy since their return presenting the student volunteer idea and the cause of foreign missions in the different churches of the city. There is hardly a young peoples' society in the city which has not heard of this work.

A CORRECTION.

Editor Daily Nebraskan: The fact that Mr. Turrell was appointed to a fellowship in Germanics at Columbia university has led you to say that he was from the department of German. This is only partially true, his major in his graduate work being in the Romance languages, with Dr. Edgren. Mr. Turrell took his Germanics as an undergraduate and only in part for his second degree. Very truly yours,
LAURENCE FOSSLER.
